Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 20, 2006, Computer Software Innovations, Inc. (CSI) entered into a waiver agreement (the Waiver) with RBC Centura Bank (the Bank) with respect to potential defaults under agreements with the Bank relating to (1) CSI s proposed execution and delivery of an asset purchase agreement for the acquisition of substantially all of the assets of McAleer Computer Associates, Inc. (MCAI) among CSI, MCAI and William J. McAleer, the sole shareholder of MCAI, and (2) the consummation of the proposed acquisition. The Waiver is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. The proposed acquisition of MCAI by CSI, and the execution of a related preliminary letter of intent, were previously disclosed in CSI s Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 20, 2006.

CSI, MCAI and McAleer continue to negotiate the terms of the proposed asset purchase agreement. CSI anticipates that such agreement will be completed, and executed and delivered, shortly.

The necessity for the Waiver arose from CSI s concern that some of the terms of the proposed acquisition agreement could potentially impact certain provisions in the credit documents with the Bank. Specifically, CSI was granted a waiver of certain provisions contained in the credit documents in order to allow CSI to: (1) execute and deliver the acquisition agreement, as well as certain other documents contemplated by such agreement; (2) proceed to consummate the proposed asset acquisition; (3) use loan proceeds from the Bank to pay up to $3,425,000, or the balance of the purchase price, that is proposed to be paid at closing; (4) execute and deliver a promissory note to MCAI for $525,000; (5) execute and deliver to MCAI a first mortgage covering the real property CSI would acquire in the transaction; (6) acquire and thereafter engage in MCAI s business; and (7) use the assets acquired in the transaction in states other than South Carolina, primarily in Alabama.
