On June 15, 2010, the WFOE entered into a series of restructuring agreements (Restructuring Agreements) with Changsha Zhongte Trade Advertising Co., Ltd. (Zhongte), Changsha North Latitude 30 Cultural Communications Co., Ltd. (North Latitude) and Changsha Beichen Cultural Communications Co., Ltd. (Beichen). Zhongte, North Latitude and Beichen were incorporated on September 27, 2002, August 26, 2003 and June 3, 2008, respectively, in the city of Changsha, Hunan Province, PRC. The Restructuring Agreements, including a Consulting Services Agreement and an Operating Agreement, provide that all business revenues of Zhongte, North Latitude and Beichen shall be directed in full into bank accounts designated by the WFOE, and the WFOE agrees to provide full guarantee for the performance of any contracts, agreements or transactions between Zhongte, North Latitude and Beichen and any third parties. The Company presents earnings per share on a basic and diluted basis. Basic earnings per share has been computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted average number of shares outstanding. Company History

We were incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on November 3, 2008. Originally we engaged in the business of repairing, maintaining and servicing metal gym and heavy duty weight equipment for commercial gyms and health club facilities located in the Metropolitan New York Area

On July 20, 2011, we entered into a Share Exchange Agreement with the shareholders of Phoenix International (China) Limited, a company organized under the laws of Hong Kong (Phoenix International). Pursuant to the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement, we acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Phoenix International from the Phoenix International Shareholders in exchange for the issuance by us to the Phoenix International Shareholders of an aggregate of 36,351,500 newly-issued shares of common stock, $ 0.001 par value per share (the Share Exchange), which, upon completion of the transactions contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement, constitutes a controlling majority of our issued and outstanding shares of common stock. Upon the closing of the share exchange transaction, Phoenix International became our wholly owned subsidiary and we ceased the business of repairing, maintaining and servicing metal gym and heavy duty weight equipment, and became engaged in the advertising and brand name development business in China through Phoenix International and its subsidiary and affiliated companies in China.

Phoenix International is a holding company that owns 100% of the equity of Hunan Beiwei. Hunan Beiwei, a PRC company established in June 2010, is a wholly owned subsidiary of Phoenix International. On June 15, 2010, Hunan Beiwei entered into a set of contractual arrangements with three operating companies in Changsha, Hunan Province, China, which were North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte. The contractual arrangements are comprised of a series of agreements, including a Consulting Service Agreement and an Operating Agreement, through which Hunan Beiwei has the right to advise, consult, manage and operate North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte and to collect and own all of North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte's net profits and net losses. Additionally, under a Proxy Agreement, the shareholders of North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte have vested their voting control over North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte to Hunan Beiwei. In order to further reinforce Hunan Beiwei's rights to control and operate North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte, North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte and its shareholders have granted Hunan Beiwei, under an Option Agreement, the exclusive right and option to acquire all of their equity interests in North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte, or, alternatively, all of the assets of North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte. Further, the shareholders of North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte agreed to pledge all of their rights, titles and interests in North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte to Hunan Beiwei under an Equity Pledge Agreement.

Upon entry of these contractual arrangements, North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte became the Variable Interest Entities (VIE) of Hunan Beiwei pursuant to FIN 46 (R) and Hunan Beiwei was able to carry out business operations through North Latitude, Beichen and Zhongte.

This increase was mainly due to our continued sales and marketing efforts to locate and develop new customers who contributed to the sales growth.

From late 2011, the Company has been focusing on the expansion of TV advertising coverage and more working capital has been invested in a buy-out of advertising coverage for a certain period of time on TV programs. Sales generated from TV advertisements increased by $9.2 million due to expansion of our TV advertising business. In 2012, we expanded our business to cosmetics products. In the quarter ended September 30, 2012, sales generated from cosmetics product, textile product and Online retailer advertisement increased by $3.4 million, $983,000 and $2.5million, respectively. Our customers includes Dr. Bai Marubi and JVJQ Luolai textile and T-mall online se

Sales generated from radio decreased by $2.5 million, due to the decreased liquor advertisement released in our major radio partner Golden Golden Eagle 955 . Sales generated from newspaper and magazine decreased by $660,000 due to the discontinued publication of our own magazine Power in third quarter of 2012. The decrease also reflected management s effort to expand our business in TV media.

Cost of Sales:

Our cost of sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 was $11,741,045, an increase of $7,478,097 as compared to $4,262,948 for the quarter ended September 30, 2011. This increase was primarily due to the expansion of our business and more revenue generated. Our cost of sales consisted primarily of expenses associated with the service, including fees paid to third parties for advertisements.

Cost of sales from portfolio of advertising media resources is as follows:

	2012		2011		Variance
	Amount (in '000 USD)	% to total cost	Amount (in '000 USD)	% to total cost	Amount (in '000 USD)	%

Total	11,741	100%	4,263	100%	7,478

Gross Profit:

As a result of the foregoing, we generated an operating profit of $3,455,942 for the quarter ended September 30, 2012, a $1,366,605 decrease from the comparable period in 2011. Gross profit rate decreased by 30% from 53% to 23%. The volatility in gross profit percentages was mainly due to the change of combinations of revenue from different media and the change of gross profit percentage of each advertising media resource. Gross profit percentage from the portfolio of advertising media resources is as follows:

	The Quarter Ended September 30,		Variance
	2012	2011
TV	19%	39%	-20%
Radio	56%	78%	-22%
Newspaper and magazine	1%	33%	-32%
Exhibition and events	40%	41%	-1%
Elevator door display	75%	51%	24%
Outdoor billboard	52%	12%	40%
Internet	(19%)	33%	-52%

Gross profit percentage for TV decreased mainly due to the increased business competition in this industry. The advertisement coverage resource is stable since our vendors are stable. However, there are increasing advertising agents like us coming into the business. We have to pay more to purchase the coverage right compared to previous period. The gross profit percentage from radio and newspaper and magazine decreased compared to the same period last year due to the fact that we had less revenues generated from these two resources and those revenue sources in last year had a relatively high margin. The gross margin of elevator door display increased mainly because the Company decreased its businesses with lower margin, which was consistent with the decreased revenue in this section. Gross margin from outdoor billboard and internet increased due to the increase of revenue, when certain cost associated with the service was fixed.

Sales from TV to total sales increased from 41% to 85%, however, gross margin percentage for sales from TV decreased by 20%, therefore, the overall gross profit decreased by 30%.

Operating Expenses:

Operating expenses, including selling expenses and general and administrative expenses, were $832,773 for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 as compared to $420,817 for the quarter ended September 30, 2011, an increase of $411,956. The increase of these major expenses was mainly due to our expansion of business and increased public listing fees that incurred after the reverse merger in July, 2011.

The primary changes in the operating expense include the following:

- Payroll and related expense increased by approximately $212,000, which was due to the expansion of our business that required more administrative and sales staff from 2011 to 2012. The increase in payroll was in proportion to the increase of net sales.
- Other expenses, including office, hospitality and other miscellaneous expenses, increased by approximately $237,000 due to the expansion of our business and operation.

Income Taxes:

Our income taxes were $688,221 for the quarter ended September 30, 2012, comparing to $1,142,435 for the quarter ended September 30, 2011, a decrease of $454,214. The decrease was due to the decreased income before taxes from operations.

Net Income:

We reported net income of $1,976,016 and 3,412,442 for the quarters ended September 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Basic and diluted earnings per common share were identical for quarter ended September 30, 2011, which were $ 0.08. For the quarters ended September 30, 2012, basic and diluted earnings per share were $0.04.

Comprehensive income:

Comprehensive income, which adds the currency adjustment to net income, was $1,917,218 for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 as compared to $3,545,636 for the quarter ended September 30, 2011. The decrease of comprehensive income was mainly due to the decrease of our net income.

Gross Profit:

As a result of the foregoing, we generated an operating profit of $10,093,874 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012, a $2,987,113 increase from the comparable period in 2011. Gross profit rate decreased by 18% from 40% to 22%. The volatility in gross profit percentages was mainly due to the change of combinations of revenue from different media and the change of gross profit percentage of each advertising media resource. Gross profit percentage from the portfolio of advertising media resources is as follows:

	The Nine months Ended September 30,
	2012	2011	Variance
TV	19%	30%	-11%
Radio	41%	66%	-25%
Newspaper and magazine	19%	29%	-10%
Exhibition and events	41%	40%	-1%
Elevator door display	68%	54%	14%
Outdoor billboard	38%	14%	24%
Internet	29%	41%	-12%

Gross profit percentage for TV decreased mainly due to the increased business competition in this industry. The advertisement coverage resource is stable since our vendors are stable. However, there are increasing advertising agents like us coming into the business. We have to pay more to purchase the coverage right compared to previous period. The gross profit percentage from radio and newspaper and magazine decreased compared to the same period last year due to the fact that we had less revenue generated from these two resources and those revenue sources in last year had a relatively high margin. The gross margin of elevator door display increased mainly because the Company decreased its businesses with lower margin, which was consistent with the decreased revenue in this section. Gross margin from outdoor billboard and internet increased due to the increase of revenue, when certain cost associated with the service was fixed.

Since sales from TV to total sales increased from 56% to 88%, however, gross margin percentage for sales from TV decreased by 11%, the overall gross profit decreased by 18%.

Operating Expenses:

Operating expenses, including selling expenses and general and administrative expenses, were $2,224,070 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 as compared to $859,678 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011, an increase of $1,364,392. The increase of these major expenses was mainly due to our expansion of business and increased public listing fees that incurred after the reverse merger in July, 2011.

The primary changes in the operating expense include the following:

- Payroll and related expense increased by approximately $818,000, which was due to the expansion of our business that required more administrative and sales staff from 2011 to 2012. The increase in payroll was in proportion to the increase of net sales.

- Other expenses, including office, hospitality and other miscellaneous expenses, increased by approximately $366,000 due to the expansion of our business and operation.

Income Taxes:

Our income taxes were $2,058,483 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012, comparing to $1,600,671 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011, an increase of $457,812. Such increase was due to the increased income before taxes from operations.

Net Income:

We reported net income of $6,205,303 and $4,791,282 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Basic and diluted earnings per common share were identical for nine months ended September 30, 2011, which were $ 0.13. For the nine months ended September 30, 2012, basic and diluted earnings per share were $0.13.

Comprehensive income:

Comprehensive income, which adds the currency adjustment to net income, was $6,251,118 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 as compared to $5,064,159 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011. The increase of comprehensive income was mainly due to an increase of our net income.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We fund our working capital needs from operations, advance payments from customers, bank borrowings, and capital from shareholders. Our working capital requirements are influenced by the level of our operations, the numerical and dollar volume of our sales contracts, the progress of our contract execution, and the timing of accounts receivable collections.

Based on our current operating plan, we believe that our existing resources, including cash generated from operations as well as the bank loans, will be sufficient to meet our working capital requirements for our current operations over the next twelve months. In order to fully implement our business plan and continue our growth, however, we will require additional capital either from our shareholders or from outside sources.

As of September 30, 2012, we had cash and cash equivalents of $2,831,580. Our current assets were $37,773,246 and our current liabilities were $16,771,453 as of September 30, 2012, which resulted in a current ratio of approximately 2.25:1.

The following table sets forth a summary of our cash flows for the periods indicated:

	For the Nine months Ended
	September 30,
	2012	2011
Cash flows by operating activities	(2,919,573)	286,167
Cash flows by investing activities	(254,773)	173,189
Cash flows by financing activities	2,457,060	1,070,841

Net cash by operating activities decreased by $3,205,740 for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 compared to the net cash provided by operating activities of $286,167 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011. The decrease was mainly due to the decrease of advance from customers.

Net cash used in investing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $254,773 as compared to cash provided by investing activities of $173,189. The decreased net cash by investing activities in 2012 was mainly due to the increased cash outflow to related parties of $365,887.

Net cash provided by financing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $2,457,060 as compared to cash provided by investing activities of $1,070,841. The increased net cash provided by financing activities in 2012 was mainly due to the increased cash proceeds from short term bank loan for $2,060,760 and increased additional capital contribution from shareholders for $257,499, offsetting by the decreased proceeds from issuance of stock of $615,000.

Accounts Receivable, and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts.

Substantial portions of our business operations are conducted in the People's Republic of China. During the normal course of business, we extend unsecured credit to our customers. Our standard collection term is three to nine months. We review our accounts receivable based on the customers' financial condition and their prior payment history to determine if the allowance for doubtful accounts is adequate. The Company reserves 5% of accounts receivable balances that have been outstanding for more than nine months and less than one year, 20% of accounts receivable balances that have been outstanding for more than one year and less than two years, and 100% of accounts receivable balances that have been outstanding for more than two years. The collection of accounts receivable will substantially increase our liquidity and we will maintain the current level of accounts receivable balance in the near future. As of September 30, 2012, there was $11.1 million of accounts receivable that were aged more than 90 days.

Advance payments

The Company is required to make payments to a number of media companies to acquire exclusive contracts for advertising coverage before the contract is signed, including Hunan radio and television advertising company, Golden Eagle 955 Radio Station, Hunan People's Radio Station-Traffic channel, Changsha TV News channel, Voices Online Auto Channel. The advance payments represent security deposit of 5-10% of the contract price and payments for the rights before the advertisement is released. It is non-refundable. When the contract was signed, the advance payment became advertising right in nature and when it was executed and advertisement is released, the assets would be amortized as cost of sales.

The contractual term for these exclusive coverage rights includes:

1. The time for the advertisement to release (for example, Monday to Friday, naming rights for entertainment show, in the year of 2012)
2. The media on which the advertisements would be released (for example: Hunan TV)
3. The content of the advertisements (For example: Dr Bai Cosmetics)
4. The total agreed coverage rights fee (for example: 8.5 million RMB)
5. And the deposit required (5%)

The recoverability of the advance payments is highly dependent on our sales of the advertising coverage to our customers. Historically, the company has not experienced any material losses in advance payments since, as required, the Company needs to disclose the content and objects of the advertisement before signing the contract and usually the Company obtains advertising releasing intent with customers before it acquires advertising coverage right from media.

With the expansion of our business, we expect that the advance payments to media will increase when we buy more advertising coverage on certain media.

As of September 30, 2012, the advance payments to our major vendors include:

	Amount
Hunan radio and television advertising company	11,225,137

Golden Eagle 955 Radio Station
Changsha Haizhongjin Culture Co

995,430
2,290,180

Advances from customers

Advances from customers represent cash received in advance from customers according to the contracts for advertising service fees and advertisement production.

The customer is required to make an initial deposit amounting to 5% of the contract amount. The deposit is recorded as an advance payment and is recognized as revenue when the contractual services are provided or when the advertisement is released on the designated media.

The advances from customers are usually not refundable to the customers.

Income tax liabilities

The Company's Chinese subsidiaries are governed by the Income Tax Law of the PRC and are subject to a statutory income tax rate of 25%. The subsidiaries are accruing the income tax expense but have not paid any since 2009. The Company is being propositioned by local governments of several counties in Changsha that if the Company could relocate its registration address to those counties, the Company would be granted favorable tax treatments. We have not paid any of the accrued tax liability since we are still in the process of selecting the location. When we reach a final decision, we will use our working capital to make tax payments, which can significantly impact our liquidity since all income tax liability needs to be paid off. We expect to make our decision by the end of 2012 and all tax payments will be made accordingly.

Loan Facility

Loan payable of $791,500 to Changsha Bank has a one-year term from September 27, 2012 to September 26, 2013 at a fixed interest rate of 7.8% per year. On September 6, 2012, the Company obtained a loan $1,266,400 from Bank of Changsha, due on September 5, 2013 with annual fixed interest rate of 7.56%. This loan has been insured by an unrelated company, Hunan Zhongda Surety Investment for Small to Mid-size Enterprise, Ltd.

Loans receivable from unrelated parties

Loans receivable from unrelated parties consist of various cash advances to unrelated companies and individuals with which the Company has business relationships. Loans to outside parties are reviewed periodically for impairment. The Company considers the assets to be impaired if the collectability of the balances becomes doubtful.

Off -Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Management's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations are based upon our consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Our financial statements reflect the selection and application of accounting policies which require management to make significant estimates and judgments. See Note 2 to our consolidated financial statements, Basis of Presentation and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies. We believe that the following paragraphs reflect the more critical accounting policies that currently affect our financial condition and results of operations:

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include reserves for accounts receivable and income taxes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives its revenues primarily from designing, producing and distributing advertisements. Revenue is recognized when all of the following criteria are satisfied: (a) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; (b) the price is fixed or determinable; (c) collectability is reasonably assured; and (d) services have been performed. Any payments received prior to the completion of these recognition criteria are deferred. Revenue from television advertisement is recognized as the commercials are aired. Revenue from newspapers is recognized when the advertisements are published.

Cash Equivalents

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 95, Statement of Cash Flows, codified in ASC Topic 230, the Company considers all highly liquid instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents .

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded net of allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts equal to the estimated uncollectible amounts. Periodically, management assesses customer credit history and relationships as well as performs accounts receivable aging analysis to determine whether certain balances are deemed uncollectible. The Company reserves 5% of accounts receivable balances outstanding for more than nine months and less than one year, 20% of accounts receivable balances outstanding for more than one year and less than two years, and 100% of accounts receivable balances outstanding for more than two years.

Advance Payments

The Company periodically makes advance payments to a number of media companies to acquire exclusive contracts for advertising coverage. The advance payments generally represent 5-10% of the contracted price. When an advertisement is completed, related advance payments are debited to cost of sales according to the matching principle.

Loans Receivable

Loans receivable consist of various cash advances to unrelated companies and individuals with which the Company has business relationships. The allowance for loan losses reflects management's best estimate of probable losses determined principally on the basis of historical experience. All accounts or portions thereof deemed to be uncollectible or to require an excessive collection cost are written off to the allowance for losses.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is calculated based on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Vehicles	5 to 8 years
Office equipment and furniture	3 to 5 years
Building and improvements	10 to 20 years

Cost of repairs and maintenance is expensed as incurred. Gain or loss on disposal of property and equipment, if any, is recognized in the consolidated statements of operations.
