GENERAL

This Information Statement is being furnished to the stockholders of HAPS USA, Inc., a Utah corporation (the Company), to inform you that stockholders owning 97,059,998 shares of Class E Convertible Preferred Stock, representing approximately ninety-one and one-half percent (91.5%) of the outstanding voting power of the Company, have, by written consent, authorized and approved the following:

An amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to effect a name change from HAPS USA, Inc. to PGMI, Inc. (the Amendment).

This Information Statement is being sent in lieu of a special meeting of stockholders. The Company has adopted the proposal (the Proposal) by the written consent of stockholders holding in excess of a majority of the voting power of the Company.

The Company's Board of Directors unanimously approved and recommended, pursuant to a written consent dated February 7, 2006, that the Proposal be accepted. The Company's stockholders holding in excess of a majority of the voting power of the Company approved the Proposal pursuant to a written consent dated February 10, 2006. The proposed Amendment will become effective upon the filing of the Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Utah. The Company anticipates that the filing of the Amendment will occur on or about March 13, 2006 (the Effective Date), which is the date that is twenty (20) calendar days following the date this Information Statement is expected to be first mailed to our stockholders. If the Proposal was not adopted by written consent, it would have been required to be considered by the Company's stockholders at a special or annual stockholders' meeting convened for the specific purpose of approving the Proposal.

The elimination of the need for a special or annual meeting of stockholders to approve the Proposal is authorized by Section 16-10a-704 of the Utah Revised Business Corporation Act (the Act) and Section 2.12 of our Bylaws, which provides that the written consent of stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power may be substituted for such a special or annual meeting. Pursuant to the Act, a majority of the voting power is required in order to amend our Articles of Incorporation. In order to eliminate the costs associated with and management time involved in holding a special or annual meeting, and in order to effect or ratify the Proposal as early as possible in order to accomplish the purposes of the Company as hereafter described, the Board of Directors of the Company voted to utilize the written consent of stockholders holding a majority of the voting power of the Company.

Proposal 1

CHANGE OF THE COMPANY S NAME

On February 7, 2006, our Board of Directors voted unanimously to authorize and recommend that our stockholders approve a proposal to amend the Company s Articles of Incorporation to effect a change in the Company s name to PGMI, Inc. On February 10, 2006, stockholders holding in excess of a majority of our issued and outstanding voting capital stock approved by written consent the name change by adopting the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation.

Reasons for Name Change

Our board of directors and stockholders holding a majority of the voting power of the Company believe that changing our corporate name is in the best interests of the Company and our stockholders to better reflect our business focus. As a result of our recent acquisition of PGMI Inc., a Delaware corporation, we have changed our business focus. We are now the owner and operator of several pachinko parlors in Japan, and we believe our name should be changed to more particularly identify our company with our operations in Japan. PGMI is an acronym for Pachinko Gaming Marugin International, Inc.

Effect of the Name Change

The voting and other rights that accompany the Company s common stock will not be affected by the change in our corporate name. In connection with our name change, we will obtain both a new trading symbol and new CUSIP number.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock is required for the approval of the amendment to our Articles of Incorporation. We have obtained this approval through the written consent of stockholders holding a majority of the outstanding voting power of our outstanding capital stock. Therefore, a special meeting of the stockholders to approve the name change and the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is unnecessary.
