Item 5. Other Events.

As previously reported by First Union Corporation ("First Union") in its Current Report on Form 8-K, dated April 16, 2001, First Union and Wachovia Corporation ("Wachovia") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 15, 2001, and amended and restated, pursuant to which, among other things, Wachovia will merge with and into First Union, with First Union as the surviving corporation (the "Merger"). Consummation of the Merger remains subject to various conditions, including regulatory approval and approval of First Union and Wachovia shareholders.

On July 20, 2001, the North Carolina Business Court rendered an order and opinion in connection with certain litigation relating to the Merger (the "Court Opinion"). On July 20, 2001, First Union issued a news release relating to the Court Opinion and the Merger (the "News Release"). The News Release and the Court Opinion are attached hereto as Exhibit 99(a) and Exhibit 99(b), respectively, and are incorporated into this Item 5 by reference.

Item 7. Financial Statements, Pro Forma Financial Information and Exhibits.

This Current Report on Form 8-K (including information included or incorporated by reference herein), and any statements made by First Union in the conference call, may contain, among other things, certain forward-looking statements with respect to each of First Union, Wachovia and the combined company following the proposed Merger, as well as the goals, plans, objectives, intentions, expectations, financial condition, results of operations, future performance and business of First Union and/or the combined company, including, without limitation, (i) statements relating to the benefits of the Merger, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhanced revenues, and the accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the Merger, (ii) statements regarding certain of First Union's and/or the combined company's goals and expectations with respect to earnings, earnings per share, revenue, expenses, and the growth rate in such items, as well as other measures of economic performance, including statements relating to estimates of credit quality trends, and (iii) statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words "may", "could", "would", "should", "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans", "targets" "probably", "potentially", "projects" or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various factors (many of which are beyond First Union's control). The following factors, among others, could cause First Union's and/or the combined company's financial performance to differ materially from the goals, plans, objectives, intentions, and expectations expressed in such forward-looking statements: (1) the risk that the businesses of First Union and Wachovia will not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (2) expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the Merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; (3) revenues following the Merger may be lower than expected; (4) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the Merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (5) the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the Merger on the proposed terms and schedule; (6) the failure of First Union's and Wachovia's stockholders to approve the Merger; (7) the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which First Union and/or the combined company conducts operations may be different than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on First Union's and/or the combined company's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses; (8) the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; (9) inflation, interest rate, market and monetary fluctuations; (10) adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) and the impact of such conditions on First Union's and/or the combined company's capital markets and capital management activities, including, without limitation, its mergers and acquisition advisory business, equity and debt underwriting activities, private equity investment activities, derivative securities activities, investment and wealth management advisory businesses, and brokerage activities; (11) the timely development of competitive new products and services and the acceptance of these products and services by new and existing customers; (12) the willingness of customers to accept third party products marketed by First Union and/or the combined company; (13) the willingness of customers to substitute competitors' products and services for First Union's and/or the combined company's products and services and vice versa; (14) the impact of changes in financial services' laws and regulations (including laws concerning taxes, banking, securities and insurance); (15) technological changes; (16) changes in consumer spending and saving habits; (17) the effect of corporate restructurings, acquisitions and/or dispositions, including, without limitation, the Merger, and the actual restructuring and other charges related thereto; (18) the growth and profitability of First Union's and/or the combined company's noninterest or fee income being less than expected; (19) unanticipated regulatory or judicial proceedings; (20) the impact of changes in accounting policies by the Securities and Exchange Commission; (21) adverse changes in the financial performance and/or condition of First Union's and/or the combined company's borrowers which could impact the repayment of such borrowers' outstanding loans; and (22) the success of First Union and the combined company at managing the risks involved in the foregoing. Additional information with respect to factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by such forward-looking statements is included in the reports filed by First Union with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

First Union cautions that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the Merger or other matters and attributable to First Union or any person acting on its behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. First Union does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, relating to the matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K.
