Item 5.02(b) and (c) - Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On March 7, 2005, Lockheed Martin Corporation announced that it has named Martin T. Stanislav as its Controller and Chief Accounting Officer (CAO). He previously served as Vice President and Controller of the corporation's Aeronautics business area in Ft. Worth, Texas. Mr. Stanislav replaces Rajeev Bhalla who resigned as Controller and CAO to take a senior position with a division of United Technologies Corporation. Mr. Bhalla resigned on March 4, 2005, effective as of today.

Mr. Stanislav, 41, joined Lockheed Martin in 1998 as Director of Accounting where he was responsible for the corporation's consolidated financial statements and related analyses and disclosures. In 1999, he was promoted to Vice President of Shared Services, responsible for all business activities including financial controls and core financial transaction processing. He has been in his current position with the Aeronautics business area since 2002. He is a 1986 graduate of the University of Maryland and a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). He began his career with Ernst & Young, LLP.
