(Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the Trustee) of Mesa Royalty Trust (the Trust) has been working diligently to complete all the required information for its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 (the Form 10-Q), and portions of such information have been completed as of this date. However, the Form 10-Q could not be completed on or before the August 10, 2007 prescribed due date due to the absence of certain information from BP with respect to operations in the Colorado portion of the Trust's San Juan Basin properties. The Trustee does not operate any properties and relies on the working interest owners to provide information regarding the Trust's properties in a timely manner. BP's outsourcing party for royalty payments on these properties, IBM, has indicated that its computer system has continued to be unable to categorize the Trust's interest appropriately, and that IBM has not performed an estimate of the payment to be made in October 2007 to correct pricing errors. Accordingly, the reasons causing the inability to file could not be eliminated by the registrant without unreasonable effort or expense. The Trustee intends to file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable, and in no event later than the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.
