Notice to the Market

Banco Bradesco S.A. (Bradesco or Company), observing its commitment to maintaining its shareholders and the market in general informed of the facts related to the so-called “Operação Zelotes”, announced that it has been subpoenaed, this time, by the General Internal Affairs of the Ministry of Finance about Opening Administrative Accountability of Legal Person. This procedure is intended to establish any administrative practice of acts against the public administration. The subpoena allows Bradesco to accompany all supporting acts of the prosecution.

The Company reiterates its previous releases in the sense that it has not realized any proposal, hiring or payment to anyone, for any kind of advantage in the Administrative Council of Tax Appeals (CARF).

It also informs that the prosecution in CARF, object of verification, was under the sponsorship of renowned tax lawyers and was tried unanimously in disfavor of Bradesco in 2014.

Bradesco reiterates its high standards of ethical conduct and reaffirms its trust in the full operation of justice and of the bodies of public administration control.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
