Certain statements in this Form 8-K that are not historical facts are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements may be identified by the use of words such as "anticipate," "believe," "expect," "future," "may," "will," "would," "should," "plan," "projected," "intend," and similar expressions. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of MedCom to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. MedCom's future operating results are dependent upon many factors, including, but not limited to, MedCom's ability to: (i) build the management and human resources and infrastructure necessary to support the growth of its business; (ii) obtain sufficient capital to pay existing debts; (iii) competitive factors and developments beyond MedCom's control; and (iv) other risk factors discussed in MedCom's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including MedCom's Form 10-K filed on September 29, 2008. MedCom undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements made in this Form 8-K to reflect future events or developments.
