CEMEX ANNOUNCES
SENIOR MANAGEMENT CHANGES

MONTERREY, MEXICO. February 09, 2010 – CEMEX, S.A.B. de C.V. (NYSE: CX), announced today changes to its senior management team.

Fernando A. Gonzalez has been appointed Executive Vice President, Planning & Finance. Mr. Gonzalez, who has served CEMEX in a variety of executive capacities since 1989, and has been a member of the Company's Executive Committee since 2003, will be responsible for all corporate strategic and developmental functions, including the Company's relationships with capital markets.

CEMEX also announced the retirement of Hector Medina, Executive Vice President of Finance and Legal, and Armando J. Garcia, Executive Vice President of Technology, Energy and Sustainability. Mr. Medina and Mr. Garcia each participated in an early retirement program for senior executives. Mr. Garcia remains a member of the Company's Board of Directors, on which he has served since 1983.

As a result of these changes, the following executives report to Lorenzo H. Zambrano, CEMEX Chairman and CEO:

- Francisco Garza, President, Americas;
- Fernando A. Gonzalez, Executive Vice President, Planning & Finance;
- Juan Romero, President, Europe, Middle East, Africa & Asia;
- Victor Romo, Executive Vice President, Administration.

“In his new role, one of Fernando Gonzalez's key assignments is to execute the financial strategy that we have put in place over the past year,” said Mr. Zambrano. “He has a wealth of operating, strategic and financial experience, and will play an important role in helping us take full advantage of the upcoming recovery in our markets.”

Mr. Gonzalez, whose most recent position was Executive Vice President for Planning and Development, previously headed CEMEX's businesses in Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia, South America, and Australia.

These management changes will be effective on March 1, 2010.

CEMEX is a global building materials company that provides high-quality products and reliable service to customers and communities in more than 50 countries throughout the world. CEMEX has a rich history of improving the well-being of those it serves through its efforts to pursue innovative industry solutions and efficiency advancements and to promote a sustainable future.
