ING announces cash tender offers for Government Guaranteed Notes

ING announced today an offer (the Offer) to the holders the Government Guaranteed Notes (the Notes) listed in the table below to tender any and all of the outstanding Notes with a total principal amount outstanding of USD 2.25 billion. In addition to the tender offers in the United States, one invitation to a cash tender offer is being conducted in Europe with a total principal amount outstanding of EUR 4.0 billion.

The purpose of the Offer is to further optimize ING Bank's liability profile while reducing the amount of debt securities outstanding guaranteed by the Dutch State. Based on ING Bank's strong liquidity position and funding profile, and given the annual guarantee fee of 84 basis points on the Notes payable to the Dutch State and the short remaining tenor of the Notes, ING Bank is seeking to retire all or a portion of the Notes.
