an additional 50,000 options.

Any decision by Mr. Freeman to dispose of some or all of the Securities will depend, however, on numerous factors, including, without limitation, the price of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer, the terms and conditions relating to their sale, the prospects and profitability of the Issuer, other business and investment alternatives of Mr. Freeman and general economic and market conditions.

Except as set forth above, Mr. Freeman does not have any plans or proposals which relate to or would result in: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Issuer; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amounts of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or in dividend policy of the Issuer; (f) any other material change in the Issuer s business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Issuer s charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person; (h) a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) a class of equity securities of the Issuer to become eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange of 1934, as amendment; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above. Mr. Freeman may formulate plans or proposals with respect to one or more of the foregoing in the future.
