Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Endo Pharmaceuticals today clarified certain statements made Friday by Bill Newbould, the Company's Vice President, Corporate Communications, to a reporter from the Philadelphia Inquirer. Mr. Newbould's job responsibilities do not include participation in meetings of the Company's Board of Directors or involvement with other confidential matters being reviewed by Directors. As a result, he was unaware that the Board of Directors has worked extensively with the Company's financial advisors and consultants in connection with the Board's ongoing evaluation of strategic alternatives available to Endo, and he did not speak with the executive team prior to speaking with the reporter. Mr. Newbould has been relieved of his duties as Company spokesperson, and Charles Rowland, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, has taken over this role effective immediately. Endo's Board of Directors is fully committed to enhancing value for all of the Company's stockholders and considers all strategic and financial proposals in this light.

A number of the Company's stockholders have discussed their perspectives on the issues raised by DE Shaw with the Company since the filing of DE Shaw's initial letter to the Company in August 2007. The Company remains interested in all of the Company's stockholders' views concerning Endo's business and strategic direction.
