Introductory Note

On May 1, 2018, The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company (Lincoln Life) completed its previously announced acquisition (the Closing) of Liberty Mutual Group Inc. s (Liberty) Group Benefits Business (the Group Business) and Individual Life and Annuity Business (the Life Business) through the acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Liberty Life Assurance Company of Boston (the Company).

Item 8.01 Other Events.

In connection with the Closing and pursuant to the Master Transaction Agreement, dated January 18, 2018 (the Master Transaction Agreement), previously reported in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 23, 2018, Protective Life Insurance Company (Protective Life), a wholly owned subsidiary of Protective Life Corporation (Protective), and Protective Life and Annuity Insurance Company (PLAIC), a wholly owned subsidiary of Protective Life, entered into reinsurance agreements (the Reinsurance Agreements) and related ancillary documents (including administrative services agreements and transition services agreements) providing for the reinsurance and administration of the Life Business.

Pursuant to the Reinsurance Agreements, the Company ceded to Protective Life and PLAIC the insurance policies related to the Life Business on a 100% coinsurance basis. The aggregate ceding commission for the reinsurance of the Life Business was $422.9 million. All policies issued in states other than New York were ceded to Protective Life under a reinsurance agreement between the Company and Protective Life, and all policies issued in New York were ceded to PLAIC under a reinsurance agreement between the Company and PLAIC. The aggregate statutory reserves of the Company ceded to Protective Life and PLAIC as of the closing of the Transaction were approximately $13.3 billion, which amount was based on initial estimates and is subject to adjustment following the Closing. Pursuant to the terms of the Reinsurance Agreements, each of Protective Life and PLAIC are required to maintain assets in trust for the benefit of the Company to secure their respective obligations to the Company under the Reinsurance Agreements. The trust accounts were initially funded by each of Protective Life and PLAIC principally with the investment assets that were received from the Company. Additionally, Protective Life and PLAIC have each agreed to provide, on behalf of the Company, administration and policyholder servicing of the Life Business reinsured by it pursuant to administrative services agreements between the Company and each of Protective Life and PLAIC.

The above description of the Master Transaction Agreement and the related agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Master Transaction Agreement, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to Protective s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 23, 2018.

On May 1, 2018, Protective issued a press release titled Protective Closes Reinsurance Transaction with Liberty Life. A copy of such press release is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
