Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

We have previously reported that through our Armadillo Mining Corporation subsidiary, we entered into an Option Agreement, dated January 20, 2011 to acquire 50% of the Colombian metallurgical coal company, C.I. Hunza Coal Ltda. (“Hunza”). Hunza owns and operates a mine located in the Boyaca province of Colombia. The option agreement provided that we would make exclusivity payments in stages in order to maintain our option rights and would be required to invest funds in mine exploration and production over a 12 month period in order to acquire the 50% interest in Hunza.

On February 3, we executed and delivered an amendment to the option agreement which, among other items, provides that:

- In order to exercise our option to acquire 50% of Hunza, we will be required to complete the payment of exclusivity fees on or before February 29, 2012, including issuing a $1.2 million note convertible into 4,000,000 shares of our common stock.
- After exercise of the option, we will be obligated to fund an additional $3.0 million upon the earlier of May 1, 2013 or 90 days after the completion of the technical resources report which will be commissioned by Hunza.
- We will pledge one half of our interest in Hunza to secure any payment default by us, which default would result in a reduction of our interest to 25% of Hunza.
