Vale to change NYSE ticker symbols to VALE and VALE.P

Rio de Janeiro, April 30, 2009 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (Vale) announces that it is changing the ticker symbols of its ADRs traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) to VALE and VALE.P from, respectively, RIO and RIO.PR. The new ticker symbols VALE and VALE.P will be effective at the start of trading on Monday, May 4, 2009.

The move is consistent with the implementation of our new brand name, Vale, which had begun in November 29, 2007.

The ticker symbols of Vale shares traded on the Euronext Paris (VALE3, VALE5), BM&F BOVESPA (VALE3, VALE5) and Madrid's LATIBEX (XVALO, XVALP) will not suffer any change.

Vale's ADRs started to be traded on the NYSE in June 2000 (preferred shares) and March 2002 (common shares) and have been one of the mostly traded ADRs on the NYSE. Vale will be the first non-US NYSE-listed company to use a four-letter symbol on the NYSE.

This press release may include declarations about Vale's expectations regarding future events or results. All declarations based upon future expectations, rather than historical facts, are subject to various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such declarations will prove to be correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where Vale operates, mainly Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) capital markets; (d) the mining and metals businesses and their dependence upon global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) the high degree of global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may give rise to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including Vale's most recent Annual Report on Form 20F and its reports on Form 6K.
