Endeavor Acquisition Corp.

16,860,745 Shares of Common Stock

350,000 Units

350,000 Warrants

This prospectus relates to 16,160,745 shares of our common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, which are issuable upon the exercise of warrants originally issued in our initial public offering pursuant to a prospectus dated December 15, 2005. In order to obtain the shares, the holders of the warrants issued in our initial public offering must pay an exercise price of $6.00 per share for the 16,160,745 shares underlying these warrants or elect cashless exercise utilizing the value of such warrants based on the difference between the then current market price per share of Endeavor common stock and the pre-share exercise price of the warrants. See section of this prospectus entitled Cashless Exercise Rights. We will receive proceeds from any cash-based exercise of the warrants but not from any cashless exercise or any sale of the underlying common stock. The warrants expire on December 14, 2009 at 5:00 p.m., New York City time. Endeavor may call the warrants for redemption:

in whole and not in part;

at a price of $0.01 per warrant at any time after the warrants become exercisable;

upon not less than 30 days prior written notice of redemption to each warrant holder; and if, and only if, the reported last sale price of the common stock equals or exceeds $11.50 per share, for any 20 trading days within a 30 trading day period ending on the third business day prior to the notice of redemption to warrant holders, which period may begin prior to consummation of the acquisition of American Apparel, Inc. and affiliated companies described herein (American Apparel Acquisition). As of December 3, 2007, this condition would have been met.

Under the terms of the acquisition agreement governing the American Apparel Acquisition, Endeavor has agreed that in connection with any redemption of the warrants, Endeavor will afford all of the holders thereof the right and opportunity to exercise their warrants on a cashless basis utilizing the value of such warrants based on the difference between the then current market price per share of Endeavor common stock and the pre-share exercise price of the warrants. See section of this prospectus entitled Cashless Exercise Rights.

This prospectus also relates to 350,000 units, each consisting of one share of common stock and one warrant, which are issuable upon the exercise of a unit purchase option originally issued in our initial public offering to Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. Inc. and Broadband Capital Management, LLC, certain of the underwriters, pursuant to a prospectus dated December 15, 2005. In order to obtain the units, the holders of the unit purchase option must pay an exercise price of $10.00 per unit for the 350,000 units underlying this option or utilize the cashless exercise provision provided for therein. The units will become exercisable upon consummation of Endeavor's proposed acquisition of American Apparel, Inc. and its affiliate companies. In order to obtain the shares underlying the warrants included in such units, the holders of the warrants issued upon exercise of the unit purchase option must pay an exercise price of $6.00 per share for the 350,000 shares underlying these warrants or utilize the cashless exercise provision provided for therein. See section of this prospectus entitled Cashless Exercise Rights. We will receive proceeds from any cash-based exercise of the unit purchase option and cash-based exercise of the underlying warrants but not from any cashless exercise or any sale of the underlying common stock.

Our units, shares of common stock and warrants are currently traded on the American Stock Exchange under the symbols APP.U, APP and APP.WS, respectively. As of December 12, 2007, the closing sale price of our units was $24.25, the closing sale price of our common stock was $15.60 and the closing sale price of our warrants was $9.40.

Endeavor

We were formed as a blank check company, named Endeavor Acquisition Corp., to effect a acquisition with an unidentified operating business. On December 21, 2005, we consummated our initial public offering (IPO) of 15,000,000 units, comprised of 15,000,000 shares and 15,000,000 warrants, and received net proceeds of approximately $113.5 million. In January 2006, we closed on an additional 1,160,745 units, comprised of 1,160,745 shares and 1,160,745 warrants, that were subject to the underwriters' over-allotment option and received additional net proceeds of approximately $8.8 million. The units were sold at an offering price of $8.00 per unit. Each unit consists of one share of our common stock and one warrant. Each warrant entitles the holder to purchase from us one share of our common stock at an exercise price of $6.00 per share.

An amount of approximately $121 million of the net proceeds of the IPO and overallotment was placed in an interest-bearing trust account. As of November 16, 2007 approximately $128.7 million was held in trust. At the closing of the proposed acquisition of American Apparel, $1.825 million of the amount held in trust is to be paid to Ladenburg Thalmann & Co. as deferred commissions from the IPO.

In the IPO, we also sold to the underwriters, for $100, as additional compensation, unit purchase options to purchase up to a total of 350,000 units at $10.00 per unit. The units issuable upon exercise of this option are identical to those offered in the IPO.

Acquisition of American Apparel

As described in Endeavor's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 28, 2007 (November 2007 Proxy Statement), Endeavor entered into an amended and restated agreement and plan of reorganization dated as of November 7, 2007 (the Acquisition Agreement), among Endeavor, AAI Acquisition, LLC, a California limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Endeavor (Merger Sub), American Apparel Inc., a California corporation (AAI), American Apparel, LLC, a California limited liability company (LLC), each of American Apparel Canada Wholesale Inc. and American Apparel Canada Retail Inc. (together, the CI companies and, collectively with AAI and LLC, American Apparel), Dov Charney, a principal stockholder and member of AAI and LLC, respectively (Mr. Charney), Sang Ho Lim, the other principal stockholder and member of AAI and LLC, respectively (Mr. Lim), and the stockholders of each of the CI companies (the CI Stockholders). The Acquisition Agreement amended and restated in its entirety the agreement and plan of reorganization, dated as of December 18, 2006 (the Original Agreement), by and among Endeavor, AAI Acquisition Corp., AAI, LLC, the CI companies, Mr. Charney, Mr. Lim and the CI Stockholders.

This acquisition was approved by the stockholders of Endeavor and completed on December 12, 2007.

THE OFFERING

Securities Offered:	16,160,745 shares of common stock underlying warrants with an exercise price of $6.00 per share. The warrants expire on December 14, 2009.
	350,000 units, including 350,000 shares of common stock and 350,000 warrants, underlying a unit purchase option with an exercise price of $10.00 per unit. The unit purchase option expires on the 30 th day after consummation of the proposed acquisition of American Apparel.
	350,000 shares of common stock, underlying the unit purchase option warrants with an exercise price of $6.00 per share. The warrants expire on December 14, 2009.
Number of shares of common stock outstanding before this offering:	57,168,810 shares ¹
Number of shares of common stock to be outstanding after this offering:	74,029,555 shares, assuming exercise of the unit purchase option and all of the warrants. ¹
AMEX symbol for our units:	APP.U
AMEX symbol for our common stock:	APP
AMEX symbol for our warrants:	APP.WS
Offering proceeds:	Assuming the exercise of the unit purchase option and all the warrants for cash, we would receive gross proceeds of $102,564,470. To the extent the unit purchase option and warrants are exercised on a for-cash basis, we intend to use the proceeds for working capital, operating expenses and other general corporate purposes. If at the time the warrants are exercised we have incurred indebtedness, we may also use the proceeds to repay indebtedness.

¹ These figures do not include 7,710,000 shares of our common stock that will be available under the 2007 performance equity plan approved by Endeavor's stockholders at the special meeting of stockholders on December 12, 2007 as part of the proposed acquisition of American Apparel.

These figures reflect the number included in the actual number of shares outstanding as of December 3, 2007, which was 19,910,745, and also 37,258,065 shares of our common stock issued in the acquisition with American Apparel and assumes that all warrants and the unit purchase options are exercised through the payment of cash and not on a cashless basis.

CASHLESS EXERCISE RIGHTS

If we call the warrants for redemption, we will offer all holders that wish to exercise warrants the right to do so on a cashless basis. The public stockholders need not accept this right and may exercise their warrants on a cash basis. Any holder utilizing these cashless exercise rights would pay the exercise price by surrendering the warrants for that number of shares of common stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the product of the number of shares of common stock underlying the warrants, multiplied by the difference between the exercise price of the warrants and the fair market value (defined below) by (y) the fair market value. The fair market value shall mean the average reported last sale price of shares of our common stock for the 10 trading days ending on the third trading day prior to the date on which the notice of redemption is sent to the holders of warrants. This would have the effect of reducing the number of shares received by holders of the warrants. Any fractional share issuable as a result of these rights will be rounded up to the nearest whole share.
