Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 15, 2008, The First American Corporation (the Company) issued a press release announcing that its Board of Directors approved a plan to spin-off its Financial Services companies, which consist primarily of its Title Insurance and Specialty Insurance reporting segments. The Company released on its website (at www.firstam.com/investor) a slide presentation for an investor and analyst conference call to be held January 15, 2008, at 7:00 am Pacific Standard Time, to discuss the anticipated transaction. The full text of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

On the same day, the Company issued a press release announcing its earnings expectations for the quarter ended December 31, 2007. The full text of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

The information in this current report, including the exhibits hereto, is being furnished in accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K. As such, this information is not deemed to be filed for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act and is not incorporated by reference into any filings with the SEC unless otherwise explicitly incorporated into such filings.

Forward-Looking Statements

This current report, the attached press releases and the slide presentation referenced herein contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These and other forward-looking statements may contain the words believe, anticipate, expect, predict, estimate, project, will be, will continue, likely result, and other similar words and phrases. Risks and uncertainties exist that may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the anticipated results to differ from those described in the forward-looking statements include: interest rate fluctuations; continuing disruption in the credit markets; the performance of the real estate markets; limitations on access to public records and other data; general volatility in the capital markets; changes in applicable government regulations; heightened scrutiny by legislators and regulators of the title insurance business and certain other regulated businesses; consolidation among significant customers and competitors; changes in the ability to integrate acquired businesses; systems interruptions and intrusions; the inability to realize the benefits of the offshore strategy; product migration; the inability to consummate the spin-off transaction as a result of, among other factors, the inability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals or the failure to obtain the final approval of the Company's Board of Directors; the inability to recognize the benefits of the spin-off transaction as a result of, among other factors, unexpected corporate overhead costs, unfavorable reaction from customers, employees, ratings agencies or other interested persons, the triggering of rights and obligations by the spin-off, accommodations required to be made to obtain consents or waivers or the inability to transfer assets into the entity being spun-off; and other factors described in Part I, Item 1A of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended Dec. 31, 2006, as updated in Part II, Item 1A of the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007 and in Part II, Item 1A of the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2007, in each case as filed with the SEC. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. The Company does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.
