Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 4, 2008, AtheroGenics, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release to announce that upon the filing of the Company's Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 on March 3, 2008 (the "Form 10-K"), the Company regained compliance with Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(1)(A) which requires the Company to have more than $50 million in revenue and $50 million in total assets to maintain its listing on the Nasdaq Global Market. A copy of the press release is attached to this current report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.

As previously announced, on December 26, 2007, the Company received a Nasdaq Staff Deficiency Letter indicating it had failed to comply with the requirements for continued listing set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(4) because the closing bid price of the Company's common stock had fallen below $1.00 for 30 consecutive business days. The Company was provided with 180 calendar days to regain compliance with this rule. If at any time before the end of the 180 calendar day compliance period, the Company's common stock closes at $1.00 or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, Nasdaq will provide written notification that the Company is in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement. The Company currently is still in violation of Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(4) and the Company cannot provide any assurance that it will regain compliance in the near term, or at all. Additional information regarding the risks related to any failure of the Company to maintain its continued listing on the Nasdaq Global Market can be found under the caption "Risk Factors" in the Company's Form 10-K.
