Safe Harbor Statement

The matters discussed in this Quarterly Report contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements, which are not statements of historical fact, contain estimates, assumptions, projections and/or expectations regarding future events, which may or may not occur. Words such as aim, anticipate, assume, believe, continue, could, estimate, expect, foresee, guidance, intend, may, might, objective, plan, potential, project, seek, shall, should, target, will, and other expressions that refer to future events and trends, identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements, and financial or other business targets, are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which could cause our actual results to differ materially from the expected results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

Certain risks and uncertainties are discussed in more detail under Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, and subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties relating to the following: fluctuations in demand affecting sales to customers; worldwide and local economic conditions; changes in political conditions; changes in governmental laws and regulations; fluctuations in currency exchange rates and other risks associated with foreign operations, including in emerging markets; the financial condition and inventory strategies of customers; changes in customer preferences; fluctuations in cost and availability of raw materials; our ability to generate sustained productivity improvement; our ability to achieve and sustain targeted cost reductions; the impact of competitive products and pricing; loss of significant contracts or customers; collection of receivables from customers; selling prices; business mix shift; execution and integration of acquisitions and completion of potential dispositions; timely development and market acceptance of new products, including sustainable or sustainably-sourced products; investment in development activities and new production facilities; amounts of future dividends and share repurchases; customer and supplier concentrations; successful implementation of new manufacturing technologies and installation of manufacturing equipment; disruptions in information technology systems, including cyber-attacks or other intrusions to network security; successful installation of new or upgraded information technology systems; data security breaches; volatility of financial markets; impairment of capitalized assets, including goodwill and other intangibles; credit risks; our ability to obtain adequate financing arrangements and maintain access to capital; fluctuations in interest and tax rates; changes in tax laws and regulations, and uncertainties associated with interpretations of such laws and regulations; outcome of tax audits; fluctuations in pension, insurance, and employee benefit costs; the impact of legal and regulatory proceedings, including with respect to environmental, health and safety; protection and infringement of intellectual property; the impact of epidemiological events on the economy and our customers and suppliers; acts of war, terrorism, and natural disasters; and other factors.

We believe that the most significant risk factors that could affect our financial performance in the near-term include: (1) the impacts of global economic conditions and political uncertainty on underlying demand for our products and foreign currency fluctuations; (2) competitors' actions, including pricing, expansion in key markets, and product offerings; (3) the degree to which higher costs can be offset with productivity measures and/or passed on to customers through selling price increases, without a significant loss of volume; and (4) the execution and integration of acquisitions.

Our forward-looking statements are made as of the date hereof. We assume no duty to update these forward-looking statements to reflect new, changed or unanticipated events or circumstances, other than as may be required by law.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. General

The unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and notes in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q are presented as permitted by Article 10 of Regulation S-X and do not contain certain information included in the audited Consolidated Financial Statements and notes thereto in our 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K, which should be read in conjunction with this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. The accompanying unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements include normal recurring adjustments necessary for a fair statement of our interim results. Interim results of operations are not necessarily indicative of future results.

Fiscal Periods

The three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 and October 1, 2016 each consisted of thirteen-week and thirty-nine-week periods, respectively.

Accounting Guidance Update

In the first quarter of 2017, we adopted an accounting guidance update that simplifies several aspects of the accounting for stock-based payment transactions. As a result of adopting this update, beginning in the first quarter of 2017, (i) the tax effects related to stock-based payments at settlement or expiration were recognized through the income statement, a change from the previous requirement that certain tax effects be recognized in capital in excess of par value, and, as required by this guidance, this change was applied prospectively, and (ii) all tax-related cash flows resulting from stock-based payments were reported as operating activities on the statements of cash flows, a change from the previous requirement to present excess tax benefits as an inflow from financing activities and an outflow from operating activities, and, as permitted by this update, prior periods were not retrospectively adjusted. Refer to Note 8, Long-Term Incentive Compensation and Supplemental Equity Information, and Note 11, Taxes Based on Income, for further information.

Note 2. Acquisitions

On June 23, 2017, we completed the stock acquisition of Yongle Tape Ltd. (Yongle Tape), a China-based manufacturer of specialty tapes and related products used in a variety of industrial markets, from Yongle Tape's management and Shaw Kwei & Partners.

On May 19, 2017, we completed the stock acquisition of Finesse Medical Limited (Finesse Medical), an Ireland-based manufacturer of healthcare products used in the management of wound care and skin conditions, from Finesse Medical's management.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

On March 1, 2017, we completed the net asset acquisition of Hanita Coatings Rural Cooperative Association Limited and stock acquisition of certain of its subsidiaries (Hanita), an Israel-based pressure-sensitive manufacturer of specialty films and laminates, from Kibbutz Hanita Coatings and Tene Investment Funds.

We expect the acquisitions of Yongle Tape, Finesse Medical, and Hanita (collectively, the 2017 Acquisitions) to expand our product portfolio and provide new growth opportunities.

The aggregate purchase consideration for these acquisitions, which is subject to customary post-closing adjustments, was approximately $344 million. This included $15 million of payments based on Yongle Tape's achievement of certain pre-acquisition performance targets. The payments for the 2017 Acquisitions were funded through cash and existing credit facilities. In addition to the cash paid at the closing of the 2017 Acquisitions, certain sellers are eligible for earn-out payments of up to approximately $45 million related to the achievement of certain performance targets for 2017 and 2018. Based on our current estimates, we have accrued approximately $38 million for these additional earn-out payments, which has been included in the $344 million of aggregate purchase consideration.

Consistent with the allowable time to complete our assessment, the valuations of certain acquired assets and liabilities, including tangible and intangible assets, environmental liabilities and income taxes, are currently pending.

The 2017 Acquisitions were not material, individually or in the aggregate, to our unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Note 4. Goodwill and Other Intangibles Resulting from Business Acquisitions
Goodwill

Changes in the net carrying amount of goodwill for the nine months ended September 30, 2017, by reportable segment, were as follows:

(In millions)	Label and Graphic Materials	Retail Branding and Information Solutions	Industrial and Healthcare Materials	Total
Goodwill as of December 31, 2016	$ 373.3	$ 353.9	$ 66.4	$ 793.6
2017 Acquisitions(1)	20.8		114.8	135.6
Acquisition adjustments(2)	5.0		.7	5.7
Translation adjustments	35.6	2.7	3.9	42.2
Goodwill as of September 30, 2017	$ 434.7	$ 356.6	$ 185.8	$ 977.1

(1) Goodwill acquired related to the acquisitions of Hanita, which is included in the Label and Graphic Materials reportable segment, and Finesse Medical and Yongle Tape, which are included in the Industrial and Healthcare Materials reportable segment.

(2) Goodwill purchase price allocation adjustments related to the acquisition of the European business of Mactac completed in August 2016.

The carrying amounts of goodwill at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 were net of cumulative impairment losses of $820 million recognized in fiscal year 2009 by our Retail Branding and Information Solutions reportable segment.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

In connection with the 2017 Acquisitions, we recognized goodwill based on our expectation of synergies and other benefits from acquiring these businesses. We expect the majority of the recognized goodwill related to the Hanita acquisition to be deductible for income tax purposes.

Finite-Lived Intangible Assets

In connection with the 2017 Acquisitions, we acquired approximately $111 million of identifiable intangible assets, which consisted of customer relationships, trade names and trademarks, and patents and other acquired technology. We utilized the income approach to estimate the fair values of the identifiable intangibles associated with the 2017 Acquisitions, using primarily Level 3 inputs. The discount rates we used to value these assets were between 10% and 16%.

The table below summarizes the preliminary amounts and weighted useful lives of these intangible assets:

	Amount (in millions)	Weighted-average amortization period (in years)
Customer relationships	$ 74.3	15
Patents and other acquired technology	32.2	9
Trade names and trademarks	4.2	6

Refer to Note 2, Acquisitions, for more information.

Table of Contents

Avery Dennison Corporation

Note 5. Debt

In March 2017, we issued 500 million of senior notes, due March 2025. The senior notes bear an interest rate of 1.25% per year, payable annually in arrears. The net proceeds from the offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses, were $526.6 million (495.5 million), a portion of which was used to repay commercial paper borrowings that we used to finance a portion of our acquisition of the European business of Mactac (Mactac) in August 2016 and the remainder of which was used for general corporate purposes, including acquisitions. We designated the senior notes as a net investment hedge of our investment in foreign operations. Refer to Note 10, Financial Instruments, for more information.

The estimated fair value of our long-term debt is primarily based on the credit spread above U.S. Treasury or euro government bond securities, as applicable, on notes with similar rates, credit ratings, and remaining maturities. The fair value of short-term borrowings, which include commercial paper issuances and short-term lines of credit, approximates carrying value given the short duration of these obligations. The fair value of our total debt was $1.7 billion at September 30, 2017 and $1.31 billion at December 31, 2016. Fair value amounts were determined based primarily on Level 2 inputs, which are inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable.

Our $700 million revolving credit facility (the Revolver) contains financial covenants requiring that we maintain specified ratios of total debt and interest expense in relation to certain measures of income. As of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, we were in compliance with our financial covenants.

On October 2, 2017, subsequent to the end of the third quarter of 2017, we repaid $250 million of senior notes at maturity using commercial paper borrowings.

Note 6. Pension and Other Postretirement Benefits

Defined Benefit Plans

We sponsor a number of defined benefit plans, the accrual of benefits under some of which has been frozen, covering eligible employees in the U.S. and certain other countries. Benefits payable to an employee are based primarily on years of service and the employee's compensation during the course of his or her employment with us.

We are also obligated to pay unfunded termination indemnity benefits to certain employees outside of the U.S., which are subject to applicable agreements, laws and regulations. We have not incurred significant costs related to these benefits, and, therefore, no related costs are included in the disclosures below.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

The following table sets forth the components of net periodic benefit cost (credit), which are recorded in income, for our defined benefit plans:

Note 7. Research and Development

Research and development expense was $23.6 million and $70 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, and $22.4 million and $67.4 million for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016, respectively. This expense was included in Marketing, general and administrative expense in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

Note 8. Long-Term Incentive Compensation and Supplemental Equity Information

As discussed in Note 1, General, we adopted an accounting guidance update in the first quarter of 2017 that, among other things, provided an accounting policy election to account for forfeitures of stock-based awards as they occur, rather than based on an estimate of expected forfeitures. We elected to continue our current practice of estimating expected forfeitures in determining the compensation cost to be recognized each period.

In April 2017, our shareholders approved our 2017 Incentive Award Plan (the 2017 Plan) to replace our Amended and Restated Stock Option and Incentive Plan. The 2017 Plan, a long-term incentive plan for eligible employees and non-employee directors, allows us to grant stock-based compensation awards including stock options, restricted stock units, performance units, and market-leveraged stock units or a combination of these and other awards. Under the 2017 Plan, the aggregate number of shares available for issuance is 5.4 million shares and each full value award will be counted as 1.5 shares for purposes of the number of shares authorized for issuance. Full value awards include restricted stock units, performance units, and market-leveraged stock units.

Stock-Based Awards

Stock-based compensation expense was $9 million and $22.2 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, and $6 million and $20.1 million for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016, respectively. This expense was included in Marketing, general and administrative expense in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

As of September 30, 2017, we had approximately $46 million of unrecognized compensation expense related to unvested stock-based awards, which is expected to be recognized over the remaining weighted-average requisite service period of approximately two years.

Cash-Based Awards

The compensation expense related to long-term incentive units was $7.8 million and $24.6 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, respectively, and $7 million and $21.7 million for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016, respectively. This expense was included in Marketing, general and administrative expense in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

Share Repurchase Program

In April 2017, our Board of Directors (Board) authorized the repurchase of shares of our common stock with a fair market value of up to $650 million, exclusive of any fees, commissions or other expenses related to such purchases and in addition to the amount outstanding under our previous Board authorization. Our Board repurchase authorizations remain in effect until shares in the respective amount authorized thereunder have been repurchased.

Note 9. Cost Reduction Actions

2015/2016 Actions

During the nine months ended September 30, 2017, we recorded $24.4 million in restructuring charges, net of reversals, related to restructuring actions initiated during the third quarter of 2015 (2015/2016 Actions). These charges consisted of severance and related costs for the reduction of approximately 670 positions, lease cancellation costs, and asset impairment charges.

Accruals for severance and related costs and lease cancellation costs were included in Other current liabilities in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. Asset impairment charges were based on the estimated market value of the assets, less selling costs, if applicable. Restructuring charges were included in Other expense, net in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

Note 10. Financial Instruments

We enter into foreign exchange hedge contracts to reduce our risk from exchange rate fluctuations associated with receivables, payables, loans and firm commitments denominated in certain foreign currencies that arise primarily as a result of our operations outside the U.S. We enter into interest rate contracts to help manage our exposure to certain interest rate fluctuations. We also enter into futures contracts to hedge certain price fluctuations for a portion of our anticipated domestic purchases of natural gas. The maximum length of time for which we hedge our exposure to the variability in future cash flows for forecasted transactions is 36 months.

As of September 30, 2017, the aggregate U.S. dollar equivalent notional value of our outstanding commodity contracts and foreign exchange contracts was $4.4 million and $1.84 billion, respectively.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

We recognize derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities at fair value in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. We designate commodity forward contracts on forecasted purchases of commodities and foreign exchange contracts on forecasted transactions as cash flow hedges and designate foreign exchange contracts on existing balance sheet items as fair value hedges.

The following table shows the fair value and balance sheet locations of derivatives as of September 30, 2017:

(In millions)	Asset		Liability
	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value
Foreign exchange contracts	Other current assets	$ 5.7	Other current liabilities	$ 3.0

The following table shows the fair value and balance sheet locations of derivatives as of December 31, 2016:

Fair Value Hedges

The following table shows the components of net gains (losses), before taxes, recognized in income related to fair value hedge contracts. The corresponding gains or losses on the underlying hedged items approximated the net gains (losses) on these fair value hedge contracts.

(In millions)	Location of Net Gains (Losses) in Income	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
		September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016
Foreign exchange contracts	Cost of products sold	$ (.1)	$ (.2)	$ (1.1)	$ 1.5
Foreign exchange contracts	Marketing, general and administrative expense	(18.9)	(2.8)	(41.6)	(.4)
		$ (19.0)	$ (3.0)	$ (42.7)	$ 1.1

For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as fair value hedges, the gain or loss on the derivative and the offsetting loss or gain on the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk are recognized in current earnings, resulting in no material net impact to income.

Cash Flow Hedges

Gains (losses), before taxes, recognized in Accumulated other comprehensive loss (effective portion) on derivatives related to cash flow hedge contracts were as follows:

(In millions)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016
Foreign exchange contracts	$ 1.3	$ (1.3)	$ (2.2)	$ (3.1)
Commodity contracts		(.2)	(.4)	.1
	$ 1.3	$ (1.5)	$ (2.6)	$ (3.0)

For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is reported as a component of Accumulated other comprehensive loss and reclassified into earnings in the same period(s) during which the hedged transaction impacts earnings. Gains and losses on the derivative, representing either hedge ineffectiveness or hedge components excluded from the assessment of effectiveness, are recognized in current earnings.

The amount recognized in income related to the ineffective portion of, and the amount excluded from, effectiveness testing for cash flow hedges and derivatives not designated as hedging instruments was not material for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 and October 1, 2016, respectively.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

As of September 30, 2017, we expected a net loss of approximately $.1 million to be reclassified from Accumulated other comprehensive loss to earnings within the next 12 months.

Net Investment Hedge

In March 2017, we designated our 500 million of euro-denominated 1.25% senior notes due 2025 as a net investment hedge of our investment in foreign operations. The net assets from the investment in foreign operations were greater than the senior notes, and as such, the net investment hedge was effective. Refer to Note 5, Debt, for further information about our euro-denominated debt.

Gain (loss), before tax, recognized in Accumulated other comprehensive loss (effective portion) related to the net investment hedge was as follows:

(In millions)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016
Foreign currency denominated debt	$ (22.7)	$ n/a	$ (60.4)	$ n/a

We recorded no ineffectiveness from our net investment hedge in earnings during the three or nine months ended September 30, 2017.

Note 11. Taxes Based on Income

The following table summarizes our income before taxes, provision for income taxes, and effective tax rate:

(Dollars in millions)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016
Income before taxes	$ 146.8	$ 128.0	$ 432.2	$ 350.8
Provision for income taxes	38.5	38.9	90.8	92.1
Effective tax rate	26.2%	30.4%	21.0%	26.3%

The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 included $1.7 million and $3.2 million, respectively, of tax benefit from the releases of valuation allowances on certain U.S. state deferred tax assets and $1.1 million and $4.5 million, respectively, of tax benefit from the effective settlements of certain tax examinations and changes in our judgment about tax filing positions as a result of new information. The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 included $4.6 million of tax benefit from decreases in certain tax reserves, including interest and penalties, as a result of closing tax years.

The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 also included a net benefit of $.3 million and $13.6 million, respectively, related to our adoption of the accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments described in Note 1, General. The accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments requires that the effect of excess tax benefits associated with stock-based payments be recognized in the income statement instead of in capital in excess of par value as was the case prior to our adoption of this update. Excess tax benefits are the effects of tax deductions in excess of compensation expenses recognized for financial accounting purposes. These benefits related to stock-based awards are generally generated as a result of stock price appreciation during the vesting period or between the time of grant and the time of exercise. We expect future excess tax benefits pursuant to this update to vary depending on our stock-based payments in future reporting periods. These excess tax benefits may cause variability in our future effective tax rate as they can fluctuate based on vesting and exercise activity, as well as our future stock price. The tax effect of the tax deductions in excess of compensation cost related to the exercise of nonqualified stock options and vesting of other stock-based compensation awards recognized in capital in excess of par value was $2.9 million and $10.0 million for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016, respectively.

The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 also included the immediate recognition of $1.6 million of tax expense primarily from intra-entity sales and transfers of assets other than inventory related to the integration of a recent acquisition. The remaining tax effects were recognized as deferred tax charges and recorded in Other current assets and Other assets. However, we expect the deferred tax charges to be derecognized as an adjustment to retained earnings upon adoption of the accounting guidance update described in Note 17, Recent Accounting Requirements.

In addition, the effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017 compared to the same period last year reflects a decrease in tax expense related to the repatriation of non-permanently reinvested earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries and favorable changes in the geographic mix of our income before taxes.

The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016 included $4.8 million and $3.1 million of tax expense, respectively, resulting from return to provision adjustments pursuant to the completion of the 2015 U.S. federal tax return; $1 million and $7.1 million of tax benefit, respectively, from our change in judgment about tax filing positions in certain foreign jurisdictions as a result of new information gained from our interactions with tax authorities; and $17.7 million and $26.9 million of tax expense, respectively, associated with the tax cost to repatriate non-permanently reinvested earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries. The effective tax rate for each of the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016 also included $11.1 million of tax benefit resulting from effective settlements of tax examinations in various foreign jurisdictions. Included in the $11.1 million of tax benefit was an effective settlement for certain members of a consolidated tax group under examination. Additionally, the effective tax rate for the nine months ended October 1, 2016 included $6.7 million of tax benefit from the releases of valuation allowances against certain deferred tax assets in a foreign jurisdiction associated with a structural simplification approved by the tax authority and $3.3 million of tax benefit due to decreases in certain tax reserves as a result of closing tax years.

The amount of income taxes we pay is subject to ongoing audits by taxing jurisdictions around the world. Our estimate of the potential outcome of any uncertain tax issue is subject to our assessment of the relevant risks, facts, and circumstances existing at the time. We believe that we have adequately provided for reasonably foreseeable outcomes related to these matters. However, our future results may include favorable or unfavorable adjustments to our estimated tax liabilities in the period the assessments are made or resolved, which may impact our effective tax rate. With some exceptions, we and our subsidiaries are no longer subject to income tax examinations by tax authorities for years prior to 2006.

Avery Dennison Corporation

It is reasonably possible that, during the next 12 months, we may realize a decrease in our uncertain tax positions, including interest and penalties, of approximately $23 million, primarily as a result of audit settlements and closing tax years.

Note 12. Net Income Per Common Share

Net income per common share was computed as follows:

(In millions, except per share amounts)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016	September 30, 2017	October 1, 2016
(A) Net income available to common shareholders	$ 108.3	$ 89.1	$ 341.4	$ 258.7
(B) Weighted average number of common shares outstanding	88.3	89.1	88.4	89.2
Dilutive shares (additional common shares issuable under stock-based awards)(1)	1.6	1.5	1.7	1.7
(C) Weighted average number of common shares outstanding, assuming dilution	89.9	90.6	90.1	90.9
Net income per common share (A) ÷ (B)	$ 1.23	$ 1.00	$ 3.86	$ 2.90
Net income per common share, assuming dilution (A) ÷ (C)	$ 1.20	$.98	$ 3.79	$ 2.85

(1) In 2017, the dilutive shares calculation reflects the impact of our adoption of the accounting guidance update described in Note 1, General.

Certain stock-based compensation awards were not included in the computation of net income per common share, assuming dilution, because they would not have had a dilutive effect. Stock-based compensation awards excluded from the computation totaled approximately .1 million shares for the nine months ended September 30, 2017, and approximately .1 million shares and .2 million shares for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2016, respectively. No stock-based compensation awards were anti-dilutive for the three months ended September 30, 2017.

Trading securities include fixed income securities (primarily U.S. government and corporate debt securities) measured at fair value using quoted prices/bids and a money market fund measured at fair value using net asset value. As of September 30, 2017, trading securities of $1.1 million and $21.5 million were included in Cash and cash equivalents and Other current assets, respectively, in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. As of December 31, 2016, trading securities of $.5 million and $17.6 million were included in Cash and cash equivalents and Other current assets, respectively, in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. Derivatives that are exchange-traded are measured at fair value using quoted market prices and classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy. Derivatives measured based on foreign exchange rate inputs that are readily available in public markets are classified within Level 2 of the valuation hierarchy. Bank drafts (maturities greater than three months) are valued at face value due to their short-term nature and are included in Other current assets in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Note 15. Commitments and Contingencies

Legal Proceedings

We are involved in various lawsuits, claims, inquiries, and other regulatory and compliance matters, most of which are routine to the nature of our business. When it is probable that a loss will be incurred and where a range of the loss can be reasonably estimated, the best estimate within the range is accrued. When the best estimate within the range cannot be determined, the low end of the range is accrued. The ultimate resolution of these claims could affect future results of operations should our exposure be materially different from our estimates or should liabilities be incurred that were not previously accrued. Potential insurance reimbursements are not offset against these liabilities.

Because of the uncertainties associated with claims resolution and litigation, future expenses to resolve these matters could be higher than the liabilities we have accrued; however, we are unable to reasonably estimate a range of potential expenses. If information were to become available that allowed us to reasonably estimate a range of potential expenses in an amount higher or lower than what we have accrued, we would adjust our accrued liabilities accordingly. Additional lawsuits, claims, inquiries, and other regulatory and compliance matters could arise in the future. The range of expenses for resolving any future matters would be assessed as they arise; until then, a range of potential expenses for such resolution cannot be determined. Based upon current information, we believe that the impact of the resolution of these matters would not be, individually or in the aggregate, material to our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Environmental Expenditures

Environmental expenditures are generally expensed. However, environmental expenditures for newly acquired assets and those which extend or improve the economic useful life of existing assets are capitalized and amortized over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the acquired asset or the remaining life of the existing asset. We review our estimates of the costs of complying with environmental laws related to remediation and cleanup of various sites, including sites in which governmental agencies have designated us as a potentially responsible party (PRP). When it is probable that a loss will be incurred and where a range of the loss can be reasonably estimated, the best estimate within the range is accrued. When the best estimate within the range cannot be determined, the low end of the range is accrued. Potential insurance reimbursements are not offset against these liabilities.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

As of September 30, 2017, we have been designated by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and/or other responsible state agencies as a PRP at thirteen waste disposal or waste recycling sites that are the subject of separate investigations or proceedings concerning alleged soil and/or groundwater contamination. No settlement of our liability related to any of these sites has been agreed upon. We are participating with other PRPs at these sites and anticipate that our share of remediation costs will be determined pursuant to agreements that we negotiate with the EPA or other governmental authorities.

These estimates could change as a result of changes in planned remedial actions, remediation technologies, site conditions, the estimated time to complete remediation, environmental laws and regulations, and other factors. Because of the uncertainties associated with environmental assessment and remediation activities, future expenses to remediate these sites could be higher than the liabilities we have accrued; however, we are unable to reasonably estimate a range of potential expenses. If information were to become available that allowed us to reasonably estimate a range of potential expenses in an amount higher or lower than what we have accrued, we would adjust our environmental liabilities accordingly. In addition, we may be identified as a PRP at additional sites in the future. The range of expenses for remediation of any future-identified sites would be addressed as they arise; until then, a range of expenses for such remediation cannot be determined.

Note 17. Recent Accounting Requirements

In August 2017, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued amended guidance to improve the financial reporting of hedging relationships to better portray the economic results of an entity's risk management activities in its financial statements, as well as to simplify the application of hedge accounting. The amended presentation and disclosure guidance is required prospectively. The guidance will be effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and early adoption is permitted. We are currently assessing the impact of this guidance on our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, and disclosures.

In May 2017, the FASB issued amended guidance that provides clarity on which changes to share-based awards are considered substantive and require modification accounting to be applied. This guidance will be effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017. We do not regularly modify the terms and conditions of share-based awards and do not believe adoption of this amended guidance will have a significant effect on our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, and disclosures.

In March 2017, the FASB issued guidance that requires employers with defined benefit plans to present only the service cost component of net periodic benefit cost in the same income statement line item(s) as other employee compensation costs arising from services rendered during the period. Employers are required to present the other components of the net periodic benefit cost separately from the line item(s) that includes the service cost and outside of any subtotal of operating income. Components other than the service cost component will not be eligible for capitalization in assets. Employers are required to apply the guidance on the presentation of the components of net periodic benefit cost in the income statement retrospectively, while the guidance that limits the capitalization of net periodic benefit cost in assets to the service cost component must be applied prospectively. This guidance will be effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017. The other components of net periodic pension cost totaled approximately $13 million and $53 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and October 1, 2016, respectively. The amount in 2016 included a recognized loss on settlement of approximately $41 million. We continue to assess the impact of this guidance on the presentation of our results of operations and disclosures.

In January 2017, the FASB issued amended guidance that simplifies the subsequent measurement of goodwill. This amended guidance eliminates step two of the goodwill impairment test, so that a goodwill impairment will be the amount by which a reporting unit's carrying value exceeds its fair value, not to exceed the carrying amount of goodwill. We adopted this guidance in the third quarter of 2017. This adoption did not have a significant impact on our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, or disclosures.

In October 2016, the FASB issued guidance that requires companies to recognize the income tax effects of intra-entity sales and transfers of assets other than inventory in the period in which they occur. This guidance will be effective for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2017. The guidance requires modified retrospective adoption. Upon adoption, we expect to derecognize tax-related deferred charges and recognize deferred taxes related to certain intra-entity asset transfers as a net reduction to retained earnings. We do not believe adoption of this guidance will have a significant effect on our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, and disclosures.

In March 2016, the FASB issued guidance on accounting for leases that requires lessees to recognize the rights and obligations created by leases on their balance sheets. This guidance, which will be effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, also requires enhanced disclosures regarding the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases. Early adoption is permitted. We expect to adopt this guidance as of the effective date. A modified retrospective approach is required for adoption with respect to all leases that exist at or commence after the date of initial application, with an option to use certain practical expedients. While we are currently assessing the impact of this guidance on our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, and disclosures, we expect its adoption to have a significant impact on our financial position and disclosures.

In May 2014, and in subsequent updates, the FASB issued revised guidance on revenue recognition. This revised guidance provides a single comprehensive model for accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes most current revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific guidance. This revised guidance requires an entity to recognize revenue when it transfers promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This revised guidance creates a five-step model that requires entities to exercise judgment when considering the terms of contract(s), which includes (i) identifying the contract(s) with the customer, (ii) identifying the separate performance obligations in the contract, (iii) determining the transaction price, (iv) allocating the transaction price to the separate performance obligations, and (v) recognizing revenue when each performance obligation is satisfied. This revised guidance also requires additional disclosure about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including qualitative and quantitative information about contracts with customers, significant judgments and changes in judgments, and assets recognized from costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. This revised guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, and interim periods within those fiscal years, and can be applied retrospectively either to each prior reporting period presented (full retrospective) or with the cumulative effect of adoption recognized at the date of initial application (modified retrospective). We expect to adopt this revised guidance under the modified retrospective approach in the first quarter of 2018. We established a project plan and cross-functional team to manage the assessment, design, and implementation of this new guidance. Based on our assessment to date, we do not anticipate that the adoption of this revised guidance will have a significant impact on our financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. Upon adoption of this guidance, allowances for customer returns, currently presented as a reduction of trade accounts receivable, will be classified as a returns liability. The allowance for customer returns was $12.1 million and $10 million as of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively. Upon adoption, we do not expect the value of return assets to be significant. We are in the process of implementing appropriate changes to processes, policies, systems, and controls to support revenue recognition and disclosures in accordance with the revised guidance.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, or MD&A, provides management's views on our financial condition and results of operations, should be read in conjunction with the accompanying unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and notes thereto, and includes the following sections:

Non-GAAP Financial Measures	19
Overview and Outlook	20
Analysis of Results of Operations for the Third Quarter	21
Results of Operations by Reportable Segment for the Third Quarter	22
Analysis of Results of Operations for the Nine Months Year-to-Date	24
Results of Operations by Reportable Segment for the Nine Months Year-to-Date	26
Financial Condition	28
Recent Accounting Requirements	32

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

We report our financial results in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or GAAP, and also communicate with investors using certain non-GAAP financial measures. These non-GAAP financial measures are not in accordance with, nor are they a substitute for or superior to, the comparable GAAP financial measures. These non-GAAP financial measures are intended to supplement the presentation of our financial results that are prepared in accordance with GAAP. Based upon feedback from investors and financial analysts, we believe that the supplemental non-GAAP financial measures we provide are useful to their assessments of our performance and operating trends, as well as liquidity.

Our non-GAAP financial measures exclude the impact of certain events, activities or strategic decisions. The accounting effects of these events, activities or decisions, which are included in the GAAP financial measures, may make it difficult to assess our underlying performance in a single period. By excluding the accounting effects, positive or negative, of certain items (e.g., restructuring charges, legal settlements, certain effects of strategic transactions and related costs, losses from debt extinguishments, gains and losses from curtailment and settlement of pension obligations, gains or losses on sales of certain assets, and other items), we believe that we are providing meaningful supplemental information to facilitate an understanding of our core operating results and liquidity measures. These non-GAAP financial measures are used internally to evaluate trends in our underlying performance, as well as to facilitate comparison to the results of competitors for a single period. While some of the items we exclude from GAAP financial measures recur, they tend to be disparate in amount, frequency, or timing.

We use the following non-GAAP financial measures in this MD&A:

- Sales change ex. currency refers to the increase or decrease in sales excluding the estimated impact of foreign currency translation. The estimated impact of foreign currency translation is calculated on a constant currency basis, with prior period results translated at current period average exchange rates to exclude the effect of foreign currency fluctuations.
- Organic sales change refers to the increase or decrease in sales excluding the estimated impact of foreign currency translation, product line exits, acquisitions and divestitures, and, where applicable, an extra week in our fiscal year.

We believe that sales change ex. currency and organic sales change assist investors in evaluating the sales growth from our businesses and better enable them to evaluate our results from period to period.

- Free cash flow refers to cash flow from operations, less payments for property, plant and equipment, software and other deferred charges, plus proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, plus (minus) net proceeds from sales (purchases) of investments. We believe that free cash flow assists investors by indicating the amount of cash we have available for debt reductions, dividends, share repurchases, and acquisitions.
- Operational working capital refers to trade accounts receivable and inventories, net of accounts payable, and excludes cash and cash equivalents, short-term borrowings, deferred taxes, other current assets and other current liabilities, as well as net current assets or liabilities held-for-sale. We believe that operational working capital assists investors in assessing our working capital requirements because it excludes the impact of fluctuations attributable to our financing and other activities (which affect cash and cash equivalents, deferred taxes, other current assets, and other current liabilities) that tend to be disparate in amount, frequency, or timing, and that may increase the volatility of working capital as a percentage of sales from period to period. The items excluded from this measure are not significantly influenced by our day-to-day activities managed at the operating level and do not necessarily reflect the underlying trends in our operations.

OVERVIEW AND OUTLOOK

Net Sales

The factors impacting reported sales change are shown in the table below:

	Three Months Ended September 30, 2017	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2017
Reported sales change	11%	8%
Foreign currency translation	(1)
Sales change ex. currency	10%	8%
Acquisitions/divestitures	(5)	(4)
Organic sales change	5%	4%

In the three and nine months ended September 30, 2017, net sales increased on an organic basis due to higher volume.

Net Income

Net income increased approximately $83 million in the first nine months of 2017 compared to the same period last year. Major factors affecting net income in the first nine months of 2017 included:

Positive factors:

- Volume/mix
- Benefits from productivity initiatives, including savings from restructuring actions, net of transition costs
- Prior year loss from settlement of pension obligations

Offsetting factors:

- Higher employee-related costs
- The net impact of pricing and raw material costs
- Higher restructuring charges

Acquisitions

During the first nine months of 2017, we completed the 2017 Acquisitions, which were not material, individually or in the aggregate, to our unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. Refer to Note 2, Acquisitions, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

Cost Reduction Actions

2015/2016 Actions

During the nine months ended September 30, 2017, we recorded $24.4 million in restructuring charges, net of reversals, related to the 2015/2016 Actions. These charges consisted of severance and related costs for the reduction of approximately 670 positions, lease cancellation costs, and asset impairment charges.

Impact of Cost Reduction Actions

We anticipate incremental savings, net of transition costs, from the 2015/2016 Actions to be approximately $50 million to $55 million in 2017. We estimate cash restructuring costs to be approximately $35 million in 2017.

Restructuring charges were included in Other expense, net in the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Refer to Note 9, Cost Reduction Actions, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

Avery Dennison Corporation

Free cash flow in the first nine months of 2017 increased compared to the same period last year primarily due to higher net income, partially offset by higher net capital and software expenditures and purchases of investments, higher income tax payments, net of refunds, and operational working capital improvements in the prior year, the benefit of which did not repeat in the current year. Free cash flow in the first nine months of 2017 also reflected the impact of our adoption of the accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments described in Note 1, General, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Outlook

Certain factors that we believe may contribute to results for 2017 are described below:

- We expect our net sales to increase by approximately 8%.
- We expect our full year effective tax rate to be approximately 28%.
- We anticipate our capital and software expenditures to be approximately $215 million.
- We estimate pre-tax cash restructuring and certain acquisition-related transaction costs to total approximately $40 million.

Gross Profit Margin

Gross profit margin for the third quarter of 2017 decreased compared to the same period last year primarily driven by acquisitions as well as the net impact of pricing and raw material costs in our Label and Graphic Materials and Industrial and Healthcare Materials reportable segments.

Marketing, General and Administrative Expense

Marketing, general and administrative expense increased in the third quarter of 2017 compared to the same period last year reflecting higher employee-related costs and the impact of acquisitions, partially offset by benefits from productivity initiatives, including savings from restructuring, net of transition costs.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2017 included $1.7 million of tax benefit from the releases of valuation allowances on certain U.S. state deferred tax assets and $1.1 million of tax benefit from the effective settlements of certain tax examinations and changes in our judgment about tax filing positions as a result of new information.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2017 also included the immediate recognition of $1.6 million of tax expense primarily from intra-entity sales and transfers of assets other than inventory related to the integration of a recent acquisition. The remaining tax effects were recognized as deferred tax charges and recorded in Other current assets and Other assets. However, we expect the deferred tax charges to be derecognized as an adjustment to retained earnings upon adoption of the accounting guidance update described in Note 17, Recent Accounting Requirements, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

In addition, the effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2017 compared to the same period last year reflects a decrease in tax expense related to the repatriation of non-permanently reinvested earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries and favorable changes in the geographic mix of our income before taxes.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended October 1, 2016 included $4.8 million of tax expense resulting from return to provision adjustments pursuant to the completion of the 2015 U.S. federal tax return; $1 million of tax benefit from our change in judgment about tax filing positions in certain foreign jurisdictions as a result of new information gained from our interactions with tax authorities; $17.7 million of tax expense associated with the tax cost to repatriate non-permanently reinvested earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries; and $11.1 million of tax benefit resulting from effective settlements of tax examinations in various foreign jurisdictions.

Our effective tax rate can vary widely from quarter to quarter due to interim reporting requirements, the recognition of discrete events, and the timing of repatriation of foreign earnings. Refer to Note 11, Taxes Based on Income, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further information.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 included $3.2 million of tax benefit from the releases of valuation allowances on certain U.S. state deferred tax assets; $4.5 million of tax benefit from the effective settlements of certain tax examinations and changes in our judgment about tax filing positions as a result of new information; and $4.6 million of tax benefit from decreases in certain tax reserves, including interest and penalties, as a result of closing tax years.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 also included a net benefit of $13.6 million related to our adoption of the accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments described in Note 1, General, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments requires that the effect of excess tax benefits associated with stock-based payments be recognized in the income statement instead of in capital in excess of par value as was the case prior to our adoption of this update. Excess tax benefits are the effects of tax deductions in excess of compensation expenses recognized for financial accounting purposes. These benefits related to stock-based awards are generally generated as a result of stock price appreciation during the vesting period or between the time of grant and the time of exercise. We expect future excess tax benefits pursuant to this update to vary depending on our stock-based payments in future reporting periods. These excess tax benefits may cause variability in our future effective tax rate as they can fluctuate based on vesting and exercise activity, as well as our future stock price. The tax effect of the tax deductions in excess of compensation cost related to the exercise of nonqualified stock options and vesting of other stock-based compensation awards recognized in capital in excess of par value was $10.0 million for the nine months ended October 1, 2016.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 also included the immediate recognition of $1.6 million of tax expense primarily from intra-entity sales and transfers of assets other than inventory related to the integration of a recent acquisition. The remaining tax effects were recognized as deferred tax charges and recorded in Other current assets and Other assets. However, we expect the deferred tax charges to be derecognized as an adjustment to retained earnings upon adoption of the accounting guidance update described in Note 17, Recent Accounting Requirements, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

In addition, the effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 compared to the same period last year reflects a decrease in tax expense related to the repatriation of non-permanently reinvested earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries and favorable changes in the geographic mix of our income before taxes.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended October 1, 2016 included $3.1 million of tax expense resulting from return to provision adjustments pursuant to the completion of the 2015 U.S. federal tax return; $7.1 million of tax benefit from our change in judgment about tax filing positions in certain foreign jurisdictions as a result of new information gained from our interactions with tax authorities; $26.9 million of tax expense associated with the tax cost to repatriate non-permanently reinvested earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries; $11.1 million of tax benefit resulting from effective settlements of tax examinations in various foreign jurisdictions; $6.7 million of tax benefit from the releases of valuation allowances against certain deferred tax assets in a foreign jurisdiction associated with a structural simplification approved by the tax authority; and $3.3 million of tax benefit due to decreases in certain tax reserves as a result of closing tax years.

Our effective tax rate can vary widely from quarter to quarter due to interim reporting requirements, the recognition of discrete events and the timing of repatriation of foreign earnings. For cash flow purposes, changes in assets and liabilities and other adjustments exclude the impact of foreign currency translation (discussed below in Analysis of Selected Balance Sheet Accounts).

During the first nine months of 2017, cash flow from operating activities increased compared to the same period last year primarily due to higher net income, partially offset by higher income tax payments, net of refunds, and operational working capital improvements in the prior year, the benefit of which did not repeat in the current year. In addition, in the first nine months of 2017, operating activities reflected the impact of our adoption of the accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments described in Note 1, General, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Capital and Software Spending

During the first nine months of 2017, we invested in new equipment to support growth in Asia, Europe, and North America, and to improve manufacturing productivity. During the first nine months of 2016, we invested in new equipment to support growth, primarily in Asia, and to improve manufacturing productivity.

During the first nine months of 2017 and 2016, we invested in information technology primarily associated with enterprise resource planning system implementations in North America, Asia, and Europe.

Payments for Acquisitions and Investments in Businesses

During the first nine months of 2017 and 2016, the aggregate payments for acquisitions, net of cash acquired, and investments in businesses were approximately $310 million and $228 million, respectively, which we funded through cash and commercial paper borrowings.

Refer to Note 2, Acquisitions, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

Borrowings and Repayment of Debt

Given the seasonality of our cash flow from operating activities, during the first nine months of 2017 and 2016, our commercial paper borrowings were used to fund share repurchase activity, dividend payments, and capital expenditures. During the first nine months of 2017 and 2016, commercial paper borrowings were also used to fund acquisitions.

In March 2017, we issued 500 million of senior notes, due March 2025. The senior notes bear an interest rate of 1.25% per year, payable annually in arrears. The net proceeds from the offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses, were $526.6 million (495.5 million), a portion of which was used to repay commercial paper borrowings that we used to finance a portion of our acquisition of Mactac in August 2016 and the remainder of which was used for general corporate purposes, including acquisitions.

Refer to Note 2, Acquisitions, and Note 5, Debt, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

Dividend Payments

We paid dividends of $1.31 per share in the first nine months of 2017 compared to $1.19 per share in the same period last year. In April 2017, we increased our quarterly dividend to $.45 per share, representing an increase of approximately 10% from our previous dividend rate of $.41 per share.

Share Repurchases

During the first nine months of 2017, we repurchased 1.3 million shares of our common stock at an aggregate cost of $104.8 million. During the first nine months of 2016, we repurchased 2.7 million shares of our common stock at an aggregate cost of $181.5 million.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

In April 2017, our Board authorized the repurchase of shares of our common stock with a fair market value of up to $650 million, exclusive of any fees, commissions or other expenses related to such purchases and in addition to any amount outstanding under our previous Board authorization. Our Board repurchase authorizations remain in effect until shares in the respective amount authorized thereunder have been repurchased.

As of September 30, 2017, shares of our common stock in the aggregate amount of $650.1 million remained authorized for repurchase under our outstanding Board authorizations.

Tax Withholding for and Excess Tax Benefit from Stock-Based Compensation, Net

During the first nine months of 2017, tax withholding for and excess tax benefit from stock-based compensation, net, reflected the impact of our adoption of the accounting guidance update related to stock-based payments described in Note 1, General, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Analysis of Selected Balance Sheet Accounts

Long-lived Assets

In the nine months ended September 30, 2017, property, plant and equipment, net, increased by approximately $132 million to $1.05 billion, which primarily reflected the preliminary valuation of property, plant and equipment from the 2017 Acquisitions of approximately $68 million, as well as purchases of property, plant and equipment, partially offset by depreciation expense.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2017, goodwill increased by approximately $184 million to $977.1 million, which reflected the preliminary valuation of goodwill associated with the 2017 Acquisitions, the impact of foreign currency translation, and purchase price allocation adjustments associated with our acquisition of Mactac in August 2016.

Avery Dennison Corporation

In the nine months ended September 30, 2017, other intangibles resulting from business acquisitions, net, increased by approximately $103 million to $170.1 million, which reflected the preliminary valuation of other intangibles from the 2017 Acquisitions and the impact of foreign currency translation, partially offset by current year amortization expense.

Refer to Note 2, Acquisitions, and Note 4, Goodwill and Other Intangibles Resulting from Business Acquisitions, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2017, other assets increased by approximately $42 million to $445.1 million, which reflected an increase to deferred tax charges associated with the integration of a recent acquisition, an increase in the cash surrender value of our corporate-owned life insurance policies, and the impact of foreign currency translation, partially offset by amortization expense related to software and other deferred charges, net of purchases.

Refer to Note 11, Taxes Based on Income, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

Shareholders' Equity Accounts

In the nine months ended September 30, 2017, the balance of our shareholders' equity increased by approximately $209 million to $1.13 billion, which primarily reflected net income, the use of treasury shares to settle stock-based awards and fund contributions to our U.S. defined contribution plan, and the impact of foreign currency translation. These increases were partially offset by dividend payments and share repurchases.

Impact of Foreign Currency Translation

	Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2017
(In millions)
Change in net sales	$	(13)
Change in net income		(3)

International operations generated approximately 76% of our net sales during the nine months ended September 30, 2017. Our future results are subject to changes in political and economic conditions in the regions in which we operate and the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange and interest rates.

Edgar Filing: Avery Dennison Corp - Form 10-Q

The unfavorable impact of foreign currency translation on net sales in the first nine months of 2017 compared to the same period last year was primarily related to sales in China and Turkey, and euro-denominated sales, partially offset by sales in Brazil.

Effect of Foreign Currency Transactions

The impact on net income from transactions denominated in foreign currencies is largely mitigated because the costs of our products are generally denominated in the currencies in which they are sold. In addition, to reduce our income and cash flow exposure to transactions in foreign currencies, we enter into foreign exchange forward, option and swap contracts where available and appropriate. We also utilize certain foreign currency denominated debt to mitigate foreign currency exposure related to our investment in foreign operations.

Analysis of Selected Financial Ratios

We utilize the financial ratios discussed below to assess our financial condition and operating performance.

Working Capital (Deficit) and Operational Working Capital Ratios

The increase in working capital (deficit) (current assets minus current liabilities), as a percentage of annualized net sales, of 4% in the first nine months of 2017 compared to (.7)% in the first nine months of 2016 was primarily the result of a decrease in short-term borrowings and current portion of long-term debt and capital leases, as well as increases in trade accounts receivable, net. The decrease in short-term borrowings and current portion of long-term debt and capital leases was a result of the repayment of commercial paper borrowings used to finance a portion of our acquisition of Mactac in August 2016 using senior notes issued in March 2017. Refer to Borrowings and Repayment of Debt for more information.

The increase in operational working capital, as a percentage of annualized net sales, reconciled with working capital below, of 13.2% in the first nine months of 2017 compared to 12.7% in the first nine months of 2016 was primarily the result of the impact of acquisitions. Our objective is to minimize our investment in operational working capital, as a percentage of annualized net sales, to maximize cash flow and return on investment.

Working capital (deficit), as a percentage of annualized net sales (A) ÷ (C)	4.0%	(.7)%
Operational working capital, as a percentage of annualized net sales (B) ÷ (C)	13.2%	12.7%

Accounts Receivable Ratio

The average number of days sales outstanding, calculated using the three-quarter average trade accounts receivable balance divided by the average daily sales for the first nine months, was 64 days in the first nine months of 2017 and 63 days in the first nine months of 2016. The increase in the average number of days sales outstanding from the prior year primarily reflected the impact of acquisitions and the timing of collections.

Inventory Ratio

Average inventory turnover, calculated using the annualized cost of sales (cost of sales for the first nine months, divided by three and multiplied by four) divided by the three-quarter average inventory balance, was 7.8 in the first nine months of 2017 and 8.5 in the first nine months of 2016. The decrease in the current year average inventory turnover primarily reflected the impact of acquisitions and the timing of inventory purchases.

Accounts Payable Ratio

The average number of days payable outstanding, calculated using the three-quarter average accounts payable balance divided by the average daily cost of products sold for the first nine months, was 72 days in both the first nine months of 2017 and 2016.

Capital Resources

Capital resources include cash flows from operations, cash and cash equivalents and debt financing. At September 30, 2017, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $232 million held in accounts at third-party financial institutions.

Our cash balances are held in numerous locations throughout the world. At September 30, 2017, the majority of our cash and cash equivalents was held by our foreign subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

Avery Dennison Corporation

To meet U.S. cash requirements, we have several cost-effective liquidity options available. These options include borrowing funds at reasonable rates, including commercial paper, borrowings from foreign subsidiaries, and repatriating foreign earnings. However, if we were to repatriate incremental foreign earnings, we may be subject to additional taxes in the U.S.

Our $700 million revolving credit facility (the Revolver) contains financial covenants requiring that we maintain specified ratios of total debt and interest expense in relation to certain measures of income. As of September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, we were in compliance with our financial covenants.

In March 2017, we issued $500 million of senior notes, due March 2025. The senior notes bear an interest rate of 1.25% per year, payable annually in arrears. Refer to Note 5, Debt, to the unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

On October 2, 2017, subsequent to the end of the third quarter of 2017, we repaid $250 million of senior notes at maturity using commercial paper borrowings.

We are currently in the process of amending the Revolver to, among other things, increase our borrowing capacity under our current agreement.

We are exposed to financial market risk resulting from changes in interest and foreign currency rates, and to possible liquidity and credit risks of our counterparties.

Capital from Debt

Our total debt increased by approximately $389 million in the first nine months of 2017 to $1.68 billion, primarily reflecting the issuance of senior notes in March 2017. Refer to Financing Activities above for more information.

Credit ratings are a significant factor in our ability to raise short- and long-term financing. The credit ratings assigned to us also impact the interest rates paid and our access to commercial paper, credit facilities, and other borrowings. A downgrade of our short-term credit ratings could impact our ability to access the commercial paper markets. If our access to commercial paper markets were to become limited, the Revolver and our other credit facilities would be available to meet our short-term funding requirements, if necessary. When determining a credit rating, we believe that rating agencies primarily consider our competitive position, business outlook, consistency of cash flows, debt level and liquidity, geographic dispersion and management team. We remain committed to maintaining an investment grade rating.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There have been no material changes to the information provided in Part II, Item 7A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f)) that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our Exchange Act reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the SEC, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding the required disclosure.

In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, we recognize that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management necessarily is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

Our disclosure controls system is based upon a global chain of financial and general business reporting lines that converge in our headquarters in Glendale, California. As required by SEC Rule 13a-15(b), we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the quarter covered by this report. Based on the foregoing, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of such time to provide reasonable assurance that information was recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information was accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding the required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

We periodically assess our internal control environment. During 2014, we began a phased implementation of a new transactional system in our Retail Branding and Information Solutions reportable segment that is expected to continue through 2021. Processes affected by this implementation include order management, pricing, shipping, general accounting, manufacturing and planning. Where appropriate, we are reviewing related internal controls and making changes. Other than this implementation, there have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. We are currently in the process of reviewing our internal control structure related to the 2017 Acquisitions. We will make any necessary changes as we integrate the 2017 Acquisitions into our overall process of internal control over financial reporting.
