TELUS plans to early redeem US$ 8% Notes due June 1, 2011

Vancouver, BC. - TELUS Corporation (TSX: T, T.A; NYSE: TU), announced today its intention to exercise its early redemption option and to partially redeem up to 30% of its US$1.945 billion outstanding 8% Notes due June 1, 2011 (CUSIP No. 87971MAC7). The redemption price will be based on the Adjusted United States Treasury Yield, as provided in the trust indenture pursuant to which such Notes were issued in May 2001. Note holders will also receive accrued interest to the redemption date.

TELUS plans to finance the partial redemption through a new debt issue and/or funds available under its existing credit facilities. Unanticipated developments or circumstances beyond TELUS' control could affect its intended redemption of the Notes and there is no assurance that the redemption will be completed. TELUS will only become obligated to complete the redemption once it gives notice of redemption in accordance with the governing trust indenture. TELUS will make an announcement as to the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed and the redemption date when it gives notice of redemption.

This news release is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to buy or sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy or sell, any securities.
