Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries

Condensed Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Description of Business and Basis of Presentation

Description of Business

Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Company") sell professional beauty supplies, primarily through its Sally Beauty Supply retail stores, in the United States, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Japan, Canada, United Kingdom and certain other European countries. Additionally, the Company distributes professional beauty products to salons and professional cosmetologists through its Beauty Systems Group ("BSG") store operations and a commissioned direct sales force that calls on salons in the United States and portions of Canada and certain European countries and to franchises in the southern and southwestern United States and Mexico through its Armstrong McCall, L.P. ("Armstrong McCall") operations. The beauty products sold by BSG and Armstrong McCall are primarily sold through exclusive territory agreements with the manufacturers of the products. Until November 16, 2006, the Company was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alberto-Culver Company ("Alberto-Culver").

On November 10, 2006, the stockholders of Alberto-Culver approved a plan to separate its consumer products business and its Sally Beauty Supply/BSG distribution business into two separate, publicly traded companies. The separation was completed on November 16, 2006. The transactions were effected pursuant to an Investment Agreement dated as of June 19, 2006, among Alberto-Culver and certain of its subsidiaries, including Sally Holdings, Inc., and CDRS Acquisition LLC ("CDRS"). Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. became the accounting successor company to Sally Holdings, Inc. upon the completion of the transactions. The Company incurred transaction expenses as a result of the separation. See the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 for additional information about the separation.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated interim financial statements included herein are unaudited and have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Certain information and note disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations, although the Company believes that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information not misleading. The consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. In the opinion of management, these condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which are of a normal recurring nature and which are necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position as of June 30, 2007, the results of operations for the three and nine month periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, and cash flows for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2007 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the entire fiscal year. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

These consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006. The Company adheres to the same accounting policies in preparation of interim financial statements. As permitted under generally accepted accounting principles, interim accounting for certain expenses, including income taxes, are based on full year assumptions. Such amounts are expensed in full in the year incurred. For interim financial reporting purposes, income taxes are recorded based upon estimated annual effective income tax rates.

2. Stockholders' (Deficit) / Equity

The Company had negative stockholders' equity as of June 30, 2007 as a result of a deficit in retained earnings. During the nine months ended June 30, 2007, retained earnings decreased as a result of the dividend payment of approximately $2,342.1 million to the shareholders of Alberto-Culver, called for under the separation agreement from Alberto-Culver. The proceeds from the equity contribution of $575.0 million from CDRS and the proceeds from the issuance of the debt, as discussed in Note 5, were used to fund this dividend. In addition, retained earnings decreased by $39.5 million as a result of settlement of the inter-company agreement with Alberto-Culver, which was treated as a dividend.

Edgar Filing: Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-Q

Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries

Condensed Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

During the nine months ended June 30, 2007, additional paid-in capital decreased as a result of a portion of the $30.0 million fee paid by the Company to Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. and the expenses paid to CDRS along with other professional services and due diligence fees incurred in connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver. These were considered to be costs of raising equity and were recorded as a reduction to additional paid-in capital in the amount of approximately $42.4 million. During the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and prior to its separation from Alberto-Culver, the Company recorded an increase in additional paid-in capital for stock issued by Alberto-Culver. The stock was issued to the former owner of Monarch Beauty Supply Co. Ltd., a subsidiary previously owned by Alberto-Culver, and was contributed by Alberto-Culver to the Company in 2003. The additional paid-in capital recorded by the Company, as an adjustment of $1.1 million to stockholder contribution, reflects the effect of certain pre-acquisition tax liabilities fully indemnified by the seller, for which Alberto-Culver retained the proceeds.

The change in common stock resulted from the issuance of stock in connection with the separation agreement with Alberto-Culver and the Investment Agreement with CDRS. See the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 for additional information about the separation from Alberto-Culver.

See Note 8 for a discussion of other comprehensive income.

3. Net Earnings Per Share

Basic net earnings per share is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted net earnings per share is calculated similarly but includes potential dilution from the exercise of stock options and unvested stock awards.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2007 (in thousands, except per share data):

	Three Months Ended June 30, 2007	Nine Months Ended June 30, 2007
Net earnings	$ 13,448	$ 27,628
Total weighted-average basic shares	180,398	(1) 180,272
Dilutive securities:
Stock option programs	2,282	2,264
Total weighted average diluted shares	182,680	182,536
Earnings per share:
Basic	$ 0.07	$ 0.15
Diluted	$ 0.07	$ 0.15

(1)Weighted average shares was calculated from November 16, 2006 through June 30, 2007 for the nine months ended June 30, 2007, which represents the actual number of days that shares of the Company's common stock were publicly traded.

Net earnings per share were not calculated for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2006 since the Company was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alberto-Culver during fiscal year 2006. See the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 for additional information about the separation from Alberto-Culver.

At June 30, 2007, options to purchase 4,712,794 shares of the Company's common stock were outstanding but not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share, as these options' exercise prices, ranging from $9.45 to $9.66, were greater than the average market price per share of the Company's common stock.

4. Share-Based Payments

The Company accounts for stock option and stock awards in accordance with SFAS 123 (Revised 2004), Share-Based Payment SFAS 123 (R). Accordingly, the Company measures the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of the award and recognizes compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the vesting period or to the date a participant becomes eligible for retirement, if earlier. During the third quarters of fiscal 2007 and fiscal 2006, total compensation cost charged against income and included in selling, general and administrative expenses for share-based payment arrangements was $3.8 million and $1.0 million, respectively, and the total income tax benefit recognized in the Company's income statement from these plans was $1.5 million and $0.3 million, respectively. During the first nine months of fiscal 2007 and fiscal 2006, total compensation cost charged against income and included in selling, general and administrative expenses for share-based payment arrangements was $10.0 million and $4.1 million, respectively, and the total income tax benefit recognized in the Company's income statement from these plans was $3.9 million and $1.4 million, respectively.

Prior to November 16, 2006, the Company was a subsidiary of Alberto-Culver and had no stock option plans of its own; however, certain employees of the Company had been granted stock options under stock option plans of Alberto-Culver. Alberto-Culver treated the separation transaction as though it constituted a change in control for purposes of Alberto-Culver's stock option and stock award plans. As a result, in accordance with the terms of these plans, all outstanding stock options and stock awards of Alberto-Culver, including those held by the Company's employees, became fully vested upon completion of the transactions on November 16, 2006. Due to the separation from Alberto-Culver, the Company recorded a charge at that time equal to the amount of future compensation expense of approximately $5.3 million that would have been recognized in subsequent periods as the stock options and restricted shares for the Company's employees vested over the original vesting periods. Upon completion of the transaction separating the Company from Alberto-Culver, all outstanding Alberto-Culver stock options held by employees of the Company became options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock.

As a result of the separation, the Employee Stock Option Plan of 2003, the 2003 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors and the 2003 Restricted Stock Plan that were previously plans of Alberto-Culver became plans of the Company.

During the third quarter of fiscal year 2007, the Company adopted the 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan, a new share-based plan, which allows for the issuance of up to 10 million shares of the Company's common stock. Additionally, the Company granted approximately 2.4 million stock options to employees and directors during the third quarter of fiscal year 2007. Upon issuance of such grants, the Company recognized accelerated share-based compensation expense of $2.3 million in connection with certain employees who are currently retirement eligible and eligible to continue vesting awards upon retirement under the terms of the 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan.

Each option has an exercise price which equals 100% of the market price of the Company's stock on the date of grant and generally has a maximum term of 10 years. Options generally vest ratably over a four year period and are subject to forfeiture until the four year vesting period is complete.

(1) Per the Employee Matters Agreement, in connection with the separation, options to purchase shares of Alberto-Culver's stock, which were held by the Company's employees, were converted into options to purchase shares of the Company's stock. In order to maintain the same intrinsic value as before the separation, all of the Company's stock options that were converted from Alberto-Culver were adjusted accordingly.

The following table summarizes information about stock options under the Company's option plans at June 30, 2007:

Range of Exercise Prices	Options Outstanding			Options Exercisable
	Number Outstanding at June 30, 2007	Weighted- Average Remaining Contractual Term	Weighted- Average Exercise Price	Number Exercisable at June 30, 2007	Weighted- Average Exercise Price

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option-pricing method to value the Company's stock options for each stock option award. Using this option-pricing model, the fair value of each stock option award is estimated on the date of grant. The fair value of the Company's stock option awards, which generally vest ratably over a four year period, is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of the stock options or to the date a participant becomes eligible for retirement, if earlier.

The weighted average assumptions relating to the valuation of the Company's stock options for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2006 are as follows:

	Nine Months Ended
	June 30, 2007 (1)		June 30, 2006 (2)
Expected lives (years)	5.0		3.5 - 4.5
Expected volatility	34.0% - 35.0	%	20.0	%
Risk-free interest rate	4.4% - 4.6	%	4.2% - 5.	0%
Dividend yield	0.0	%	1.0	%

(1) Assumptions are based on the Company's future expectations and not taking into account historical assumptions of Alberto-Culver's common stock.

Basic net earnings per share is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period.

Edgar Filing: Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-Q

(2) Assumptions were calculated based on the Company being a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alberto-Culver and using historical assumptions of Alberto-Culver, such as expected volatility and dividend yield of Alberto-Culver's common stock at that time.

The expected life of options represents the period of time that the options granted are expected to be outstanding and is based on historical experience of employees of the Company that have been granted stock options under stock option plans of Alberto-Culver. Expected volatility for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 is derived by using the average volatility of similar companies since it is not practicable to estimate the Company's expected volatility due to a lack of history. The risk-free interest rate is based on the zero-coupon U.S. Treasury issue as of the date of the grant. Since the Company does not expect to pay dividends, the dividend yield is 0%.

The weighted average fair value of the Company's stock options issued to the Company's employees at the date of grant in the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 was $3.64 and $9.48 per option, respectively. The total intrinsic value of options exercised after the separation from Alberto-Culver during the nine months ended June 30, 2007 was $3.3 million, the total cash received from these option exercises was $0.9 million and the tax benefit realized for the tax deductions from these option exercises was $1.2 million.

At June 30, 2007, approximately $11.2 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested stock option awards is expected to be recognized over the vesting period of 4 years.

Stock Awards

The Company grants stock awards to employees under the 2003 Restricted Stock Plan (the "RSP"). A stock award is an award of shares of the Company's common stock that is subject to time-based vesting during a specified period. Stock awards are independent of option grants and are generally subject to forfeiture if employment terminates prior to the vesting of the awards. Participants have full voting and dividend rights with respect to shares of stock awards.

The RSP provides for the grant of stock awards for up to 900,000 shares of the Company's common stock to key employees (including officers and directors who are also employees) of the Company. Stock awards issued under the RSP generally vest ratably over a five year period and are subject to forfeiture until the five year vesting period is complete.

The Company expenses the cost of the stock awards, which is determined to be the fair market value of the stock award at the date of grant, on a straight-line basis over the vesting period. For these purposes, the fair market value of the stock award is determined based on the closing price of the Company's common stock on the grant date.

The following table presents a summary of the Company's stock award activity for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 (shares in thousands):

Stock Awards	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Fair Value Per Share	Weighted Average Remaining Vesting Term (Years)
Non-vested at September 30, 2006	-	$ -
Granted	350	8.10
Vested	-	-
Forfeited	-	-
Non-vested at June 30, 2007	350	$ 8.10	4.5

During the nine months ended June 30, 2007, no stock awards vested. The remaining unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested stock awards at June 30, 2007 was $2.6 million and the weighted average period of time over which this cost will be recognized is 4.5 years.

5. Long-Term Debt

In connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver on November 16, 2006, the Company, through its subsidiaries, incurred $1,850.0 million of indebtedness by drawing on a revolving (asset-based lending) facility in an amount equal to $70.0 million, entered into two term loan facilities (term loans A and B) in an aggregate amount of $1,070.0 million, and issued senior notes in an aggregate amount of $430.0 million and senior subordinated notes in an aggregate amount of $280.0 million.

The term loan facilities and asset-based lending facility are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries. The term loan facilities may be prepaid at the Company's option at any time without premium or penalty and are subject to mandatory prepayment in an amount equal to 50% of excess cash flow (as defined in the underlying agreements) for any fiscal year (commencing in fiscal year 2008), unless a specified leverage ratio is met, and 100% of the proceeds of specified asset sales that are not reinvested in the business or applied to repay borrowings under the asset-based lending credit facility.

The senior notes and senior subordinated notes are unsecured obligations of the issuers and are guaranteed on a senior basis (in the case of the senior notes) and on a senior subordinated basis (in the case of the senior subordinated notes) by each material domestic subsidiary of the Company. The senior notes and the senior subordinated notes carry optional redemption features whereby the Company has the option to redeem the notes on or before November 15, 2010 and November 15, 2011, respectively, at par plus a premium, plus accrued and unpaid interest, and on or after November 15, 2010 and November 15, 2011, respectively, at par plus a premium declining ratably to par, plus accrued and unpaid interest.

Details of the debt issued on November 16, 2006 are as follows (in thousands):

Senior notes	$ 430,000	2015	9.25%
Senior subordinated notes	280,000	2017	10.50%

On November 24, 2006, the Company entered into two interest rate swap agreements relating to $500 million of the $1,070 million term loans A and B due in 2012 and 2014, respectively. See Note 6 for further information on the interest rate swap agreements.

Maturities of the long-term debt issued on November 16, 2006 for the next five fiscal years are as follows (in thousands):

Year ending September 30:

2007	$ 4,175
2008	16,700
2009	24,200
2010	24,200

The senior notes and senior subordinated notes are unsecured obligations of the issuers and are guaranteed on a senior basis (in the case of the senior notes) and on a senior subordinated basis (in the case of the senior subordinated notes) by each material domestic subsidiary of the Company.

6. Interest Rate Swaps

On November 24, 2006, the Company entered into two interest rate swap agreements with notional amounts of $150.0 million and $350.0 million. These agreements expire on November 24, 2008 and 2009, respectively. These agreements allow the Company to convert a portion of its variable rate interest to a fixed rate at 4.9975% plus (2.00% to 2.50%) and 4.94% plus (2.00% to 2.50%), respectively. These interest rate swap agreements relate to $500 million of the $1,070 million Term loans A and B due in 2012 and 2014, respectively, to manage the Company's cash flow risk associated with changing interest rates. Under the swap agreements, the Company will pay fixed rates of 4.9975% plus (2.00% to 2.50%) and 4.94% plus (2.00% to 2.50%) on a quarterly basis in exchange for receiving floating rate payments based on the three-month LIBOR rate.

The Company utilizes interest rate swaps to manage the cash flow risk associated with changing interest rates and accounts for them under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended (SFAS 133). SFAS 133 requires that all derivatives be marked to market (fair value). The Company does not purchase or hold any derivative instruments for trading purposes. The interest rate swap agreements do not currently qualify as hedges and, therefore, the change in fair value of the interest rate swap agreements, which are adjusted quarterly, are recorded in the results of operations. The fair value of the swap agreements at June 30, 2007 was recorded as an asset of approximately $3.3 million.

Fair value estimates presented for the swap agreements are based on third-party information and were determined using proprietary models based upon well-recognized financial principles and reasonable estimates about relevant future market conditions.

The counter-parties to these swap instruments are large financial institutions which the Company believes are of high quality creditworthiness. While the Company may be exposed to potential losses due to the credit risk of nonperformance by these counter-parties, such losses are not anticipated.

The marked to market impact of the swap arrangements on interest expense was a decrease of approximately $4.0 million and $3.3 million in the three and nine months ended June 30, 2007, respectively. However, changes in the fair value of the interest rate swap agreements will either increase or decrease the Company's net interest expense and therefore may affect the Company's profitability.

9. Acquisitions

On February 15, 2007, the Company entered into and completed an Agreement for the Sale and Purchase of the Entire Issued Share Capital of Chapelton 21 Limited (the "Agreement"), a private company limited by shares and incorporated in Scotland ("Salon Services") by and among Ogee Limited, an indirect subsidiary of the Company, and the registered shareholders of Salon Services. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company acquired all of the issued share capital of Salon Services for an aggregate cash purchase price of approximately £30.0 million, or approximately $59.0 million, subject to certain adjustments. In addition, the Company extinguished approximately £2.0 million of Salon Services' debt. The Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants that are customary to transactions of this nature. Salon Services, through its direct and indirect subsidiaries including Salon Services (Hair and Beauty Supplies) Ltd., supplies professional hair and beauty products primarily to salon and spa operators and independent hair and beauty professionals in the United Kingdom, Germany, Ireland, Spain and Norway.

In connection with the Company's acquisition and operation of Salon Services, the Company's subsidiaries financed the purchase price through a draw down of approximately $57.0 million under its existing revolving (asset-based) credit facilities. Certain funds are being held in escrow in support of the sellers' representations, warranties and covenants. We expect that the final valuation of the acquired assets and liabilities will be completed by fiscal year end.

10. Business Segments

The Company's business is organized into two separate segments: (i) Sally Beauty Supply, a domestic and international chain of cash and carry retail stores, which offers professional beauty supplies to both salon professionals and retail customers, and (ii) BSG, a full service beauty supply distributor, which offers professional brands of beauty products directly to salons through its own sales force and professional only stores in exclusive geographical territories in North America and parts of Europe.

Condensed Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

In connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver, the Company's management evaluated the structure of its internal organization to identify and separate the costs incurred at the corporate level from the business units as well as costs incurred that benefit both the Sally Beauty Supply and BSG segments. Accordingly, management has defined its reportable segments to report separately from the Company's shared corporate expenses, and has revised the comparable periods in the prior year for comparability purposes.

The Company does not sell between segments. Segment data for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 is as follows (in thousands):

11. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48). FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for the uncertainty in income taxes recognized by prescribing a recognition threshold that a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. It also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, interim period accounting and disclosure. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company is currently assessing the effect of this pronouncement on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157), which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective in fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007.

Condensed Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company is currently assessing the effect of this pronouncement on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In September 2006, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108 (SAB 108), which provides interpretive guidance on how the effects of the carryover or reversal of prior year misstatements should be considered in quantifying a current year misstatement. The Company implemented the provisions of SAB 108 during the first quarter of fiscal 2007 and it did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities - including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115 (SFAS 159). SFAS 159 permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value that are not currently required to be measured at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses related to these financial instruments reported in earnings at each subsequent reporting date. SFAS 159 is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently assessing the effect of this pronouncement on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The financial condition as of September 30, 2006 and results of operations for the three and nine months ended June 30, 2006 and cash flows for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 are of Sally Holdings, Inc., which we refer to as Sally Holdings. Sally Holdings was a wholly owned subsidiary of Alberto-Culver until November 16, 2006 when it was converted to a Delaware limited liability company, was renamed Sally Holdings LLC, and became an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of our company in connection with the separation of our business from Alberto-Culver. Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. was formed on June 16, 2006 in connection with the separation of our business from Alberto-Culver. This section should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Sally Holdings and the related notes included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006. This Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contains forward-looking statements. Overview

We are the largest distributor of professional beauty supplies in the U.S. based on store count. We operate primarily through two business units, Sally Beauty Supply and Beauty Systems Group, which we refer to as BSG. Through Sally Beauty Supply and BSG, we operated a multi-channel platform of 3,341 stores and supplied 195 franchised stores in North America as well as selected European countries and Japan, as of June 30, 2007. Within BSG, we also have one of the largest networks of professional distributor sales consultants in North America, with approximately 1,000 professional distributor sales consultants who sell directly to salons and salon professionals. We provide our customers with a wide variety of leading third-party branded and private label professional beauty supplies, including hair care products, styling appliances, skin and nail care products and other beauty items. Sally Beauty Supply stores target retail consumers and salon professionals, while BSG exclusively targets salons and salon professionals.

Sally Beauty Supply is the largest open-line distributor of professional beauty supplies in the U.S. based on store count. As of June 30, 2007, Sally Beauty Supply operated 2,652 company-owned retail stores and supplied 24 franchise stores acquired in the Salon Services acquisition, 2,218 of which are located in the U.S. and the remainder in the United Kingdom and certain other countries in Europe, Canada, Puerto Rico, Mexico and Japan. Sally Beauty Supply stores average 1,700 square feet and are primarily located in strip shopping centers. The product selection in Sally Beauty Supply stores ranges between 5,600 and 7,600 SKU's of beauty products, and includes products for hair care, nail care, beauty sundries and appliances, targeting retail consumers and salon professionals. Sally Beauty Supply stores carry leading third-party brands such as Clairol, Revlon and Conair, as well as an extensive selection of private label merchandise.

We believe BSG is the largest full-service distributor of professional beauty supplies in the U.S. As of June 30, 2007, BSG operated 689 company-owned stores, supplied 171 franchised stores and had a sales force of approximately 1,000 professional distributor sales consultants selling exclusively to salons and salon professionals in 45 U.S. states and portions of Canada, Mexico and certain European countries. BSG stores average 2,800 square feet and are primarily located in secondary strip shopping centers. Through BSG's large store base and sales force, BSG is able to access a significant portion of the highly fragmented U.S. salon market. The product selection in BSG stores, ranging between 4,000 and 9,400 SKU's of beauty products, includes hair care, nail care, beauty sundries and appliances targeting salons and salon professionals. BSG carries leading professional beauty product brands intended for use in salons and for resale by the salons to consumers. Certain BSG products are sold under exclusive distribution agreements with suppliers, whereby BSG is designated as the sole distributor for a product line within certain geographic territories.

In connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver, our management evaluated the structure of its internal organization to identify and separate the costs incurred by us at the corporate level as well as costs incurred by us that benefit both the Sally Beauty Supply and BSG segments. Accordingly, management has defined its reportable segments as Sally Beauty Supply and BSG, less these corporate and shared costs, and has revised the comparable quarter in the prior year for comparability purposes.

Business Trends

We operate within the large and growing U.S. professional beauty supply industry. Potential growth in the industry is expected to be driven by increases in hair color, hair loss prevention and hair styling products. Our results of operations are dependent upon the following trends, events and uncertainties, some of which are beyond our control:

- High level of customer fragmentation. The U.S. salon market is highly fragmented with over 230,000 salons in the U.S. Given the fragmented and small-scale nature of the salon industry, we believe that salon operators will continue to depend on full service/exclusive distributors and open-line channels for a majority of their beauty supply purchases.
- Growth in booth renting. Booth renters are responsible for purchasing their own supplies. Historically, booth renters have significantly increased as a percentage of total salon professionals and we expect this trend to continue. Given their smaller individual purchases and relative lack of financial resources, booth renters are likely to be dependent on frequent trips to professional beauty supply stores, like BSG and Sally Beauty Supply.
- Increasing Use of Private-Label Products. We offer a broad range of private label and control label products, which we generally refer to collectively as private label products. Private label products are brands for which we own the trademark and in some instances the formula. Control label products are brands that are owned by the manufacturer for which we have been granted sole distribution rights. Generally, our private label products have higher gross margins than the leading third-party branded products and we believe this area offers significant potential growth.
- Frequent re-stocking needs. Salon professionals primarily rely on just-in-time inventory due to capital constraints and a lack of warehouse and shelf space at salons. These factors are key to driving demand for conveniently located professional beauty supply stores.
- Continuing consolidation. There is continuing consolidation among professional beauty product distributors and professional beauty product manufacturers. We plan to continue to examine ways in which we can benefit from this trend, including reviewing opportunities to shift business from competitive distributors to the BSG network as other suppliers seek to lessen their reliance on distribution of their products through a competitor's network, as more fully described below. We also intend to seek opportunistic value-added acquisitions that strategically fit with our current distribution network, product offerings, and longer-term growth and profitability plans. We believe that suppliers are increasingly likely to focus on larger distributors and retailers with broader scale and retail footprint. We also believe that we are well-positioned to capitalize on this trend as well as participate in the ongoing consolidation at the distributor / retail level. However, changes often occur in our relationships with suppliers that can materially affect the net sales and operating earnings of our business segments.

In addition, consolidation among suppliers could exacerbate the effects of these relationship changes and could increase pricing pressures. As we announced in December 2006, our largest supplier, the Professional Products Division of L'Oréal USA S/D, Inc., which we refer to as L'Oréal, has moved a material amount of revenue out of the BSG nationwide distribution network and into competitive regional distribution networks. More recently, L'Oréal has also announced the acquisition of two distributors competitive with BSG in the southeastern U.S. and the west coast markets. As a result, L'Oréal is entering into direct competition with BSG and there can be no assurance that there will not be further revenue losses over time at BSG, due to potential losses of additional L'Oréal related products as well as from the increased competition from L'Oréal-affiliated distribution networks. In addition, L'Oréal has announced the acquisition of a supplier (Pureology) that does not currently do business with BSG. If L'Oréal acquired a supplier that did conduct business with BSG, we could lose that revenue as well. See Risk Factors-We depend upon manufacturers who may be unable to provide products of adequate quality or who may be unwilling to continue to supply products to us, in Item 1A. of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

- High level of competition. Sally Beauty Supply competes with other domestic and international beauty product wholesale and retail outlets, including local and regional cash-and-carry beauty supply stores, professional-only beauty supply stores, salons, mass merchandisers, drug stores and supermarkets, as well as sellers on the Internet and salons retailing hair care items. BSG competes with other domestic and international beauty product wholesale and retail suppliers and manufacturers selling professional beauty products directly to salons and individual salon professionals. We also face competition from authorized and unauthorized retailers and Internet sites offering professional salon-only products. The increasing availability of unauthorized professional salon products in large format retail stores such as drug stores, grocery stores and others could have a negative impact on our business.
- Changing demographic and consumer trends. The aging baby-boomer population is expected to drive future growth in professional beauty supply sales through an increase in the usage of hair color and hair-loss products. Additionally, continuously changing fashion-related trends that drive new hair styles are expected to result in continued demand for hair styling products. Changes in consumer tastes and fashion trends can have an impact on our financial performance. Our continued success depends in large part on our ability to anticipate, gauge and react in a timely and effective manner to changes in consumer spending patterns and preferences for beauty products. If we are unable to anticipate and respond to trends in the market for beauty products and changing consumer demands, our business could suffer.
- Controlling expenses. Another important aspect of our business is our ability to control costs, especially in our BSG business by right-sizing the business (including some targeted reductions-in-force) and maximizing the efficiency of our structure. In response to the loss of L Oreal related revenue discussed below, BSG made certain changes with its distributor sales consultants. BSG's sales force was reduced and the remaining affected distributor sales consultants were offered certain compensation related incentives to stay with the Company as BSG seeks to replace lost L Oreal revenue. BSG is also implementing a store re-branding project that will reposition all of its North American company-owned stores under a common name and store identity, CosmoProf. This project is expected to provide brand consistency, save on advertising and promotional costs and allow for a more focused marketing strategy. Further, we continue to study our distribution function as we seek to rationalize our infrastructure. During the remainder of fiscal 2007, we plan to continue implementing a two-year $19.0 million capital spending program to consolidate warehouses and reduce administrative expenses related to BSG's distribution network optimization program. We currently believe that this plan could produce significant annual expense savings of approximately $10.0 million within the next two years.
- Relationships with suppliers. We do not manufacture the brand name or private label products we sell, and instead purchase our products from manufacturers. We depend upon a limited number of manufacturers for a significant percentage of the products we sell, and our relationships with these suppliers change often. Please see the next section for more information on this trend.

Relationships With Suppliers

Most of the net sales of Sally Beauty Supply are generated through retail stores. Most of the net sales of BSG are generated through both professional only stores and professional distributor sales consultants. In addition, BSG has a number of franchisees located primarily in the south and southwestern portions of the U.S. and in Mexico, which buy products directly from BSG for resale in their assigned territories. A very small percentage of sales are generated through sub-distributors (primarily in Europe), which also buy products directly from BSG for resale in their assigned territories. Sally Beauty Supply / BSG and their suppliers are dependent on each other for the distribution of beauty products. As is typical in distribution businesses, these relationships are subject to change from time to time (including the expansion or loss of distribution rights in various geographies and the addition or loss of products lines). Changes in our relationships with suppliers occur often and could positively or negatively impact our net sales and operating earnings. For example, our net sales and operating earnings were negatively affected in fiscal year 2005 by the decision of certain suppliers of the BSG business to begin selling their products directly to salons in most markets. Subsequently, in fiscal year 2006 one of those suppliers agreed to allow BSG to once again, sell its product lines in BSG stores.

On December 19, 2006, we announced that (1) BSG, other than its Armstrong McCall division, would not retain its rights to distribute the professional products of L Oreal through its distributor sales consultants (effective January 30, 2007, with exclusivity ending December 31, 2006) or in its stores on an exclusive basis (effective January 1, 2007) in those geographic areas within the U.S. in which BSG currently has distribution rights, and (2) BSG's Armstrong McCall division would not retain the rights to distribute Redken professional products through its franchises. In an effort to replace these rights, BSG entered into long-term agreements with L Oreal under which, as of January 1, 2007, BSG had non-exclusive rights to distribute the same L Oreal professional products in its stores that it previously had exclusive rights to in its stores and through its sales consultants. Armstrong McCall retained its exclusive rights to distribute Matrix professional products in its territories.

We plan to mitigate the negative effects resulting from unfavorable changes in our relationships with suppliers, such as L Oreal, by taking the following steps: (i) adding new products to replace lines with our distributor sales consultants, (ii) adding new product lines to our BSG stores, (iii) expanding existing product lines into new territories and, (iv) managing costs to maximize the efficiency of the BSG structure (in the third quarter of 2007 we continued a right-sizing of the BSG business, including some targeted reductions-in-force). Although we are focused on developing new revenue and on cost management initiatives, there can be no assurance that our efforts will partially or completely offset the loss of these distribution rights. In addition, BSG's loss of distribution rights through its distributor sales consultants, as well as the loss of exclusive rights to distribute L Oreal products in its stores, has resulted in margin pressure on BSG's remaining L Oreal revenues, and this pressure is currently projected to continue during the remainder of fiscal 2007. See Risk Factors-We depend upon manufacturers who may be unable to provide products of adequate quality or who may be unwilling to continue to supply products to us, in Item 1A. of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

Previously, we had estimated that the loss of the L Oreal distribution rights described above would negatively impact our consolidated revenue by approximately $110.0 million for the last nine months of fiscal 2007. Of this projected $110.0 million, it was assumed that the distributor sales consultant channel would lose approximately $20.0 million of ancillary, non-L Oreal business. However, during the third quarter of 2007, sales of non-L Oreal brands continued to exceed prior-year levels in the impacted distributor sales consultants channel and were also up in the stores channel. In addition, one of our key strategies in dealing with the loss of the L Oreal distribution rights has been to attempt to shift a portion of the L Oreal purchases by BSG customers previously served by the distributor sales consultants to our BSG stores. We did not significantly shift a portion of L Oreal purchases by BSG customers previously served by the distribution sales consultants to stores for the third quarter of 2007, and we no longer expect to do so in the future.

Regarding other suppliers, BSG continues to expand the P&G Professional Care product lines including Wella, Sebastian and Graham Webb into additional geographies for BSG stores and distributor sales consultants. As of June 30, 2007, BSG had 15 stores in Florida and plans to open an additional 20 net new stores in that state by January 2008. Although Farouk Systems terminated its agreement with BSG during the second fiscal quarter, BSG stores and DSCs once again have been given approval to distribute Farouk Systems products since July, with an expanded distribution area that initially includes 30 states. Additionally, BSG entered into an agreement during the third quarter with KPSS to distribute the Goldwell/KMS brands in 28 states. BSG expects to gain these distribution rights over time through either expirations or acquisitions from existing distributors.

Recent Acquisitions

On February 15, 2007, we entered into and completed an Agreement for the Sale and Purchase of the Entire Issued Share Capital of Chapelton 21 Limited (the Agreement), a private company limited by shares and incorporated in Scotland, which we refer to as Salon Services, by and among Ogee Limited, an indirect subsidiary of ours, and the registered shareholders of Salon Services. Pursuant to the Agreement, we acquired all of the issued share capital of Salon Services for an aggregate cash purchase price of approximately £30.0 million, or approximately $59.0 million, subject to certain adjustments. In addition, we extinguished approximately £2.0 million of Salon Services' debt. The Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants that are customary to transactions of this nature. Salon Services, through its direct and indirect subsidiaries including Salon Services (Hair and Beauty Supplies) Ltd., supplies professional hair and beauty products primarily to salon and spa operators and independent hair and beauty professionals in the United Kingdom, Germany, Ireland, and Spain.

In connection with our acquisition and operation of Salon Services, our subsidiaries financed the purchase price through a draw down of approximately $57.0 million under the existing asset-backed senior secured loan facility under that certain Credit Agreement, dated November 16, 2006, with respect to that certain Asset-Based Loan Facility, among Sally Holdings LLC, Beauty Systems Group LLC, Sally Beauty Supply LLC, any Canadian Borrower from time to time party thereto, certain subsidiaries of Sally Holdings LLC, the several lenders from time to time parties thereto, Merrill Lynch Capital, as Administrative and Collateral Agent, which we refer to as the ABL Credit Agreement. The foregoing disclosure is qualified in its entirety by reference to the ABL Credit Agreement filed as Exhibit 4.6.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 22, 2006. Please refer to that Form 8-K, which describes the material terms of the ABL Credit Agreement, which descriptions are incorporated herein by reference. Certain funds are being held in escrow in support of the sellers' representations, warranties and covenants and regulatory compliance matters. We expect that the final valuation of the acquired assets and liabilities will be completed by fiscal year end.

Our Separation from Alberto-Culver

On November 16, 2006, we separated from Alberto-Culver, pursuant to the Investment Agreement, dated as of June 19, 2006, as amended, among us, Alberto-Culver, CDRS Acquisition LLC (CDRS) and others. See the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 for additional information about the separation from Alberto-Culver.

Other Significant Items

Share-Based Payments

Prior to November 16, 2006, we were a subsidiary of Alberto-Culver and had no stock option plans of our own; however, certain of our employees had been granted stock options under stock option plans of Alberto-Culver. In connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver, the transaction constituted a change in control for purposes of Alberto-Culver's stock option and stock award plans. As a result, in accordance with the terms of these plans, all outstanding stock options and stock awards of Alberto-Culver, including those held by our employees, became fully vested upon completion of the transactions on November 16, 2006. During the nine months ended June 30, 2007, we recorded a charge equal to the amount of future compensation expense of approximately $5.3 million that would have been recognized in subsequent periods had these stock options and restricted shares for our employees vested over the original vesting periods. Upon completion of the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver, all outstanding Alberto-Culver stock options held by our employees became options to purchase shares of our common stock.

During the third quarters of fiscal 2007 and fiscal 2006, total compensation cost charged against income and included in selling, general and administrative expenses, for share-based payment arrangements was $3.8 million, which included $2.3 million of accelerated expense related to certain of our employees who are currently retirement eligible and eligible to continue vesting awards upon retirement under the terms of the 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan and $1.0 million, respectively, and the total income tax benefit recognized in the income statement from these plans was $1.5 million and $0.3 million, respectively. During the first nine months of fiscal 2007 and fiscal 2006, total compensation cost charged against income and included in selling, general and administrative expenses, for share-based payment arrangements was $10.0 million and $4.1 million, respectively and the total income tax benefit recognized in the income statement from these plans was $3.9 million and $1.4 million, respectively.

Description of Revenues and Expenses

Net Sales. Our net sales consist primarily of the following:

- Sally Beauty Supply. Sally Beauty Supply generates net sales primarily by selling products through its stores to both professional and retail customers. Sally Beauty Supply sells hair care, hair color, skin and nail care products, electrical appliances and other beauty related accessories. Because nearly 40% of our U.S. Sally Beauty Supply revenues come from private or control label brands, most of these same products are generally not sold in most other retail stores and are not sold in our BSG business. Various factors influence Sally Beauty Supply's net sales including local competition, product assortment and availability, price, hours of operation and marketing and promotional activity. Sally Beauty Supply's product assortment and sales are generally not seasonal in nature.
- Beauty Systems Group. BSG generates net sales by selling products to salon professionals and independent stylists through company-owned and franchised stores, as well as through its network of professional distributor sales consultants. BSG sells hair care, hair color products, skin and nail care products, electrical appliances and other beauty related accessories. These products are not sold directly to the general public and are generally not the same products as those sold in our Sally Beauty Supply stores. Various factors influence BSG's net sales, including product breadth and availability, competitive activity, relationships with suppliers, new product introductions and price. BSG's product assortment and sales are not seasonal in nature.

Cost of Products Sold and Distribution Expenses. Cost of products sold and distribution expenses consist of the cost to purchase merchandise from suppliers, less rebates and allowances, and certain overhead expenses including purchasing costs, freight from distribution centers to stores and handling costs in the distribution centers. Cost of products sold and distribution expenses are also affected by inventory shrinkage, which represents products that are lost, stolen or damaged.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of share-based compensation, store personnel costs, commissions paid to professional distributor sales consultants, benefits, utilities, property maintenance, advertising, rent, insurance, freight and distribution expenses for delivery to customers and corporate administrative costs.

Sales-based Service Fee. Prior to the separation from Alberto-Culver, we were charged a sales-based service fee under the consulting, business development and advisory services agreement between certain of our subsidiaries and Alberto-Culver. Following the separation from Alberto-Culver, the arrangements giving rise to this fee from Alberto-Culver were terminated and the related charges have ceased. We believe that had we been a stand-alone company, we would have not incurred a comparable expense.

Transaction Expenses. For the fiscal year 2007, transaction expenses are costs associated with the separation from Alberto-Culver and are primarily payments to Alberto-Culver as defined in the separation agreements. In addition, we recognized severance costs for two executives and certain professional fees related to the separation from Alberto-Culver. For fiscal year 2006, transaction expenses are related to the termination of the agreement with Regis Corporation, which we refer to as Regis, that called for us to merge with a subsidiary of Regis in a tax-free transaction. This proposed transaction was terminated in April 2006 and the Company expensed approximately $41.5 million ($27.2 million after taxes) in fees associated with the termination.

Results of Operations

Comparison of the Three Months Ended June 30, 2007 and 2006

Net Sales

Consolidated net sales increased $35.4 million, or 5.9%, to $634.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $599.5 million for the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily the result of comparable store sales growth of 4.8% and the acquisitions of Salon Success, a U.K based distributor of professional beauty products and Salon Services. Salon Success contributed an incremental $5.0 million of revenue and Salon Services contributed $25.9 million of revenue during the three months ended June 30, 2007. We acquired Salon Success during the third quarter of fiscal 2006 and Salon Services during the second quarter of fiscal 2007.

Sally Beauty Supply. Net sales for Sally Beauty Supply increased $45.9 million, or 12.9%, to $402.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $357.0 million for the same period in 2006. Net sales increased primarily due to a 7.3% increase resulting from the Salon Services acquisition, which contributed $25.9 million of revenue during the three months ended June 30, 2007. Revenues also increased due to 83 net new stores opened during the last twelve months (July, 2006 through June, 2007, excluding acquisitions) and from a comparable store sales growth of 3.4%.

Beauty Systems Group. Net sales for BSG decreased $10.6 million, or 4.4%, to $232.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $242.6 million for the same period in 2006. Net sales of our U.S. operations decreased due to a decline of 31.3% in sales by BSG professional distributor sales consultants, caused primarily by the loss of L'Oréal revenue, partially offset by revenue increases with other suppliers. BSG also experienced a decline in sales at its franchised-based business. These declines were mostly offset by comparable store sales growth of 9.2% and an incremental $5.0 million of revenues from the acquisition of Salon Success. Sales for third fiscal quarter of 2007 were impacted by changes in the L'Oréal distribution agreement, resulting in the loss of approximately $30.0 million in sales of L'Oréal products compared to the same months in fiscal 2006.

Gross Profit

Consolidated gross profit increased $14.5 million, or 5.2%, to $290.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $276.4 million for the same period in 2006. Consolidated gross profit, as a percentage of net sales, was 45.8% for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 46.1% for the prior year period. Gross profit margins were down 30 basis points during the third fiscal quarter of 2007 as compared to the same period in 2006 due to higher gross profit margins from Sally Beauty Supply offset by lower gross profit margins from BSG. Gross profit margins for Sally Beauty Supply were helped, in part, by a continued increase in sales of private label products. Gross profit margins for BSG were hurt, in part, by margin pressure on certain products and replacing L'Oréal product sales with other products at lower margins. BSG's loss of store exclusivity in the distribution of L'Oréal products is anticipated to result in sustained margin pressure on all L'Oréal products sold through its store network. BSG gross margins during the third quarter of 2007 included margin pressures at BSG's franchise-based business.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Consolidated selling, general and administrative expenses increased $19.0 million, or 9.4%, to $221.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $202.5 million for the same period in 2006. These expenses, as a percentage of net sales, were 34.9% for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 33.8% for the prior year period. The increase in expense is partly attributable to selling and administrative expenses associated with the unit growth of the Sally Beauty Supply and BSG businesses, $2.7 million in non-recurring costs associated with the realignment, right-sizing and retention incentives of our BSG business (based upon acquisition integration and previously-disclosed changes in its L Oreal contract); acquisitions and an incremental expense for legal, audit and professional fees primarily due to expenses as a new public company. Additionally, selling, general and administrative expenses for the third quarter of 2007 also included $3.7 million of share-based compensation expense, which includes $2.3 million of accelerated expenses related to certain employees who are currently retirement eligible and eligible to continue vesting awards upon retirement under the terms of the 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan, compared to $1.0 million of share-based compensation expense in the third quarter of 2006.

Sales-based Service Fee Charged by Alberto-Culver

The sales-based service fee charged to us by Alberto-Culver declined to $0.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 from $7.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2006 due to the cancellation of the consulting, business development and advisory services agreement between certain of our subsidiaries and Alberto-Culver in connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver.

Transaction Expenses

We recorded minimal expenses related to the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver for the three months ended June 30, 2007. During the three months ended June 30, 2006, we recorded $34.5 million in expenses related to the termination of the agreement with Regis that called for us to merge with a subsidiary of Regis in a tax-free transaction.

Operating Earnings

Consolidated operating earnings increased by $35.8 million, or 157.0%, to $58.6 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $22.8 million for the same period in 2006. Operating earnings, as a percentage of net sales, were 9.2% for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 3.7% for the same period in 2006. The increase in consolidated operating earnings was primarily due to the expenses incurred as a result of the terminated transaction with Regis in 2006 and the elimination of service fees charged by Alberto-Culver due to the separation in 2007. We do not allocate these expenses to our operating segments and these expenses are not reflected in the segment operating earnings of Sally Beauty Supply and BSG discussed below.

Sally Beauty Supply. Sally Beauty Supply's segment operating earnings increased $7.9 million, or 13.4%, to $67.1 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $59.2 million for the same period in 2006. Segment operating earnings, as a percentage of net sales, was 16.6% for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 16.6% for the same period in 2006. Sally Beauty Supply operating earnings were positively impacted by growth in the number of stores as well as a gross margin improvement caused by a continued shift in product and customer mix partially offset by additional international revenue at lower operating margins.

Beauty Systems Group. BSG's segment operating earnings decreased $9.5 million, or 38.1%, to $15.4 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $24.9 million for the same period in 2006, in part, due to an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses, while also experiencing lower gross profit margins on a slight decrease in sales volume. Gross profit margins declined partially as a result of a change in the mix of products sold. BSG also experienced gross margin declines in certain products as well as a decline in the profitability of its franchise-based business during the quarter. In addition, BSG incurred $2.3 million of additional expenses related to the retention of its professional distributor sales consultants, and $0.4 million related to the realignment of the BSG sales force and the closure of a warehouse during the third quarter of fiscal 2007. Segment operating earnings, as a percentage of net sales, was 6.6% for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 10.3% for the same period in 2006.

Net Interest Expense

Interest expense, net of interest income, was $36.8 million and ($0.2) million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The increase in interest expense was primarily attributable to the interest associated with the new debt incurred on November 16, 2006. The interest expense was partially offset by interest income of $0.1 million and $0.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Interest expense includes a marked to market fair value income adjustment for interest rate swaps of $4.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007.

Provision for Income Taxes

Provision for income taxes was $8.3 million during the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $8.5 million for the same period of 2006. Income taxes for interim periods are included in the accompanying financial statements on the basis of an estimated annual effective rate. In determining the estimated annual effective tax rate, we have excluded the tax effect of one-time charges related to the separation from Alberto-Culver. The current estimated annual effective tax rate excluding these charges is 36.7% for 2007 compared to 38.2% for 2006.

Net Earnings

As a result of the foregoing, consolidated net earnings decreased $1.1 million, or 7.5%, to $13.4 million for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $14.6 million for the same period in 2006. Net earnings, as a percentage of net sales, were 2.1% for the three months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 2.4% for the three months ended June 30, 2006. Net earnings were reduced as a result of the expenses related to the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver and increased interest expense associated with the debt incurred.

Comparison of the Nine Months Ended June 30, 2007 and 2006

Net Sales

Consolidated net sales increased $107.0 million, or 6.1%, to $1,874.0 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $1,767.0 million for the same period in 2006. This increase was primarily the result of comparable store sales growth of 4.5% and the acquisition of Salon Success and Salon Services. Salon Success contributed an incremental $20.7 million of revenue and Salon Services contributed $39.4 million of revenue during the nine months ended June 30, 2007. We acquired the Salon Success business during the third quarter of 2006 and Salon Services during the second quarter of 2007.

Sally Beauty Supply. Net sales for Sally Beauty Supply increased $96.7 million, or 9.1%, to $1,156.7 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $1,060.0 million for the same period in 2006. Net sales increased primarily due to a 3.7% increase resulting from the Salon Services acquisition, which contributed $39.4 million of revenue during the nine months ended June 30, 2007, the opening of 83 net new stores over the last twelve months (July, 2006 through June, 2007, excluding acquisitions) and a comparable store sales growth of 2.8%, which includes a decline in same store number of transactions.

Beauty Systems Group. Net sales for BSG increased $10.4 million, or 1.5%, to $717.4 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $707.0 million for the same period in 2006. Net sales increased due to a comparable store sales growth of 10.1% and an incremental $20.7 million of revenues from the acquisition of Salon Success. The BSG same store sales increases were partially offset by a decline of 19.2% in sales by BSG professional distributor sales consultants, caused primarily by the loss of L Oreal revenue, offset by revenue increases with other suppliers. BSG also experienced a decline in sales at its franchised-based business.

Gross Profit

Consolidated gross profit increased $45.2 million, or 5.6%, to $858.4 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $813.2 million for the same period in 2006. Consolidated gross profit, as a percentage of net sales, was 45.8% for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 46.0% for the prior year period. Gross profit margins declined slightly during the first nine months of 2007 due to lower gross profit margins at BSG, partially offset by higher gross profit margins at Sally Beauty Supply. Gross profit margins for Sally Beauty Supply increased, in part, because of a continued increase in sales of higher margin private label products and higher margin customer mix. Gross profit margins for BSG declined, in part, because of the loss of L Oreal revenues being partially replaced with lower margin product sales and lower margins on certain products.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Consolidated selling, general and administrative expenses increased $51.5 million, or 8.6%, to $646.9 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $595.4 million for the same period in 2006. These expenses, as a percentage of net sales, were 34.5% for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 33.7% for the prior year period. The increase in expense is partly attributable to selling and administrative costs associated with the unit growth of the Sally Beauty Supply and BSG businesses, costs associated with the realignment of our BSG business, acquisitions, and additional expenses at our corporate support center. Additionally, selling, general and administrative expenses for the first nine months of fiscal 2007 includes $10.0 million of share-based compensation expense, including $2.3 million of accelerated expenses related to certain employees who are currently retirement eligible and eligible to continue vesting awards upon retirement under the terms of the 2007 Omnibus Incentive Plan and $5.3 million of expenses related to early vesting of equity awards as a result of the separation transaction from the Alberto-Culver Company, compared to $4.1 million for the first nine months of fiscal 2006.

Sales-based Service Fee Charged by Alberto-Culver

The sales-based service fee charged to us by Alberto-Culver declined to $3.8 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 from $21.6 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2006 due to the cancellation of the consulting, business development and advisory services agreement between certain of our subsidiaries and Alberto-Culver in connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver.

Transaction Expenses

We recorded $21.5 million in expenses related to the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver for the nine months ended June 30, 2007. The expenses were for fees allocated to us by Alberto-Culver and for the severance payments to Mr. Renzulli, former Chairman of Sally Holdings, Inc, as called for in the separation agreement from Alberto-Culver, of approximately $20.0 million, as well as severance payments to Mr. Robinson, former Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, prior to his retirement, of approximately $0.9 million, and for other professional fees. During the nine months ended June 30, 2006, we recorded $39.3 million in expenses related to the terminated transaction with Regis.

Operating Earnings

Consolidated operating earnings increased by $26.8 million, or 20.8%, to $155.7 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $128.9 million for the same period in 2006. Operating earnings, as a percentage of net sales, were 8.3% for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 7.3% for the same period in 2006. The increase in consolidated operating earnings was primarily due to the expenses incurred as a result of the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver being less than the expenses we recognized in 2006 related to the proposed but terminated Regis transaction. We do not allocate these expenses to our operating segments and these expenses are not reflected in the segment operating earnings of Sally Beauty Supply and BSG discussed below.

Sally Beauty Supply. Sally Beauty Supply's segment operating earnings increased $22.1 million, or 12.3%, to $201.8 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $179.7 million for the same period in 2006. Segment operating earnings, as a percentage of net sales, was 17.4% for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 16.9% for the same period in 2006. Sally Beauty Supply operating earnings were positively impacted by growth in the number of stores as well as a gross margin improvement caused by a continued shift toward higher margin retail customers and higher margin private label products.

Beauty Systems Group. BSG's segment operating earnings decreased $21.1 million, or 30.4%, to $48.2 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $69.3 million for the same period in 2006, in part, due to an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses, while also experiencing slightly lower gross profit margins on an increased sales volume. Gross profit margins declined primarily as a result of a higher level of sales volume in a particular channel that traditionally has carried low margins, the loss of L'Oréal related revenue being partially replaced with lower margin products, and gross margin declines in certain products. BSG's franchise-based business also experienced a decline in profitability for the nine months ended June 30, 2007. In addition, BSG incurred approximately $5.8 million of expenses related to the closure of a warehouse and expenses related to the realignment of the BSG sales force, which includes $3.4 million related to the retention of its professional distributor sales consultants during the first three quarters of fiscal 2007. Segment operating earnings, as a percentage of net sales, was 6.7% for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 9.8% for the same period in 2006.

Net Interest Expense

Interest expense, net of interest income, was $98.9 million and $0.3 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The increase in interest expense was primarily attributable to the interest associated with the new debt incurred on November 16, 2006. The interest expense was partially offset by interest income of $1.5 million and $1.0 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Interest expense includes a marked to market fair value income adjustment for interest rate swaps of $3.3 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007.

Provision for Income Taxes

Provision for income taxes was $29.2 million during the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $49.1 million for the same period of 2006. Income taxes for interim periods are included in the accompanying financial statements on the basis of an estimated annual effective rate. In determining the estimated annual effective tax rate, we have excluded the tax effect of one-time charges related to the separation from Alberto-Culver. The estimated annual effective tax rate excluding these charges is 36.7% for 2007 compared to 38.2% for 2006.

Net Earnings

As a result of the foregoing, consolidated net earnings decreased $51.9 million, or 65.3%, to $27.6 million for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to $79.5 million for the same period in 2006. Net earnings, as a percentage of net sales, were 1.5% for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 compared to 4.6% for the nine months ended June 30, 2006. Net earnings were reduced as a result of the expenses related to the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver and increased interest expense associated with the debt incurred.

Financial Condition

June 30, 2007 Compared to September 30, 2006

Working capital (current assets less current liabilities) at June 30, 2007 was $369.6 million compared to $479.1 million at September 30, 2006, representing a decrease of $109.5 million. The resulting ratio of current assets to current liabilities was 2.16 to 1.00 at June 30, 2007 compared to 2.65 to 1.00 at September 30, 2006. The decrease in working capital was impacted as current assets declined while current liabilities increased. Current assets were impacted by a $78.2 million reduction in cash associated with the payment of fees and the transfer of cash to Alberto-Culver in connection with the separation and an $8.4 million decline in inventory levels, offset by an increase in the prepayment of certain expenses. The increase in current liabilities was primarily impacted by the addition of the current maturities of long-term debt, which are amounts due over the next twelve months, incurred on November 16, 2006 or approximately $16.7 million, and $17.1 million of interest that has been accrued at June 30, 2007. These increases, along with an increase in taxes, which had previously been paid by Alberto-Culver, exceeded a reduction in accounts payable, having been impacted by the decline in inventory purchases.

Edgar Filing: Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. - Form 10-Q

A reduction in working capital is part of the Company's business strategy to minimize the amount of capital employed in the business while maximizing the related operating profits.

Other assets at June 30, 2007 were $65.6 million compared to $7.9 million at September 30, 2006, representing an increase of $57.7 million. This increase was primarily due to the costs associated with the debt, which will be amortized as interest expense over the term of the debt.

Goodwill at June 30, 2007 increased by $44.1 million to $408.8 million compared to $364.7 million at September 30, 2006 primarily as a result of the acquisition in the United Kingdom and a smaller acquisition in Ireland.

Accrued expenses increased by $22.5 million to $136.6 million at June 30, 2007 compared to $114.1 million at September 30, 2006. This increase was a result of $17.1 million of interest expense related to the new debt incurred on November 16, 2006 and $13.4 million for health and worker's compensation insurance previously provided by Alberto-Culver, offset by $9.3 million of payments against various incentive and benefit plans and adjustments to various incentive plans.

Total stockholders' equity decreased as a result of the special dividend payment of approximately $2,342.1 million called for under the separation agreement from Alberto-Culver. The proceeds from the capital contribution of $575.0 million from CDRS and the proceeds from the debt were used to issue this dividend. In addition, retained earnings decreased by $39.5 million as a result of settlement of the inter-company agreement with Alberto-Culver, treated as a dividend.

Additional paid-in capital increased as a result of the equity contribution made by Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. in connection with the separation from Alberto-Culver. The increase was partially offset by the costs of raising equity in the amount of approximately $42.4 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We broadly define liquidity as our ability to generate sufficient cash flow from operating activities to meet our obligations and commitments. In addition, liquidity includes the ability to obtain appropriate debt and equity financing and to convert into cash those assets that are no longer required to meet existing strategic and financial objectives. Therefore, liquidity cannot be considered separately from capital resources that consist of current or potentially available funds for use in achieving long-range business objectives and meeting debt service commitments.

Our primary source of cash over the past three years has been from funds provided by operating activities and, for the nine months ended June 30, 2007, from borrowings. The primary uses of cash during the past three years were for acquisitions and capital expenditures and, for the nine months ended June 30, 2007, for the cash dividend paid in connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver. The following table shows our sources and uses of cash for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 (in thousands):

	Nine Months Ended June 30,
	2007		2006
Net cash provided by operating activities	$	127,550	$	110,047
Net cash used by investing activities	(97,622)	(43,380)
Net cash used by financing activities	(105,990)	(27,962)
Effect of foreign exchange rate changes	830		(289)
Net (decrease) increase in cash and cash equivalents	$	(75,232)	$ 38,416

Net Cash Provided by Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities in the nine months ended June 30, 2007 increased by $17.6 million to $127.6 million compared to $110.0 million during the nine months ended June 30, 2006. The increase was primarily due to a reduction in cash used for inventory as we reduced our inventory levels, partially offset by less net income due to transaction expenses and payments against tax liabilities. These tax liabilities were paid by Alberto-Culver in 2006 and were included in the inter-company account. Operating cash also increased due to the timing of collections from customers and vendors, offset by prepayments of insurance as we assumed responsibility from Alberto-Culver for liability and worker's compensation coverage.

Net Cash Used by Investing Activities

Net cash used by investing activities in the nine months ended June 30, 2007 increased by $54.2 million to $97.6 million compared to $43.4 million in the nine months ended June 30, 2006, primarily due to capital expenditures for new stores and remodels and the acquisition of Salon Services. During the third quarter of fiscal 2007, capital expenditures include $7.6 million paid to exercise an operating lease purchase option of a warehouse building that was subsequently sold for $8.0 million, which proceeds are included in the proceeds from sale of property and equipment.

Net Cash Used by Financing Activities

Net cash used by financing activities in the nine months ended June 30, 2007 increased by $78.0 million to $106.0 million compared to $28.0 million during the nine months ended June 30, 2006, primarily due to distributions to Alberto-Culver and costs associated with the separation from Alberto-Culver, including debt issuance costs and special cash dividend paid, offset by capital contributions and proceeds from issuance of debt.

Liquidity Following our Separation from Alberto-Culver

In connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver, we, through our subsidiaries, (a) entered into senior secured term loan facilities (which we refer to as senior term loans) under which we borrowed approximately $1,070 million at closing, (b) issued approximately $430.0 million principal amount of senior notes and $280.0 million principal amount of senior subordinated notes (which we refer to as the Notes) and (c) entered into a $400.0 million asset-backed senior secured loan facility (which we refer to as the ABL facility), subject to borrowing base limitations, of which approximately $70.0 million was drawn at closing. Through our subsidiaries, we incurred aggregate indebtedness in connection with the transactions of approximately $1,850 million. Proceeds from this new debt and the $575.0 million equity investment by CD&R Parallel Fund VI, L.P., which we refer to as the CDR investors, were used to pay a $25.00 per share cash dividend to holders of record of Alberto-Culver shares as of the record date for the separation transaction. See our Annual Report on Form 10-K, including Risk Factors-Risks Relating to Our Substantial Indebtedness, in Item 1A. for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 for additional information about the separation from Alberto-Culver.

Following the completion of our separation from Alberto-Culver, we are highly leveraged and a substantial portion of our liquidity needs will arise from debt service on indebtedness incurred in connection with the transactions and from funding the costs of operations, working capital and capital expenditures. Ongoing liquidity needs are expected to be funded by net cash provided by operating activities and borrowings under the ABL facility. The ABL facility provides for senior secured revolving loans up to a maximum aggregate principal amount of $400.0 million, subject to borrowing base limitations. Extensions of credit under the ABL facility are limited by a borrowing base calculated periodically based upon specified percentages of the value of eligible inventory and eligible accounts receivables, subject to certain reserves and other adjustments. Our ability to obtain liquidity from the issuance of additional public or private equity is severely limited until at least two years have passed from the completion of our separation from Alberto-Culver because issuance of our common stock may cause the Alberto-Culver share distribution to be taxable to us and our stockholders under Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code. See Risk Factors-Risks Relating to the Tax Treatment of our Separation from Alberto-Culver and Relating to Our Largest Stockholder, in Item 1A. of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

The agreements and instruments governing our debt contain restrictions and limitations that could significantly impact our ability to operate our business. For instance, the agreements governing our senior term loans contain covenants that, among other things, restrict Sally Holdings' and its subsidiaries' ability to:

dispose of assets;

incur additional indebtedness (including guarantees of additional indebtedness);

pay dividends, repurchase stock or make other distributions;

make voluntary prepayments on the Notes or make amendments to the terms thereof;

prepay certain other debt or amend specific debt agreements;

create liens on assets;

make investments (including joint ventures);

engage in mergers, consolidations or sales of all or substantially all of Sally Holdings' assets;

engage in certain transactions with affiliates; and permit restrictions on Sally Holdings' subsidiaries ability to pay dividends.

The indentures governing the senior notes and senior subordinated notes also contain restrictive covenants that, among other things, limit our ability and the ability of Sally Holdings and its restricted subsidiaries to:

dispose of assets;

incur additional indebtedness (including guarantees of additional indebtedness);

pay dividends, repurchase stock or make other distributions;

prepay subordinated debt;

create liens on assets (which, in the case of the senior subordinated notes, would be limited in applicability to liens securing pari passu or subordinated indebtedness);

make investments (including joint ventures);

engage in mergers, consolidations or sales of all or substantially all of Sally Holdings' assets;

engage in certain transactions with affiliates; and

permit restrictions on Sally Holdings' subsidiaries ability to pay dividends.

The ABL facility contains covenants that, among other things, restrict Sally Holdings' and its subsidiaries' ability to:

change their line of business;

engage in certain mergers, consolidations and transfers of all or substantially all of our assets;

make certain dividends, stock repurchases and other distributions;

make acquisitions of all of the business or assets of, or stock representing beneficial ownership of, any person;

dispose of certain assets;

make voluntary prepayments on the Notes or make amendments to the terms thereof;

33

prepay certain other debt or amend specific debt agreements;

change our fiscal year or the fiscal year of our direct parent; and create or incur negative pledges.

The senior secured term loan facilities contain a covenant requiring Sally Holdings and its subsidiaries to comply with maximum consolidated secured leverage ratio levels, which will decline over time. The consolidated secured leverage ratio will be tested quarterly, with a maximum ratio of 5.25 for the four quarter period ending June 30, 2007. The consolidated secured leverage ratio is a ratio of (A) net consolidated secured debt to (B) Consolidated EBITDA as defined in the senior secured term loan facilities.

The ABL facility contains a covenant requiring Sally Holdings and its subsidiaries to maintain a fixed-charge coverage ratio of at least 1.0 to 1.0 when availability under the ABL facility falls below $40.0 million. The fixed-charge coverage ratio is defined as the ratio of (A) EBITDA (as defined in the ABL facility, or Credit Agreement EBITDA), less unfinanced capital expenditures to (B) fixed charges (as included in the definition of the fixed-charge coverage ratio in the agreement governing the ABL facility). The ABL facility uses fixed amounts for Credit Agreement EBITDA for periods preceding our separation from Alberto-Culver.

For purposes of calculating either the consolidated secured leverage ratio or the fixed-charge coverage ratio, Consolidated EBITDA and Credit Agreement EBITDA are measured on a last-four-quarters basis. Accordingly, the calculation can be disproportionately affected by a particularly strong or weak quarter and may not be comparable to the measure for any previous or subsequent four-quarter period.

Failure to comply with the consolidated secured leverage ratio covenant under the senior secured term loan facilities would result in a default under such facilities. Failure to comply with the fixed-charge coverage ratio covenant (if and when applicable) under the ABL facility would result in a default under such facility. Either such a default could also result in a default under the other facility or facilities, as the case may be, and the notes. Absent a waiver or an amendment from our lenders and note holders, such defaults could permit the acceleration of all indebtedness under the ABL facility, senior secured term loan facilities and the notes, which would have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

Consolidated EBITDA and Credit Agreement EBITDA are not recognized measurements under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or GAAP, and should not be considered as a substitute for financial performance and liquidity measures determined in accordance with GAAP, such as net income, operating income or operating cash flow. In addition, because other companies may calculate EBITDA differently, Consolidated EBITDA and Credit Agreement EBITDA likely will not be comparable to EBITDA or similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

We believe that we are currently in compliance with the agreements and instruments governing our debt, including our financial covenants. Our ability to comply with these covenants in future periods will depend on our ongoing financial and operating performance, which in turn will be subject to economic conditions and to financial, market and competitive factors, many of which are beyond our control. Our ability to comply with these covenants in future periods will also depend substantially on the pricing of our products, our success at implementing cost reduction initiatives and our ability to successfully implement our overall business strategy. See Risk Factors Risks Relating to Our Substantial Indebtedness in Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

Based upon the current level of operations and anticipated growth, we anticipate that existing cash balances, funds generated by operations and funds available under the ABL facility will be sufficient to meet our working capital requirements and to finance capital expenditures, excluding acquisitions, over the next twelve months. However, our ability to meet our debt service obligations and other capital requirements, including capital expenditures, will depend upon our future performance which, in turn, will be subject to general economic, financial, capital markets, business, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other conditions, many of which are beyond our control.

There can be no assurance that our business will generate sufficient cash flows from operations, that anticipated net sales growth and operating improvements will be realized or that future borrowings will be available under the ABL facility in an amount sufficient to enable us to service our indebtedness or to fund our other liquidity needs. In addition, our ability to meet our debt service obligations and liquidity needs are subject to certain risks, which include, but are not limited to, restrictions on our ability to issue public or private equity for at least two years after our separation from Alberto-Culver, increases in competitive activity, the loss of key suppliers, rising interest rates, the loss of key personnel, the ability to execute our business strategy and general economic conditions. See Risk Factors in Item 1A. of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

As a holding company, we depend on our subsidiaries, including Sally Holdings, to distribute funds to us so that we may pay our obligations and expenses. The ability of our subsidiaries to make such distributions will be subject to their operating results, cash requirements and financial condition and their compliance with covenants and financial ratios related to their existing or future indebtedness, including covenants restricting Sally Holdings' ability to pay dividends to us. In addition, under Delaware law, the ability of each of Sally Holdings and its subsidiaries to make distributions to us will be limited to the extent (a) of its surplus, or if there is no surplus, of its net earnings for the fiscal year in which the distribution is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year, if such subsidiary is a corporation, or (b) the fair value of its assets exceeds its liabilities, in the case of Sally Holdings or such subsidiary that is a limited liability company. If, as a consequence of these limitations, we cannot receive sufficient distributions from our subsidiaries, we may not be able to meet our obligations to fund general corporate expenses. See Risk Factors - Risks Relating to Our Substantial Indebtedness, in Item 1A. of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006.

Contractual Obligations

Our contractual cash obligations have substantially changed as a result of the transaction separating us from Alberto-Culver. Under the terms of the Investment Agreement entered into in connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver, through our subsidiaries we incurred approximately $1.85 billion of new debt. Our subsidiaries have material contractual cash obligations related to the principal and interest payments for this new debt. See Note 5 of the condensed notes to consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this report for further detail on the debt and future minimum payments. On November 24, 2006, the Company entered into interest rate swaps to manage our risk associated with changing interest rates. See Note 6 of the condensed notes to consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this report for further information on the interest rate swaps and see Part I, Item 3 of this report and Part II, Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2006 for risks associated with the interest rate swaps.

Off-Balance Sheet Financing Arrangements

At June 30, 2007 and 2006, we had no off-balance sheet financing arrangements other than operating leases incurred in the ordinary course of business as well as outstanding letters of credit related to inventory purchases, which totaled $2.6 million and $1.4 million, respectively.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses in the financial statements. Actual results may differ from these estimates. We believe these estimates and assumptions are reasonable. We consider accounting policies to be critical when they require us to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the accounting estimate is made and when different estimates that our management reasonably could have used have a material effect on the presentation of our financial condition, changes in financial condition or results of operations.

Our critical accounting policies relate to the valuation of inventories, vendor allowances, income taxes and share-based payments.

Valuation of Inventories

When necessary, we provide allowances to adjust the carrying value of inventories to the lower of cost or market, including costs to sell or dispose, and for estimated inventory shrinkage. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first in, first out method) or market (net realizable value). Estimates of the future demand for our products and changes in stock-keeping units are some of the key factors used by our management in assessing the net realizable value of inventories. We estimate inventory shrinkage based on historical experience. Actual results differing from these estimates could significantly affect our inventories and cost of products sold and distribution expenses.

Vendor Allowances

We account for cash consideration received from vendors under Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) 02-16, Accounting by a Customer (Including a Reseller) for Certain Consideration Received from a Vendor, which we refer to as EITF 02-16. EITF 02-16 states that cash consideration received by a customer is presumed to be a reduction of the cost of sales unless it is for an asset or service or a reimbursement of a specific, incremental, identifiable cost incurred by the customer in selling the vendor's products. The majority of cash consideration we receive is considered to be a reduction of the cost of sales and is allocated to cost of products sold and distribution expenses as the related inventory is sold. We consider the facts and circumstances of the various contractual agreements with vendors in order to determine the appropriate classification of amounts received in the statements of earnings. We record cash consideration expected to be received from vendors in other receivables. These receivables are recorded at the amount we believe will be collected based on the provisions of the programs in place and are computed by estimating the point in time that we have completed our performance under the agreements and the amounts earned. These receivables could be significantly affected if actual results differ from management's expectations.

Income Taxes

We record tax provisions in our consolidated financial statements based on an estimation of current income tax liabilities. The development of these provisions requires judgments about tax issues, potential outcomes and timing. If we prevail in tax matters for which provisions have been established or are required to settle matters in excess of established provisions, our effective tax rate for a particular period could be significantly affected.

Deferred income taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which temporary differences are estimated to be recovered or settled. We believe that it is more likely than not that results of future operations will generate sufficient taxable income to realize our deferred tax assets, net of the valuation allowance currently recorded. In the future, if we determine that certain deferred tax assets will not be realizable, the related adjustments could significantly affect our effective tax rate at that time.

We are currently in the process of reconciling all tax balances transferred from Alberto-Culver and expect to complete the process in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2007. To date, we have not identified any necessary reconciling adjustments.

Share-Based Payments

Effective October 1, 2005, we adopted SFAS No. 123 (R) to account for stock options and stock awards, using the modified prospective method. Under this method, compensation expense is recognized for new stock option grants and stock awards beginning in fiscal year 2006 and for the unvested portion of outstanding stock options that were granted prior to the adoption of SFAS No. 123 (R). We recognize compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the vesting period or to the date a participant becomes eligible for retirement, if earlier.

The amount of stock option expense is determined based on the fair value of each stock option grant, which is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions: expected life, volatility, risk-free interest rate and dividend yield. The expected life of stock options represents the period of time that the stock options granted are expected to be outstanding. We estimate the expected life based on historical exercise trends. We estimate expected volatility by using the industry sector that we belong to for the expected volatility of our share price since it is not practicable to estimate due to our lack of history. The risk-free interest rate is based on the zero-coupon U.S. Treasury issue at the date of the grant for the expected life of the stock options. The dividend yield represents our anticipated cash dividend over the expected life of the stock options. The amount of stock option expense recorded is significantly affected by these estimates. In addition, we record stock option expense based on an estimate of the total number of stock options expected to vest, which requires us to estimate future forfeitures. We use historical forfeiture experience as a basis for this estimate. Actual forfeitures differing from these estimates could significantly affect the timing of the recognition of stock option expense. We have based all these estimates on our assumptions as of June 30, 2007. Our estimates for future periods may be based on different assumptions and accordingly may differ.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109, which we refer to as FIN 48. FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for the uncertainty in income taxes recognized by prescribing a recognition threshold that a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. It also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, interim period accounting and disclosure. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. We are currently assessing the effect of this pronouncement on our consolidated financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements, which we refer to as SFAS 157, which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective in fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. We are currently assessing the effect of this pronouncement on our consolidated financial statements.

In September 2006, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108, which we refer to as SAB 108, which provides interpretive guidance on how the effects of the carryover or reversal of prior year misstatements should be considered in quantifying a current year misstatement. We implemented the provisions of SAB 108 during the first quarter of fiscal 2007 and it did not have a material impact on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities - including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115, which we refer to as SFAS 159. SFAS 159 permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value that are not currently required to be measured at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses related to these financial instruments reported in earnings at each subsequent reporting date. SFAS 159 is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007. We are currently assessing the effect of this pronouncement on our consolidated financial statements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk.

As a multinational corporation, we are subject to certain market risks including foreign currency fluctuations, interest rates and government actions. We consider a variety of practices to manage these market risks, including, when deemed appropriate, the occasional use of derivative financial instruments.

Foreign currency exchange rate risk

We are exposed to potential gains or losses from foreign currency fluctuations affecting net investments and earnings denominated in foreign currencies. Our primary exposures are to changes in exchange rates for the U.S. dollar versus the British pound sterling, Canadian dollar, Euro and Mexican peso. Our various currency exposures at times offset each other providing a natural hedge against currency risk. Fluctuations in U.S. dollar exchange rates within the range of the rates for the nine months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 did not have a material effect on our financial condition and results of operations. We do not use derivative financial instruments to manage foreign currency exchange rate risk.

Interest rate risk

As a result of the debt financing incurred in connection with our separation from Alberto-Culver, we are subject to interest rate market risk in connection with our long-term debt. The principal interest rate exposure relates to amounts borrowed under our senior secured term loan facilities and ABL facility. Sally Holdings and certain of our other subsidiaries incurred approximately $1.14 billion of indebtedness with variable interest rates under our senior secured term loan facilities and ABL facility at the time of our separation from Alberto-Culver. A change in the estimated interest rate on the $1.10 billion of borrowings under the senior secured term loan facilities and the ABL facility up or down by 1/8% will increase or decrease earnings before provision for income taxes by approximately $1.4 million on an annual basis, without considering the effect of any interest rate swap agreements we may have from time to time.

We and certain of our subsidiaries are sensitive to interest rate fluctuations. In order to enhance our ability to manage risk relating to cash flow and interest rate exposure, we and/or our other subsidiaries who are borrowers under the ABL facility may from time to time enter into and maintain derivative instruments, such as interest rate swap agreements, for periods consistent with the related underlying exposures. In addition, the agreement underlying our senior secured term loan facilities require that we and/or certain of our other subsidiaries hedge a portion of our floating interest rate exposure for a specified period.

On November 24, 2006, we entered into two interest rate swap agreements with a notional amount of $150.0 million and $350.0 million, respectively. These agreements expire on November 24, 2008 and 2009, respectively. The agreements allow us to convert a portion of our variable rate interest to a fixed rate of 4.9975% plus (2.00% to 2.50%) and 4.94% plus (2.00% to 2.50%), respectively. As discussed in Part II,

Item 1A. Risk Factors of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2006, changes in the fair value of these interest rate swap agreements driven by interest rate changes will increase or decrease our net interest expense and may therefore affect our profitability.

Credit risk

We are exposed to credit risk on certain assets, primarily cash equivalents, short-term investments and accounts receivable. The credit risk associated with cash equivalents and short-term investments is mitigated by our policy of investing in a diversified portfolio of securities with high credit ratings.

We provide credit to customers in the ordinary course of business and perform ongoing credit evaluations. We believe that our broad customer base mitigates our exposure to concentrations of credit risk with respect to trade receivables. We believe our allowance for doubtful accounts is sufficient to cover customer credit risks.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Controls Evaluation and Related CEO and CFO Certifications. Our management, with the participation of our principal executive officer (CEO) and principal financial officer (CFO), conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. The controls evaluation was conducted by our Disclosure Committee, comprised of senior representatives from our finance, accounting, internal audit, and legal departments under the supervision of our CEO.

Certifications of our CEO and our CFO, which are required in accordance with Rule 13a-14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act), are attached as exhibits to this report. This Controls and Procedures section includes the information concerning the controls evaluation referred to in the certifications, and it should be read in conjunction with the certifications for a more complete understanding of the topics presented.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Controls. We do not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures will prevent all errors and all fraud. A system of controls and procedures, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the system are met. Because of the limitations in all such systems, no evaluation can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected. Furthermore, the design of any system of controls and procedures is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions, regardless of how unlikely. Because of these inherent limitations in a cost-effective system of controls and procedures, misstatements or omissions due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Scope of the Controls Evaluation. The evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures included a review of their objectives and design, our implementation of the controls and procedures and the effect of the controls and procedures on the information generated for use in this report. In the course of the evaluation, we sought to identify whether we had any data errors, control problems or acts of fraud and to confirm that appropriate corrective action, including process improvements, was being undertaken if needed. This type of evaluation is performed on a quarterly basis so that conclusions concerning the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures can be reported in our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and our annual reports on Form 10-K. Many of the components of our disclosure controls and procedures are also evaluated by our internal audit department, our legal department and by personnel in our finance organization. The overall goals of these various evaluation activities are to monitor our disclosure controls and procedures on an ongoing basis, and to maintain them as dynamic systems that change as conditions warrant.

Conclusions regarding Disclosure Controls. Based on the required evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures, our CEO and CFO have concluded that, as of June 30, 2007, we maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are effective in providing reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our CEO and CFO, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting. During our last fiscal quarter, there have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting identified in connection with the evaluation described above that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

There were no material legal proceedings pending against us or our subsidiaries, as of June 30, 2007. We are involved in various claims and lawsuits incidental to the conduct of our business in the ordinary course. We carry insurance coverage in such amounts in excess of our self-insured retention as we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances and that may or may not cover any or all of our liabilities in respect of claims and lawsuits. We do not believe that the ultimate resolution of these matters will have a material adverse impact on our consolidated financial position, cash flows or results of operations.

We are subject to a number of U.S., federal, state and local laws and regulations, as well as the laws and regulations applicable in each other market in which we do business. These laws and regulations govern, among other things, the composition, packaging, labeling and safety of the products we sell and the methods we use to sell these products. We believe that we are in material compliance with such laws and regulations, although no assurance can be provided that this will remain true going forward.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Risk Factors in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended December 31, 2006 and March 31, 2007, which could materially affect our business, financial condition or future results. There have been no material changes from the risk factors disclosed in our Annual Report and in these Quarterly Reports. The risks described in these reports are not the only risks facing us. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial also may materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and/or operating results.
