The difference between general and administrative expenses in the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017 was due to corporate related expenses incurred by Allergan plc. Movements in equity were due to historical differences in the results of operations of the companies and differences in equity awards.

As of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, Warner Chilcott Limited had $5.8 billion in Receivables from the Parents. As of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, Warner Chilcott Limited had $4.0 billion in Non-current Receivables from the Parents. These receivables related to intercompany loans between Allergan plc and subsidiaries of Warner Chilcott Limited. These loans are interest-bearing loans with varying term dates and cause a difference in interest income between the two entities. Total interest income recognized during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 was $65.5 million and $118.5 million, respectively. Total interest income recognized during the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 was $20.6 million and $46.7 million, respectively.

NOTE 3 — Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are interim updates to certain of the policies described in “Note 4” of the notes to the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017 included in the Annual Report.

Implementation of New Guidance

On January 1, 2018, we adopted Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" (“Topic 606”) using the modified retrospective method applied to those contracts which were not completed as of January 1, 2018. Results for reporting periods beginning after January 1, 2018 are presented under Topic 606, while prior period amounts are not adjusted and continue to be reported in accordance with our historical accounting practices. The impact to revenues for the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 was not significant as a result of the adoption. The adoption of this guidance does not have a material impact on the Company’s financial position or results of operations as the Company’s sales primarily are governed by standard bill and ship terms of pharmaceutical products to customers.

The Company applies the practical expedient as defined in Topic 606 to recognize the incremental costs of obtaining contracts as an expense when incurred if the amortization period of the assets that the Company otherwise would have recognized is one year or less. These costs which are included in selling, general, and administrative expenses are consistent with the accounting prior to the adoption of Topic 606. The Company also elected to use the practical expedient to not adjust the promised amount of consideration for the effects of the time value of money for contracts in which the anticipated period between when the Company transfers the goods or services to the customer and when the customer pays is equal to one year or less.

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASU No. 2016-01, which now requires equity securities (including other ownership interests, such as partnerships, unincorporated joint ventures, and limited liability companies) to be measured at fair value with changes in the fair value recognized through net income. Under the previous guidance, changes in the fair value of equity securities were recognized through other comprehensive income.

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASU No. 2016-16, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Intra-Entity Transfers of Assets Other Than Inventory. Previously, GAAP prohibited the recognition of current and deferred income taxes for an intra-entity asset transfer until the asset has been sold to an outside party. This prohibition on recognition was an exception to the principle of comprehensive recognition of current and deferred income taxes in GAAP. The amendment to the guidance eliminated the exception for an intra-entity transfer of an asset other than inventory and required an entity to recognize the income tax consequences when the transfer occurs.

The following represents the impact on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheet as a result of the adoption on January 1, 2018 of these accounting pronouncements ($ in millions):

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASU 2016-15, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230) Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments. This standard amends and adjusts how cash receipts and cash payments are presented and classified in the statement of cash flows. As a result of the guidance, the Company retrospectively applied the standard which resulted in a reclassification of debt extinguishment costs from cash flows from operating activities to cash flows from financing activities. As a result of the guidance cash flows from operating activities increased by $170.5 million and cash flows from financing activities decreased by $170.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2017. Cash flows from operating activities will increase by $205.6 million and cash flows from financing activities will decrease by $205.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2017.

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted ASU No. 2017-07, Compensation — Retirement Benefits (Topic 715): Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Cost and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost. This update requires that an employer disaggregate the service cost component from the other components of net periodic benefit cost. Upon adoption, the Company recorded other components of the net periodic benefit cost with “other income / (expense), net.”

Revenue Recognition

General

Topic 606 provides that revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods under a contract is transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration we expect to be entitled to in exchange for those goods as specified in the underlying terms with the customer. The Company warrants products against defects and for specific quality standards, permitting the return of products under certain circumstances. Product sales are recorded net of all sales-related deductions including, but not limited to: chargebacks, trade discounts, commercial and government rebates, customer loyalty programs fee-for-service arrangements with certain distributors, returns, and other allowances which we refer to in the aggregate as sales returns and allowances (“SRA”).

The Company's performance obligations are primarily achieved when control of the products is transferred to the customer. Transfer of control is based on contractual performance obligations, but typically occurs upon receipt of the goods by the customer.

Prior to the achievement of performance obligations, shipping and handling costs associated with outbound freight for a product to be transferred to a customer are accounted for as a fulfillment cost and are included in selling and marketing expenses.

Other revenues earned are mainly comprised of royalty income from licensing of intellectual property. Royalty income is recognized when the licensee's subsequent sale occurs.

Refer to "NOTE 8 –Reportable Segments" for our revenues disaggregated by product and segment and our revenues disaggregated by geography for our international segment. We believe this level of disaggregation best depicts how the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of our revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

Significant Payment Terms

A contract with a customer states the final terms of the sale, including the description, quantity, and price of each product purchased. The Company's payment terms vary by the type and location of the customer and the products offered. A customer agrees to a stated rate and price in the contract and given that most of the products sold contain variable consideration, the amount of revenue recognized incorporates adjustments for SRAs as appropriate.

Determining the Transaction Price

The Company offers discounts and rebates to certain customers who participate in various programs that are referred to as SRA allowances as described further below in the section "Provisions for SRAs". Such discounting and rebating activity is included as part of the Company's estimate of the transaction price and is accounted for as a reduction to gross sales. At time of sale, the Company records the related SRA adjustments to sales as described further below in the section "Provisions for SRAs". The Company performs a level of validation each period to assess the adequacy of the liability or contra receivable recorded to reflect actual activity and will adjust the reserve balances accordingly.

Provisions for SRAs

As is customary in the pharmaceutical industry, certain customers may receive cash-based incentives or credits, which are variable consideration accounted for as SRAs. The Company estimates SRA amounts based on the expected amount to be provided to customers, which reduces the revenues recognized. The Company believes that there will not be significant changes to our estimates of variable consideration. The Company uses a variety of methods to assess the adequacy of the SRA reserves to ensure that our financial statements are fairly stated. These provisions are estimated based on historical payment experience, the historical relationship of the deductions to gross product revenues, government regulations, estimated utilization or redemption rates, estimated customer inventory levels and current contract sales terms. The estimation process used to determine our SRA provisions has been applied on a consistent basis and no material revenue adjustments have been necessary to increase or decrease our reserves for SRA as a result of a significant change in underlying estimates.

Chargebacks — A chargeback represents an amount payable in the future to a wholesaler for the difference between the invoice price paid by such wholesaler customer for a particular product and the negotiated contract price that the wholesaler's customer pays for that product. The chargeback provision and related reserve varies with changes in product mix, changes in customer pricing and changes to estimated wholesaler inventories. The provision for chargebacks also takes into account an estimate of the expected wholesaler sell-through levels to indirect customers at certain contract prices. The Company validates the chargeback accrual quarterly through a review of the inventory reports obtained from our largest wholesale customers. This customer inventory information is used to verify the estimated liability for future chargeback claims based on historical chargeback and contract rates. These large wholesalers represent the vast majority of the recipients of the Company's chargeback credits. We continually monitor current pricing trends and wholesaler inventory levels to ensure the contra-receivable for future chargebacks is fairly stated.

Rebates — Rebates include volume related incentives to direct and indirect customers, third-party managed care and Medicare Part D rebates, Medicaid rebates and other government rebates. Rebates are accrued based on an estimate of claims to be paid for product sold into trade by the Company. Volume rebates are generally contractually offered to customers as an incentive to use the Company's products and to encourage greater product sales. These rebate programs include contracted rebates based on customers' purchases made during an applicable monthly, quarterly or annual period. The provision for third-party rebates is estimated based on our customers' contracted rebate programs and the Company's historical experience of rebates paid. Any significant changes to our customer rebate programs are considered in establishing the provision for rebates. The provisions for government rebates are based, in part, upon historical experience of claims submitted by the various states and authorities, contractual terms and government regulations. We monitor legislative changes to determine what impact such legislation may have on our provision.

Cash Discounts — Cash discounts are provided to customers that pay within a specific time period. The provision for cash discounts is estimated based upon invoice billings and historical customer payment experience. The Company's experience of payment history is fairly consistent and most customer payments qualify for a cash discount.

Returns and Other Allowances — The Company's provision for returns and other allowances include returns, promotional allowances and loyalty cards.

Consistent with industry practice, the Company maintains a returns policy that allows customers to return product for a credit. In accordance with the Company's policy, credits for customer returns of products are applied against outstanding account activity or are settled in cash. Product exchanges are generally not permitted. Customer returns of product are generally not resalable. The Company's estimate of the provision for returns is based upon historical experience and current trends of actual customer returns. Additionally, we consider other factors when estimating the current period returns provision, including levels of inventory in the distribution channel, as well as significant market changes which may impact future expected returns.

Promotional allowances are credits with no discernable benefit offered to Allergan that are issued in connection with a product launch or as an incentive for customers to carry our product. The Company establishes a reserve for promotional allowances based upon contractual terms.

Loyalty cards allow end-user patients a discount per prescription and are accrued based on historical experience, contract terms and the volume of product and cards in the distribution channel.

Collectability Assessment

At the time of contract inception or customer account set-up, the Company performs a collectability assessment on the creditworthiness of such customer. The Company assesses the probability that the Company will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the goods sold. In evaluating collectability, the Company considers the customer's ability and intention to pay consideration when it is due. On a recurring basis, the Company estimates the amount of uncollectible receivables to reflect allowances for doubtful accounts.

Practical Expedients and Exemptions

The Company generally expenses sales commissions when incurred because the amortization period is one year or less. These costs are recorded within selling and marketing expenses.

The Company does not adjust the promised amount of consideration for the effects of the time value of money for contracts in which the anticipated period between when the Company transfers the goods or services to the customer and when the customer pays is equal to one year or less.

The Company has chosen not to elect the remaining practical expedients.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets with Indefinite Lives

General

The Company tests goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives for impairment annually in the second quarter. Additionally, the Company may perform interim tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that could potentially reduce the fair value of a reporting unit or indefinite lived intangible asset below its carrying amount. The carrying value of each reporting unit is determined by assigning the assets and liabilities, including the existing goodwill and intangible assets, to those reporting units.

The Company tests goodwill for impairment by either performing a qualitative evaluation or a quantitative test. The qualitative evaluation is an assessment of factors, including Reporting Unit specific operating results as well as industry, market and general economic conditions, to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair values of a Reporting Unit is less than its carrying amount, including goodwill. The Company may elect to bypass this qualitative assessment for some or all of its Reporting Units and perform a quantitative test.

Goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying amount of the net assets exceeds the fair value of the reporting unit. Impairment, if any, would be recorded in operating income / (loss) and this could result in a material impact to net income / (loss) and income / (loss) per share.

Prior to Allergan's annual impairment test, the Company adopted the new guidance under Accounting Standard Update No. 2017-04, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Accounting for Goodwill Impairment which eliminated step 2 of the goodwill impairment test, which required a hypothetical purchase price allocation to measure goodwill impairment loss as of January 1, 2018. A goodwill impairment loss under the new guidance is instead measured using a single step test based on the amount by which a reporting unit's carrying amount exceeds its fair value, not to exceed the carrying amount of goodwill. Based on the Company's impairment test, no impairments were noted.

Acquired in-process research and development (“IPR&D”) intangible assets represent the value assigned to research and development projects acquired in a business combination that, as of the date acquired, represent the right to develop, use, sell and/or offer for sale a product or other intellectual property that has not been completed or approved. The IPR&D intangible assets are subject to impairment testing until completion or abandonment of each project. Upon abandonment, the assets are impaired if there is no future alternative use or ability to sell the asset. Impairment testing requires the development of significant estimates and assumptions involving the determination of estimated net cash flows for each year for each project or product (including net revenues, cost of sales, research and development (“R&D”) costs, selling and marketing costs and other costs which may be allocated), determination of the appropriate discount rate in order to measure the risk inherent in each future cash flow stream, assessment of each asset's life cycle, potential regulatory and commercial success risks, and competitive trends impacting the asset and each cash flow stream as well as other factors. The major risks and uncertainties associated with the timely and successful completion of IPR&D projects include legal risk, market risk and regulatory risk. Changes in our assumptions could result in future impairment charges. No assurances can be given that the underlying assumptions used to prepare the discounted cash flow analysis will not change or the timely completion of each project and commercial success will occur. For these and other reasons, actual results may vary significantly from estimated results.

Upon successful completion of each project and approval of a product, we will make a separate determination of the useful life of the intangible asset, transfer the amount to currently marketed products (“CMP”) and amortization expense will be recorded over the estimated useful life.

Annual Testing

The Company performed its annual goodwill impairment test during the second quarter of 2018 by evaluating its five Reporting Units. In performing this test, the Company utilized long-term growth rates for its Reporting Units ranging from 1.0% to 2.0% in its estimation of fair value and discount rates ranging from 8.5% to 10.0%, which is an increase versus the prior year discount rates of 7.5% to 8.5% to reflect changes in market conditions. The assumptions used in evaluating goodwill for impairment are subject to change and are tracked against historical results by management. Changes in the key assumptions by management can change the results of testing.

Of the Reporting Units tested, the Company’s US Eye Care Reporting Unit, which is a component of its US Specialized Therapeutics Segment and has an allocated goodwill balance of $9,824.8 million and its General Medicine Reporting Unit are the most sensitive to a change in future valuation assumptions. These Reporting Units had the lowest level of headroom. While management believes the assumptions used are reasonable and commensurate with the views of a market participant, changes in key assumptions for these Reporting Units, including increasing the discount rate, lowering revenue forecasts, lowering the operating margin or lowering long-term growth rate, could result in a future impairment.

The Company performed its annual IPR&D impairment test in the second quarter of 2018. Based on events occurring or decisions made within the quarter ended June 30, 2018, the Company recorded the following impairments:

- The Company impaired an eye care project obtained as part of the acquisition of Allergan, Inc. (the “Allergan Acquisition”) by $164.0 million as a result of changes in launch plans based on clinical results.
- The Company impaired a project obtained as part of the acquisition of Vitae Pharmaceuticals, Inc. by $40.0 million due to a delay in clinical studies and anticipated approval date.
- The Company impaired a medical dermatology project obtained as part of the Allergan Acquisition by $27.0 million due to a delay in clinical studies and anticipated approval date.
- The Company impaired an eye care project obtained as part of the Allergan Acquisition by $20.0 million as the result of a strategic decision to no longer pursue approval internationally.

Earnings Per Share (“EPS”)

The Company computes EPS in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 260, “Earnings Per Share” (“ASC 260”) and related guidance, which requires two calculations of EPS to be disclosed: basic and diluted. Basic EPS is computed by dividing net (loss) by the weighted average ordinary shares outstanding during a period. Diluted EPS is based on the treasury stock method and includes the effect from potential issuance of ordinary shares, such as shares issuable pursuant to the exercise of stock options and restricted stock units. Diluted EPS also includes the impact of ordinary share equivalents issued (or issuable in 2017) upon the mandatory conversion of the Company’s preferred shares which occurred on March 1, 2018. Ordinary share equivalents have been excluded where their inclusion would be anti-dilutive to continuing operations.

A reconciliation of the numerators and denominators of basic and diluted EPS consisted of the following ($ in millions, except per share amounts):

	Three Months Ended June 30, 2018		Six Months Ended June 30, 2017
Net (loss):
Net (loss) attributable to ordinary shareholders excluding income from discontinued operations, net of tax	$(472.5)	$(787.1)	$(805.0)	$(3,418.8)

Net (loss) per share	$(1.39)	$(2.37)	$(2.39)	$(10.23)

Stock awards to purchase 2.2 million ordinary shares for the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 were outstanding, but not included in the computation of diluted EPS, because the awards were anti-dilutive. Stock awards to purchase 3.9 million and 4.2 million ordinary shares for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, respectively, were outstanding, but not included in the computation of diluted EPS, because the awards were anti-dilutive.

The weighted average impact of ordinary share equivalents of 5.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2018, which would result from the mandatory conversion of the Company's preferred shares at the beginning of the period were not included in the calculation of diluted EPS as their impact would be anti-dilutive. The Company's preferred shares were converted to ordinary shares on March 1, 2018. The weighted average impact of ordinary share equivalents of 17.6 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, which were anticipated to result from the mandatory conversion of the Company's preferred shares were not included in the calculation of diluted EPS as their impact would be anti-dilutive.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued ASU No. 2016-02, which states that a lessee should recognize the assets and liabilities that arise from leases. This update is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within those fiscal years. While the Company has not yet completed its assessment, the adoption of the guidance is anticipated to have a material impact on the Company’s financial position.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. The ASU is intended to improve financial reporting by requiring timelier recording of credit losses on loans and other financial instruments held by financial institutions and other organizations. The ASU requires the measurement of all expected credit losses for financial assets including trade receivables held at the reporting date based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Financial institutions and other organizations will now use forward-looking information to better inform their credit loss estimates. The ASU is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2019. Early application will be permitted for all organizations for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2018. The Company is evaluating the impact, if any, that this pronouncement will have on our financial position and results of operations.

In March 2017, The FASB issued ASU No. 2017-08, Receivables—Nonrefundable Fees and Other Costs (Subtopic 310-20), Premium Amortization on Purchased Callable Debt Securities. The ASU shortens the amortization period for certain callable debt securities held at a premium and requires the premium to be amortized to the earliest call date, but does not require an accounting change for securities held at a discount; the discount continues to be amortized to maturity. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within those annual periods. Entities are required to apply the amendments on a modified retrospective basis through a cumulative-effect adjustment directly to retained earnings as of the beginning of the period of adoption. The entity is required to provide disclosures about a change in accounting principle in the period of adoption. The Company is evaluating the impact these amendments will have on our financial position and results of operations.

In August 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-12, Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815) — Targeted Improvements to Accounting for Hedging Activities. The amendments to the guidance will better align an entity’s risk management activities and financial reporting for hedging relationships through changes to both the designation and measurement guidance for qualifying hedging relationships and the presentation of hedge results. To meet that objective, the amendments expand and refine hedge accounting for both nonfinancial and financial risk components and align the recognition and presentation of the effects of the hedging instrument and the hedged item in the financial statements. The amendments also make certain targeted improvements to simplify the application of hedge accounting guidance and ease the administrative burden of hedge documentation requirements and assessing hedge effectiveness. The amendments are effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2018. Early adoption is permitted in any interim period or fiscal years before the effective date of the amendments.

NOTE 7 — Share-Based Compensation

The Company recognizes compensation expense for all share-based compensation awards made to employees and directors based on the fair value of the awards on the date of grant.

The Company grants awards with the following features:

- Time-based restricted stock and restricted stock unit awards (including, in certain foreign jurisdictions, cash-settled restricted stock unit awards, which are recorded as a liability);
- Performance-based restricted stock unit awards measured against performance-based targets defined by the Company, including, but not limited to, total shareholder return metrics and R&D milestones, as defined by the Company; and
- Non-qualified options to purchase outstanding shares.

The Company recognizes share-based compensation expense for granted awards over the applicable vesting period.

Cash-settled performance-based awards are recorded as a liability. These cash-settled performance-based awards are measured against pre-established total shareholder returns metrics.

Fair Value Assumptions

All restricted stock and restricted stock units (whether time-based or performance-based) are granted and expensed using the fair value per share on the applicable grant date, over the applicable vesting period. Non-qualified options to purchase ordinary shares are granted to employees at exercise prices per share equal to the closing market price per share on the date of grant. The fair value of non-qualified options is determined on the applicable grant dates using the Black-Scholes method of valuation and that amount is recognized as an expense over the vesting period. Using the Black-Scholes valuation model, the fair value of options is based on the following assumptions:

	2018	2017
	Grants	Grants
Dividend yield	1.8 - 1.9%	1.2%

Edgar Filing: Allergan plc - Form 10-Q

Cost of sales within segment contribution includes standard production and packaging costs for the products we manufacture, third party acquisition costs for products manufactured by others, profit-sharing or royalty payments for products sold pursuant to licensing agreements and finished goods inventory reserve charges. Selling and marketing expenses consist mainly of personnel-related costs, product promotion costs, distribution costs, professional service costs, insurance, depreciation and travel costs.

General and administrative expenses consist mainly of personnel-related costs, facilities costs, transaction costs, insurance, depreciation, litigation costs and professional services costs which are general in nature and attributable to the segment.

Refer to the “Annual Testing” section in “NOTE 3 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies” for the IPR&D impairments that the Company recorded in the three months ended June 30, 2018.

Additionally the Company impaired its RAR-related orphan receptor gamma (“RORyt”) IPR&D project obtained as part of the acquisition of Vitae Pharmaceuticals, Inc. by $522.0 million as a result of negative clinical data related to the oral psoriasis indication received in March 2018.

Assuming no additions, disposals or adjustments are made to the carrying values and/or useful lives of the intangible assets, annual amortization expense on product rights and other related intangibles as of June 30, 2018 over the remainder of 2018 and each of the next five years is estimated to be as follows ($ in millions):

Amortization
	Expense
2018 remaining	$ 3,070.5
2019	$ 5,988.2
2020	$ 5,684.5
2021	$ 4,742.6
2022	$ 4,382.1
2023	$ 3,968.8

The above amortization expense is an estimate. Actual amounts may change from such estimated amounts due to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, additional intangible asset acquisitions, potential impairments, accelerated amortization or other events. In addition, the Company has certain currently marketed products for which operating contribution performance has been below that which was originally assumed in the products' initial valuations, and certain IPR&D projects which are subject to delays in timing or other events which may negatively impact the asset's value. The Company, on a quarterly basis, monitors the related intangible assets for these products for potential impairments. It is reasonably possible that impairments may occur in future periods, which may have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial position.

Fair market value in the table above is determined in accordance with Fair Value Leveling (defined below) under Level 2 based upon quoted prices for similar items in active markets.

Companies are required to use a fair value hierarchy as defined in ASC Topic 820 “Fair Value Measurement,” (“ASC 820”) which maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value (“Fair Value Leveling”). There are three levels of inputs used to measure fair value with Level 1 having the highest priority and Level 3 having the lowest:

Level 1 — Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity. The Level 3 assets are those whose values are determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques with significant unobservable inputs, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant judgment or estimation.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants.

The following represents the significant activity during the six months ended June 30, 2018 to the Company’s total indebtedness:

- The Company borrowed $700.0 million, and subsequently repaid $700.0 million, under its revolving credit facility to fund, in part, the repurchase of the Company’s ordinary shares;
- The Company repurchased and retired $455.9 million of senior notes at face value as a result of open market redemptions;
- The Company repaid scheduled maturities on senior notes of $3,750.0 million; and
- The Company prepaid $459.0 million of indebtedness under the Company’s margin loan.

NOTE 14 — Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2018 was 47.7%, compared to 25.4% for the six months ended June 30, 2017. The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2018 was favorably impacted by income earned in jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the Irish statutory rate and U.S. losses tax benefited at rates greater than the Irish statutory rate. This was offset by the additional U.S. tax on the earnings of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries which are considered Global Intangible Low Taxed Income ("GILTI") and the tax impact of amortization of intangible assets at rates less than the Irish statutory rate. Additionally, the tax benefit for the six months ended June 30, 2018 included tax benefits of $421.9 million related to the restructuring of an acquired business, $231.0 million related to the impairment of certain intangible assets and $79.8 million related to excess tax over book basis in a U.S. subsidiary expected to reverse in the foreseeable future. This was partially offset by tax detriments of $21.2 million for the gain on sale of investments and $25.9 million related to a change in the applicable tax rate on certain temporary differences.

The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was favorably impacted by income earned in jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the Irish statutory rate and U.S. losses tax benefited at rates greater than the Irish statutory rate. This was offset by a pre-tax charge for the impairment of the Company's investment in Teva Shares of $1,978.0 million and the tax impact of amortization of intangible assets, both at rates less than the Irish statutory rate. Additionally, the tax benefit for the six months ended June 30, 2017 included tax benefits of $288.1 million related to the impairment of certain intangible assets and $69.4 million related to the integration of an acquired business and debt restructuring. During the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company determined that a temporary difference related to excess tax over book basis in a U.S. subsidiary will reverse in the foreseeable future and recorded a corresponding tax benefit of $179.6 million.

U.S. Tax Reform

For the year ended December 31, 2017, the income tax effects of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("TCJA") were accounted for on a provisional basis pursuant to the guidance in Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") 118. In the fourth quarter of 2017, the Company recorded provisional deferred tax benefits of $2,340.4 million related to the change in Federal Corporate tax rates applicable to our deferred tax liabilities and $1,260.0 million related to the net reversal of prior amounts accrued for taxes on unremitted earnings of certain subsidiaries. The accounting for these amounts will be finalized during the measurement period upon the completion of the 2017 tax returns. The Company also recorded a provisional income tax expense of $728.1 million related to the tax on the deemed repatriation of deferred foreign earnings (“toll charge”) which is payable over eight years. The final toll charge is dependent on amounts that cannot be determined until the 2018 financial results of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries are completed.

The provisional estimates related to the TCJA recorded in the 2017 consolidated financial statements were based on all available information and the Company’s initial analysis and current interpretation of the legislation under the TCJA as of the time of the filing of the Company’s Form 10-K. These estimates represented amounts for which our accounting was incomplete but a reasonable estimate could be determined. Given the complexity of the TCJA, anticipated guidance from the U.S. Treasury and Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) and the potential for additional guidance from the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) or the FASB, our accounting continues to be incomplete, and therefore the Company has not recorded any adjustments to these provisional estimates in the June 30, 2018 consolidated financial statements. Guidance from the SEC provides for a measurement period of up to one year from the enactment date of the TCJA for which adjustments to provisional amounts may be recorded as a component of tax expense or benefit in the period the adjustment is determined.

On August 1, 2018, the U.S. Treasury released proposed regulations regarding the one-time transition tax (i.e. toll charge) on the pre-2018 earnings of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries. The Company is evaluating the proposed regulations as part of its overall analysis of the TCJA's impact pursuant to the guidance in SAB 118.

Due to the complexity of the new GILTI tax rules, we continue to evaluate this provision of the TCJA and the application of ASC-740 and are considering if deferred tax amounts should be recorded. Our accounting policies depend, in part, on analyzing our global income to determine whether we expect material tax liabilities resulting from the application of this provision and, if so, whether and when to record related current and deferred income taxes and whether such amounts can be reasonably estimated. Anticipated further guidance from the IRS may also clarify the manner in which the GILTI tax is computed. For these reasons, we are continuing to provisionally treat the GILTI tax as a period cost and have not made a final policy election on whether to record deferred taxes for this provision.

Tax Audits

The Company conducts business globally and, as a result, it files U.S. federal, state and foreign tax returns. The Company strives to resolve open matters with each tax authority at the examination level and could reach agreement with a tax authority at any time. While the Company has accrued for amounts it believes are in accordance with the accounting standard, the final outcome with a tax authority may result in a tax liability that is more or less than that reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Furthermore, the Company may later decide to challenge any assessments, if made, and may exercise its right to appeal. The uncertain tax positions are reviewed quarterly and adjusted as events occur that affect potential liabilities for additional taxes, such as lapsing of applicable statutes of limitations, proposed assessments by tax authorities, negotiations with tax authorities, identification of new issues and issuance of new legislation, regulations or case law.

The Company has several concurrent audits open and pending with the IRS as set forth below:

On July 26, 2018, the Company announced that its Board of Directors approved a new $2.0 billion share repurchase program, which is anticipated to be completed by the end of 2019.

Preferred Shares

In the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, the Company paid $69.6 million and $139.2 million, respectively, of dividends on preferred shares. Each preferred share automatically converted to approximately 3.53 ordinary shares on March 1, 2018, for a total of 17,876,930 ordinary shares.

NOTE 16 — Hedging Activities

The Company's revenue, earnings, cash flows and fair value of its assets and liabilities can be impacted by fluctuations in foreign exchange risks and interest rates, as applicable. The Company manages the impact of foreign exchange risk and interest rate movements through operational means and through the use of various financial instruments, including derivative instruments such as foreign currency derivatives. As of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, the Company had no material outstanding third-party foreign currency instruments.

Internationally, the Company is a net recipient of currencies other than the U.S. dollar and, as such, benefits from a weaker dollar and is adversely affected by a stronger dollar relative to major currencies worldwide. Accordingly, changes in exchange rates, and in particular a strengthening of the U.S. dollar, may negatively affect the Company's consolidated revenues and favorably impact operating expenses in U.S. dollars.

Net Investment Hedge

In the normal course of business, we manage certain foreign exchange risks through a variety of strategies, including hedging. Our hedging strategies include the use of net investment hedges. For net investment hedges, the effective portion of the gains and losses on the instruments arising from the effects of foreign exchange are recorded in the currency translation adjustment component of accumulated other comprehensive income / (loss), consistent with the underlying hedged item. Hedging transactions are limited to an underlying exposure. As a result, any change in the value of our hedging instruments would be substantially offset by an opposite change in the value of the underlying hedged items.

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk in its international operations from foreign currency purchases, net investments in foreign subsidiaries, and foreign currency assets and liabilities created in the normal course of business, including the Euro Denominated Notes. In the six months ended June 30, 2018, we used effective net investment hedges to partially offset the effects of foreign currency on our investments in certain of our foreign subsidiaries. The total notional amount of our instruments designated as net investment hedges was $3.6 billion as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, the impact of the net investment hedges on other comprehensive income was a gain of $197.1 million and $102.0 million, respectively, which offset the impact of the Euro denominated notes. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, the impact of the net investment hedges on other comprehensive income was a loss of $57.2 million.

Marketable securities and investments consist of available-for-sale investments in money market securities, U.S. treasury and agency securities, and equity and debt securities of publicly traded companies for which market prices are readily available. Unrealized gains or losses on marketable securities and investments are recorded in either interest income or other income / (expense) beginning January 1, 2018. The Company's marketable securities and other long-term investments are classified as available-for-sale and are recorded at fair value based on quoted market prices using the specific identification method. These investments are classified as either current or non-current, as appropriate, in the Company's consolidated balance sheets. The Company may sell certain of its marketable securities prior to their stated maturities for strategic reasons including, but not limited to, anticipation of credit deterioration and maturity management.

Contingent Consideration Obligations

The fair value measurement of the contingent consideration obligations is determined using Level 3 inputs and is based on a probability-weighted income approach. The measurement is based upon unobservable inputs supported by little or no market activity, and is based on our own assumptions. Changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration obligations, including accretion, are recorded in our consolidated statements of operations as follows ($ in millions):

	Three Months Ended June 30, 2018		Six Months Ended June 30, 2018
(Income) / expense	2018	2017	2018	2017
Cost of sales	$(128.8)	$(24.8)	$(125.4)	$(60.3)
Research and development	21.7	9.3	23.6	75.5
Total	$(107.1)	$(15.5)	$(101.8)	$15.2

In the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, cost of sales primarily relates to the Company's True Tear product not achieving a milestone event, as well as a corresponding decrease in commercial forecasts.

The table below provides a summary of the changes in fair value, including net transfers in and/or out, of all financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017 ($ in millions):

The Company recognized total restructuring charges of $6.4 million and $24.3 million, respectively, during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018. In December 2017, the Company approved a new restructuring program intended to optimize and restructure its operations while reducing costs and global headcount, in anticipation of loss of exclusivity of several key revenue-generating products in 2018. In the three months ended June 30, 2018, the Company recorded severance and other employee related charges of $6.4 million. In the six months ended June 30, 2018, the Company recorded severance and other employee related charges of $21.6 million, which includes $8.2 million of share based compensation related to this program.

The Company recognized total restructuring charges of $119.0 million and $140.9 million, respectively, during the three and six months ended June 30, 2017. As part of the Company's internal optimization restructuring programs, the Company incurred severance and other restructuring costs relating to the commercial organization of $29.9 million as the Company intended to eliminate approximately 400 positions in the three months ended June 30, 2017. In addition, restructuring charges in the three months ended June 30, 2017 included $26.8 million of severance and restructuring costs related to a then-planned internal reduction of approximately 200 positions within the Company's R&D organization.

NOTE 19 — Commitments & Contingencies

The Company and its affiliates are involved in various disputes, governmental and/or regulatory inspections, inquiries, investigations and proceedings, and litigation matters that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of business. The process of resolving matters through litigation or other means is inherently uncertain and it is possible that an unfavorable resolution of these matters will adversely affect the Company, its results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. The Company's general practice is to expense legal fees as services are rendered in connection with legal matters, and to accrue for liabilities when losses are probable and reasonably estimable.

The Company evaluates, on a quarterly basis, developments in legal proceedings and other matters that could cause an increase or decrease in the amount of the liability that is accrued. As of June 30, 2018, the Company's consolidated balance sheet includes accrued loss contingencies of approximately $80.0 million. As of December 31, 2017, the Company's consolidated balance sheet included accrued loss contingencies of approximately $55.0 million.

The Company's legal proceedings range from cases brought by a single plaintiff to mass tort actions and class actions with thousands of putative class members. These legal proceedings, as well as other matters, involve various aspects of our business and a variety of claims (including, but not limited to, qui tam actions, antitrust, product liability, breach of contract, securities, patent infringement and trade practices), some of which present novel factual allegations and/or unique legal theories. In addition, a number of the matters pending against us are at very early stages of the legal process (which in complex proceedings of the sort faced by us often extend for several years). As a result, some matters have not yet progressed sufficiently through discovery and/or development of important factual information and legal issues to enable us to estimate a range of possible loss. In those proceedings in which plaintiffs do request publicly quantified amounts of relief, the Company does not believe that the quantified amounts are meaningful because they are merely stated jurisdictional limits, exaggerated and/or unsupported by the evidence or applicable burdens of proof.

In matters involving the assertion or defense of the Company's intellectual property, the Company believes it has meritorious claims and intends to vigorously assert or defend the patents or other intellectual property at issue in such litigation. Similarly, in matters where the Company is a defendant, the Company believes it has meritorious defenses and intends to defend itself vigorously. However, the Company can offer no assurances that it will be successful in a litigation or, in the case of patent enforcement matters, that a generic version of the product at issue will not be launched or enjoined. Failing to prevail in a litigation could adversely affect the Company and could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Antitrust Litigation

Asacol® Litigation. Two class action complaints were filed on June 22, 2015, and three more on September 21, 2015, in federal court in Massachusetts on behalf of a putative class of indirect purchasers. Complaints were also filed on behalf of a putative class of direct purchasers of Asacol® making similar allegations to the complaints filed by the indirect purchaser plaintiffs. Those matters have been consolidated with the indirect purchaser cases. In each complaint plaintiffs allege that they paid higher prices for Warner Chilcott's Asacol® HD and Delzicol® products as a result of Warner Chilcott's alleged actions preventing or delaying generic competition in the market for Warner Chilcott's older Asacol® product in violation of U.S. federal antitrust laws and/or state laws. Plaintiffs seek unspecified injunctive relief, treble damages and/or attorneys' fees. The Company has settled the claims brought by the direct purchaser plaintiffs. The court granted the indirect purchaser plaintiffs' motion for class certification. The Company filed a motion for summary judgment seeking dismissal of the indirect purchaser plaintiffs' claims which the court denied on November 9, 2017. Trial was set to begin on January 22, 2018. However, on January 17, 2018, the Court of Appeals for the First Circuit issued an order granting the Company's motion under Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(f) to appeal the district court's decision to certify the proposed class. The appellate court thereafter issued a decision staying the trial in the district court. The appeal was fully briefed on March 26, 2018. Oral argument on the appeal was held on May 8, 2018.

Botox® Litigation. A class action complaint was filed in federal court in California on February 24, 2015, and amended May 29, 2015, alleging unlawful market allocation in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. §1, agreement in restraint of trade in violation of 15 U.S.C. §1 of the Sherman Act, unlawful maintenance of monopoly market power in violation of Section 2 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. §2 of the Sherman Act, violations of California's Cartwright Act, Section 16700 et seq. of Calif. Bus. and Prof. Code, and violations of California's unfair competition law, Section 17200 et seq. of Calif. Bus. and Prof. Code. In the complaint, plaintiffs seek an unspecified amount of treble damages. On November 30, 2017, the parties reached a tentative settlement. On March 8, 2018, the court granted plaintiffs' motion for preliminary approval of class action settlement and set a final fairness hearing for August 24, 2018.

Loestrin® 24 Litigation. On April 5, 2013, two putative class actions were filed on behalf of putative classes of end-payors in the federal district court against Warner Chilcott and certain affiliates alleging that Warner Chilcott's 2009 patent lawsuit settlements with Watson Laboratories and Lupin related to Loestrin® 24 Fe were unlawful. The complaints generally allege that Watson and Lupin improperly delayed launching generic versions of Loestrin® 24 in exchange for substantial payments from Warner Chilcott in violation of federal and state antitrust and consumer protection laws. The complaints each seek declaratory and injunctive relief and damages. Additional complaints making the same types of allegations have been filed by different plaintiffs, including a class of direct payors and by direct purchasers in their individual capacities. All the cases have been consolidated in the federal court for the District of Rhode Island. The parties are currently engaged in discovery.

Namenda® Litigation. In September 2014, the State of New York, through the Office of the Attorney General of the State of New York, filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York alleging that Forest was acting to prevent or delay generic competition to Forest's immediate-release product Namenda® in violation of federal and New York antitrust laws and committed other fraudulent acts in connection with its commercial plans for Namenda® XR. The district court granted the state's motion for a preliminary injunction which was later affirmed by the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Forest and the New York Attorney General reached a settlement on November 24, 2015. On May 29, 2015, a putative class action was filed on behalf of a class of direct purchasers in the federal district court in New York. Since that time, additional complaints have been filed on behalf of putative classes of direct and indirect purchasers. The class action complaints make claims similar to those asserted by the New York Attorney General and also include claims that Namenda® patent litigation settlements between Forest and generic companies also violated the antitrust laws. Plaintiffs moved for summary judgment on two of the counts of their complaint. The Court granted plaintiffs' motion in part as to the collateral estoppel effect of a prior finding of anti-competitive conduct, and denied the motions on whether the Company's obtaining pediatric exclusivity was anti-competitive conduct. On August 2, 2018, the court denied the Company's motion for summary judgment.

Restasis® Competitor Litigation. On October 2, 2017, Shire, which offers the dry-eye disease drug Xiidra®, sued Allergan in federal district court alleging that Allergan unlawfully harmed competition by foreclosing Xiidra® from sales to Medicare Part D plans (and the members of such plans) through the use of discounts (a) contingent on Restasis® receiving preferential formulary treatment; and/or (b) across a bundle of Allergan's products, including Restasis®, Lumigan®, Combigan®, and Alphagan P®. The complaint seeks injunctive relief under federal and New Jersey antitrust law and New Jersey common law. On December 5, 2017, Allergan filed a motion to dismiss the complaint. A date for oral argument has not been set.

Restasis® Class Action Litigation. Between November 7, 2017, and February 26, 2018, seventeen putative class actions were filed in federal district courts against Allergan alleging that the company unlawfully harmed competition by engaging in conduct to delay the market entry of generic versions of Restasis®. Twelve of the complaints were filed on behalf of putative classes of end-payors, and five were filed on behalf of putative classes of direct purchasers. One direct purchaser complaint and two end-payor complaints were later voluntarily dismissed. The cases have all been consolidated in a multidistrict litigation in the federal court in the Eastern District of New York. The complaints challenge Allergan's conduct in prosecuting and obtaining patents covering Restasi®, listing those patents in the FDA's Orange Book, asserting those patents against potential generic competitors in patent-infringement litigation, filing citizens petitions with the FDA concerning generic companies' drug applications for generic Restasi®, and transferring patents to the sovereign Native American Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe. Both the end-payors and the direct purchasers allege that these actions violated federal antitrust laws, and the end-payors further allege violations of state antitrust and consumer-protection laws and unjust enrichment. All plaintiffs seek damages, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief. Plaintiffs have filed a consolidated amended complaint which the Company has since moved to dismiss.

Zymar®/Zymaxid® Litigation. On February 16, 2012, Apotex Inc. and Apotex Corp. filed a complaint in the federal district court in Delaware against Senju Pharmaceuticals Co., Ltd. (“Senju”), Kyorin Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (“Kyorin”), and Allergan, Inc. alleging monopolization in violation of Section 2 of the Sherman Act, conspiracy to monopolize, and unreasonable restraint of trade in the market for gatifloxacin ophthalmic formulations, which includes Allergan, Inc.’s ZYMAR® gatifloxacin ophthalmic solution 0.3% and ZYMAXID® gatifloxacin ophthalmic solution 0.5% products. In the complaint, Plaintiffs seek an unspecified amount of treble damages and disgorgement of profits. On April 26, 2017, this matter was dismissed.

On June 6, 2014, a separate antitrust class action complaint was filed in the federal district court in Delaware against the same defendants as in the Apotex case. The complaint alleges that defendants unlawfully excluded or delayed generic competition in the gatifloxacin ophthalmic formulations market (generic versions of ZYMAR® and ZYMAXID®). On October 18, 2017, the parties reached a tentative settlement. On February 27, 2018, the court granted plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval of class settlement.

Commercial Litigation

Celexa®/Lexapro® Class Actions. Forest and certain of its affiliates were named as defendants in multiple federal court actions relating to the promotion of Celexa® and/or Lexapro® all of which were consolidated in the Celexa®/Lexapro® MDL proceeding in the federal district court in Massachusetts. Actions were filed in the federal district courts in Minnesota and Washington in November 2013 and August 2014, respectively, seeking to certify a nationwide class of third-party payor entities and consumers that purchased Celexa® and Lexapro® for pediatric use. The complaints each assert claims under the federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (“RICO”) Act, alleging that Forest engaged in an off-label marketing scheme and paid illegal kickbacks to physicians to induce prescriptions of Celexa® and Lexapro®. The court denied both plaintiffs’ class certification motions and entered summary judgment in favor of the Company in both actions. Plaintiffs in both cases have filed a Notice of Appeal of the summary judgment order and the order denying class certification.

Warner Chilcott Marketing Practices. On February 13, 2018, a class action complaint was filed against Warner Chilcott and certain of its affiliates in the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts. The Complaint asserts claims under the federal RICO statute, violations of number of state consumer protection statutes, common law fraud, and unjust enrichment with respect to the sale and marketing of certain products. The complaint seeks to certify a nationwide class of private payer entities, or their assignees, that paid Medicare benefits on behalf of their beneficiaries. On April 9, 2018, the plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint, adding certain other Allergan subsidiaries as defendants. Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint on June 11, 2018.

Generic Drug Pricing Securities and ERISA Litigation. On November 4, 2016, a class action was filed by a putative class of Allergan shareholders in federal court in California against the Company and certain of its current and former officers alleging that the Company and certain of its current and former officers made materially false and misleading statements. Additional similar class action complaints and one complaint by an individual defendant have been filed and these cases have been consolidated in the federal district court in New Jersey. The complaints allege generally that between February 2014 and November 2016, Allergan and certain of its officers made materially false and misleading statements regarding the Company’s internal controls over its financial reporting and failed to disclose that its Actavis generics unit had engaged in illegal, anticompetitive price-fixing with its generic industry peers. The complaint seeks unspecified monetary damages. After the Company filed a motion to dismiss plaintiffs filed a second amended consolidated complaint on November 28, 2017. The Company’s motion to dismiss the second amended complaint, filed on January 22, 2018, is still pending. A complaint was filed in California state court, premised on the same underlying allegations, by an individual opt-out plaintiff on February 2, 2018. Two complaints were filed, one in the federal district court in California and one in the federal district court in New Jersey, that are premised on the same alleged underlying conduct that is at issue in the securities litigation but that assert claims under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”). These complaints also have been consolidated in the district court in New Jersey. The ERISA complaints assert claims on behalf of a putative class of individuals who participated in the Company’s retirement plans and seek an unspecified amount of damages and other injunctive relief. On October 23, 2017, the ERISA litigation Plaintiffs filed an amended consolidated complaint which the Company moved to dismiss on February 2, 2018. Only July 3, 2018, the court granted the Company’s motion to dismiss the ERISA complaint in its entirety.

Telephone Consumer Protection Act Litigation. In October 2012, Forest and certain of its affiliates were named as defendants in a putative class action in federal court in Missouri. This suit alleges that Forest and another defendant violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (the “TCPA”) by sending unsolicited facsimiles and facsimiles with inadequate opt-out notices. The case was stayed pending the administrative proceeding initiated by the pending FCC Petition and a separate petition Forest filed. A similar lawsuit was filed in in Missouri state court against Warner Chilcott Corporation which Warner Chilcott removed to the federal district court. In the wake of the Court of Appeals decision on the Petition discussed below, the parties reached an agreement to settle these actions.

In a related matter, on June 27, 2013, Forest filed a Petition for Declaratory Ruling with the FCC requesting that the FCC find that (1) the faxes at issue in the action complied, or substantially complied with the FCC regulation, and thus did not violate it, or (2) the FCC regulation was not properly promulgated under the TCPA. On October 30, 2014, the FCC issued a final order on the FCC Petition granting Forest and several other petitioners a retroactive waiver of the opt-out notice requirement for all faxes sent with express consent. The litigation plaintiffs appealed the final order to the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia and on March 31, 2017, the Court of Appeals issued a decision which held that the FCC regulation at issue was not properly promulgated under the TCPA. Plaintiffs' petition for certiorari was denied by the United States Supreme Court.

Prescription Opioid Drug Abuse Litigation. The Company has been named as a defendant, along with several other manufacturers of opioid products, in approximately 1,028 matters relating to the promotion and sale of prescription opioid pain relievers and additional suits may be filed. The first complaints were filed by the California counties of Santa Clara and Orange, on behalf of the State of California, the City of Chicago and the State of Mississippi, in May 2014, June 2014 and December 2015, respectively. Each of the lawsuits allege that the manufacturer defendants engaged in a deceptive campaign to promote their products in violation of state laws and seek unspecified monetary damages, penalties and injunctive relief. In May 2017 the State of Ohio filed a lawsuit in state court which parallels the claims in the California, Chicago and Mississippi matters. Since the filing of the complaint by the State of Ohio, additional cases have been filed, including cases filed by others states but mainly by political subdivisions of states (i.e., counties and municipalities) in state and federal courts across the country. In addition, cases have been filed on behalf of consumers who were prescribed opioid products or were prescribed opioid products and were subsequently treated for an overdose or addiction. The federal court cases have been consolidated in an MDL in the federal court for the Northern District of Ohio. In the California case, which is pending in state court in California, the court has set a trial date of June 28, 2019.

The Company is aware that other states and political subdivisions are filing comparable actions against, among others, manufacturers and parties that promoted prescription opioid pain relievers.

Testosterone Replacement Therapy Class Action. On November 24, 2014, the Company was served with a putative class action complaint filed on behalf a class of third party payers in federal court in Illinois. The suit alleges that the Company and other named pharmaceutical defendants violated various laws including the federal RICO statute and state consumer protection laws in connection with the sale and marketing of certain testosterone replacement therapy pharmaceutical products ("TRT Products"), including the Company's Androderm product. This matter was filed in the TRT Products Liability MDL, described in more detail below, notwithstanding that it is not a product liability matter. Plaintiff alleges that it reimbursed third parties for dispensing TRT Products to beneficiaries of its insurance policies. Plaintiff seeks to obtain certain equitable relief, including injunctive relief and an order requiring restitution and/or disgorgement, and to recover damages and multiple damages in an unspecified amount. Defendants jointly filed a motion to dismiss the third amended complaint and in its ruling the court dismissed all claims against the Company except plaintiff's RICO conspiracy claim. Discovery in this matter is ongoing. Plaintiffs filed a motion for class certification on November 6, 2017. On March 5, 2018, Defendants filed papers in opposition to Plaintiffs' class certification motion. On July 26, 2018, the court entered an order denying plaintiff's class certification motion.

Xaleron Dispute. On February 5, 2016, Xaleron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. filed a lawsuit against Allergan, Inc. and Actavis, Inc., now known as Allergan Finance, LLC, in state court in New York. The complaint, filed on February 26, 2016, alleges the defendants misappropriated Xaleron's confidential business information and asserts claims for unfair competition, tortious interference with prospective economic advantage and unjust enrichment. The Company filed a motion to dismiss the complaint on April 15, 2016. On September 13, 2016, the court issued a decision denying the Company's motion. Defendants filed an answer to the complaint and the parties are now engaged in discovery. The company filed a motion for summary judgment on April 4, 2018. The parties have reached an agreement in principle to settle the litigation.

Zeltiq Advertising Litigation. On April 26, 2017, a putative class action lawsuit was filed against Zeltiq in state court in California alleging that Zeltiq misled customers regarding the promotion of its CoolSculpting product and the product's premarket notification clearance status. On May 30, 2017, the case was removed to the United States District Court for the Central District of California. On July 20, 2017, Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint. In August 2017, Zeltiq filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint. On June 11, 2018, the Court granted Zeltiq's motion to dismiss the amended complaint. On July 2, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a third amended complaint. On July 23, 2018, Zeltiq filed a motion to dismiss the third amended complaint.

Employment Litigation

In July 2012, Forest was named as a defendant in an action brought by certain former Company sales representatives and specialty sales representatives in the federal district court in New York. The action is a putative class and collective action, and alleges class claims under Title VII for gender discrimination with respect to pay and promotions, as well as discrimination on the basis of pregnancy, and a collective action claim under the Equal Pay Act. The proposed Title VII gender class includes all current and former female sales representatives employed by the Company throughout the U.S. from 2008 to the date of judgment, and the proposed Title

VII pregnancy sub-class includes all current and former female sales representatives who have been, are, or will become pregnant while employed by the Company throughout the U.S. from 2008 to the date of judgment. The proposed Equal Pay Act collective action class includes current, former, and future female sales representatives who were not compensated equally to similarly-situated male employees during the applicable liability period. The second amended complaint also includes non-class claims on behalf of certain of the named Plaintiffs for sexual harassment and retaliation under Title VII, and for violations of the Family and Medical Leave Act. On April 3, 2017, the parties agreed to settle this matter. On February 1, 2018, the court granted preliminary approval of the settlement and set a fairness hearing for May 4, 2018. On June 29, 2018, the Court granted final approval of the settlement.

Patent Litigation

Patent Enforcement Matters

Aczone® Gel, 7.5%. In June and July 2017, Allergan, Inc. brought actions for infringement of U.S. Patent No. 9,517,219 (the “‘219 patent”) in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. and Taro Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (collectively, “Taro”). Taro had notified Allergan in April and July 2017, that it filed an ANDA with the FDA seeking to obtain approval to market a generic version of Aczone® Gel, 7.5% before the ‘219 patent expires in November 2033. These lawsuits triggered automatic stays of approval of Taro’s ANDA that expire no earlier than October 2019 and January 2020, respectively (unless there is a final court decision adverse to Plaintiff sooner). Trial has been tentatively scheduled for February 4, 2019.

Aczone® Gel, 7.5% IPR. Amneal Pharmaceuticals LLC and Amneal Pharmaceuticals of New York, LLC (collectively, “Amneal”) filed a petition for Inter Partes Review (Trial number IPR2018-00608) with the USPTO regarding U.S. Patent No. 9,161,926, which was accorded a filing date of February 12, 2018. On June 8, 2018, Allergan filed a Patent Owner Preliminary Response.

Bystolic®. On January 19, 2018, Allergan Sales, LLC, Allergan USA, Inc., and Forest Laboratories Holdings, Ltd. (collectively, “Allergan”) brought an action for infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,545,040 in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware against Aurobindo Pharma USA, Inc. and Aurobindo Pharma Ltd. (collectively, “Aurobindo”). Aurobindo had notified Forest Laboratories, LLC (which later merged with and into Allergan Sales, LLC, with Allergan Sales, LLC as the surviving entity) that Aurobindo had filed an ANDA with FDA seeking to obtain approval to market generic versions of Bystolic® 2.5 mg, 5 mg, 10 mg, and 20 mg nebivolol hydrochloride tablet products before the ‘040 Patent expires in December 17, 2021. This lawsuit triggered an automatic stay of approval of Aurobindo’s ANDA that expires no earlier than June 2020 (unless there is a final court decision adverse to Plaintiffs sooner). No trial date or case schedule has been set.

Previously, the Company had asserted the ‘040 patent in actions against Actavis, Alkem, Amerigen, Glenmark, Hetero, Indchemie and Torrent, and related subsidiaries and affiliates thereof (collectively, “the Original Defendants”), and reached settlements terminating those actions. As previously announced, under the terms of the settlement agreements, the Company will provide licenses to each of the Original Defendants that will permit them to launch their generic versions of Bystolic as of the date that is the later of (a) three calendar months prior to the expiration of the ‘040 patent, including any extensions and/or pediatric exclusivities, or (b) the date each company receives final FDA approval of its ANDA, or earlier in certain circumstances.

Byvalson®. On September 18, 2017, Forest Laboratories, LLC (which later merged with and into Allergan Sales, LLC, with Allergan Sales, LLC as the surviving entity) and Forest Laboratories Holdings, Ltd. (collectively, “Forest”) brought an action for infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,803,838 (the “‘838 patent”) and 7,838,552 (the “‘552 patent”) in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey against Princeton Pharmaceutical Inc., Zhejiang Huahai Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Huahai US Inc. and Solco Healthcare US, LLC (collectively, “Princeton”). Princeton notified

Forest that it filed an ANDA with the FDA seeking to obtain approval to market a generic version of Byvalson® before the '838 and '552 patents expire. This lawsuit triggered an automatic stay of approval of the Princeton ANDA until February 2020 (unless a court issues a decision adverse to Forest sooner). No trial date or schedule has been set.

Combigan® II-III. On March 9, 2015, Allergan filed a complaint against Sandoz in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Marshall Division, alleging that Sandoz's proposed generic product infringes certain U.S. Patents including U.S. Patent Nos. 7,030,149 (the "149 Patent"), 7,320,976 (the "'976 Patent"), and 8,748,425 (the "'425 Patent").

A bench trial concluded on October 27, 2016. On December 30, 2016, the court entered an opinion and final judgment in favor of Allergan and against Sandoz, that the asserted claims of the '149 Patent, '976 Patent and '425 Patent were not invalid, and that Sandoz infringes the asserted claims of the '425 Patent. The court also held in favor of Sandoz and against Allergan, that Sandoz does not infringe the asserted claims of the '149 and '976 Patents. Sandoz filed a notice of appeal and Allergan filed a notice of cross appeal. The Federal Circuit heard oral arguments on October 2, 2017 and on December 22, 2017, issued a decision affirming the district court's finding of no invalidity of the asserted claims and non-infringement of the claims of the '149 and '976 Patents, and reversing the district court's finding of infringement of claim 1 of the '425 Patent. On March 29, 2018, the Federal Circuit denied Allergan's combined petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc. The mandate was issued on April 4, 2018. On April 6, 2018, Sandoz filed an unopposed motion to vacate the district court's injunction orders. The district court vacated certain final judgments on June 6, 2018.

Combigan® IV. On October 30, 2017, Allergan Sales, LLC and Allergan, Inc. (collectively, "Allergan") filed a complaint against Sandoz, Inc. and Alcon Laboratories, Inc. ("Sandoz") in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey, alleging that their proposed generic versions of Combigan® infringe U.S. Patent Number 9,770,453 (the "'453 Patent"). On March 6, 2018, Allergan and Sandoz submitted a stipulation and proposed order to grant Allergan leave to file an amended complaint to assert additional claims of infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 9,907,801 (the "'801 Patent") and 9,907,802 (the "'802 Patent"). The '453, '801 and '802 Patents are listed in the Orange Book for Combigan and expire on April 19, 2022. A trial date has not been set. On April 17, 2018, Sandoz filed an amended answer and counterclaims alleging non-infringement, invalidity, inequitable conduct, unclean hands and certain other antitrust counterclaims, including fraud on the U.S. Patent Office, sham litigation, abusive serial patent enforcement, and state monopolization claims. On May 22, 2018, Allergan filed a motion to dismiss Sandoz's antitrust and inequitable conduct counterclaims (and to strike a related affirmative defense), or alternatively to bifurcate and stay Sandoz's antitrust counterclaims. On July 13, 2018, the district court adopted Allergan's proposed claim construction and granted Allergan's motion for preliminary injunction against Sandoz. On July 26, 2018, Sandoz filed a notice of appeal regarding the claim construction and preliminary injunction.

Delzicol®. On August 28, 2015, Warner Chilcott Company, LLC, Warner Chilcott (US), LLC, and Qualicaps Co., Ltd. (collectively, "Plaintiffs") brought an action for infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,649,180 (the "'180 patent") in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas against Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc. and Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (collectively, "Teva"). Teva notified Plaintiffs that it has filed an ANDA with the FDA seeking to obtain approval to market generic versions of Delzicol® before the '180 patent expires in April 2020. On November 9, 2015, Plaintiffs also brought an action for infringement of '180 patent in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas against Mylan Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Mylan Laboratories Limited and Mylan, Inc. (collectively, "Mylan"). Mylan notified Plaintiffs that it has filed an ANDA with the FDA seeking to obtain approval to market generic versions of Delzicol® before the '180 patent expires in April 2020. In March 2016, the court entered an order consolidating the Mylan litigation (C.A. 2:15-cv-01740) with the Teva litigation (C.A. 2:15-cv-01471) matter as the lead case.

On April 1, 2016, Warner Chilcott Company, LLC, Warner Chilcott (US), LLC, Allergan Pharmaceuticals International Ltd., Allergan USA, LLC and Qualicaps Co., Ltd. On August 7, 2017, Teva and Mylan filed motions for summary judgment of non-infringement, and Teva filed a motion for summary judgment for alleged improper Orange Book listing. On September 28, 2017, the Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation granting Teva's and Mylan's motions for summary on non-infringement and denying, as moot, Teva's summary judgment motion concerning Orange Book listing. On October 24, 2017, the District Court adopted the Magistrate Judge's recommendation as to non-infringement and issued final judgment on that issue. The District Court also ruled that defendants' counterclaims be taken up after finality is achieved with respect to the non-infringement issue. On November 21, 2017, Plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

On December 18, 2017, Plaintiffs Allergan Sales, LLC and Qualicaps Co., Ltd. entered into a settlement agreement with Mylan and the actions with respect to Mylan were subsequently dismissed. In December 2017 and January 2018 MSN, Torrent, West-Ward, Zydus, and Amneal filed answers and counterclaims, and Princeton and Aurobindo filed answers, in their respective actions. In January 2018 Forest filed answers to MSN, Torrent, West-Ward and Zydus’s counterclaims. The Sun action was dismissed on January 18, 2018.

In July 2017, the Company and Ironwood received a second Notice Letter relating to the ANDA submitted to the FDA by Aurobindo. On August 25, 2017, Plaintiffs brought an action for infringement of these patents in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Aurobindo. On September 28, 2017, this action was consolidated with the first action filed against Aurobindo. On April 30, 2018, Allergan and Ironwood entered into a settlement agreement with Aurobindo. Under the terms of the settlement agreement, Plaintiffs will provide a license to Aurobindo to market a generic version of LINZESS in the United States beginning on August 5, 2030 (subject to U.S. FDA approval), or earlier in certain circumstances. The Aurobindo actions were dismissed on May 7, 2018.

In September 2017, October 2017 and January 2018, the Company and Ironwood received second Notice Letters relating to the ANDAs submitted to the FDA by Teva, Mylan and Sandoz, respectively. Teva, Mylan and Sandoz claim that U.S. Patent No. 9,708,371 (the “‘371 Patent”) is invalid and/or would not be infringed by their respective ANDAs. (The ‘371 Patent expires in 2033.) On October 20, 2017, November 30, 2017 and January 20, 2018, Plaintiffs brought actions for infringement of the ‘371 patent in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Teva, Mylan and Sandoz, respectively. In December 2017 and February 2018, the Company and Ironwood received Paragraph IV certification notice letters from Teva and Mylan, respectively indicating that they had submitted to FDA ANDAs seeking approval to manufacture and sell generic versions of LINZESS® 72 mcg capsules (“72 mcg ANDA”) before the expiration of the ‘036, ‘727, ‘947, ‘409, ‘526, ‘553, ‘030 and ‘371 Patents. Teva and Mylan claim that these patents are invalid, unenforceable and/or would not be infringed. On February 2, 2018 and March 29, 2018, Forest Laboratories Holdings, Ltd., Allergan USA, Inc., Allergan Sales, LLC and Ironwood Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), brought actions for infringement of some or all of the ‘036, ‘727, ‘947, ‘409, ‘526, ‘553, ‘030 and ‘371 Patents in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Teva and Mylan, respectively. These lawsuits triggered automatic stays of approval of Teva’s 72 mcg ANDA and Mylan’s 72 mcg ANDA that expire no earlier than June 2020 and August 2020, respectively (unless there is a final court decision adverse to Plaintiffs sooner). On March 14, 2018, the district court consolidated the Teva 72 mcg ANDA matter with the lawsuit filed in November 2016.

In May 2018, the district court granted joint stipulations and orders to dismiss without prejudice all claims, counterclaims, and defenses in the consolidated actions with respect to the ‘371 patent as between Plaintiffs, Teva and Sandoz. On July 10, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a motion to dismiss all claims and declaratory judgment counterclaims between Plaintiffs and Mylan with respect to the ‘371 patent for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

Namenda XR®. Between January and October 2014, Forest Laboratories, Inc., Forest Laboratories Holdings, Ltd. (collectively, “Forest”) and Merz Pharma and Adamas Pharmaceuticals, Forest’s licensors for Namenda XRall collectively, “Plaintiffs”), brought actions for infringement of some or all of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,061,703 (the “‘703 patent”), 8,039,009 (the “‘009 patent”), 8,168,209 (the “‘209 patent”), 8,173,708 (the “‘708 patent”), 8,283,379 (the “‘379 patent”), 8,329,752 (the “‘752 patent”), 8,362,085 (the “‘085 patent”), and 8,598,233 (the “‘233 patent”) in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Wockhardt, Teva, Sun, Apotex, Anchen, Zydus, Watson, Par, Mylan, Amneal, Ranbaxy, and Amerigen, and related subsidiaries and affiliates thereof. Plaintiffs entered settlement agreements with every defendant except Teva.

On July 26, 2016, the district court entered a final judgment of invalidity of claim 1 of the ‘209 patent, claims 1, 6, 10 and 15 of the ‘708 patent, claim 1 of the ‘379 patent, claims 1 and 9 of the ‘752 patent, claims 1 and 7 of the ‘085 patent and claim 1 of the ‘233 patent in favor of Teva, and Plaintiffs appealed. On December 11, 2017, the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued a decision affirming the district court’s judgment of invalidity with respect to certain claims of the ‘209, ‘708, ‘379, ‘752 and ‘085 patents. On February 12, 2018, the Federal Circuit denied Plaintiffs petitions for panel rehearing and rehearing en banc.

Previously, on September 29, 2016, the Company issued a press release following announcement of ANDA approvals, including FDA final approval by Lupin which stated that if the district court ruling is upheld on appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, there is a possibility that generic entry for Namenda XR could occur following an adverse decision. The Federal Circuit issued the mandate of the court on February 20, 2018, and certain generics launched the generic products shortly thereafter.

Namzatic®. On August 27, 2015, Forest Laboratories, LLC (which later merged with and into Allergan Sales, LLC, with Allergan Sales, LLC as the surviving entity), Forest Laboratories Holdings, Ltd. and Adamas Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (collectively, “Amerigen”). The Company entered into a settlement agreement with Par on April 29, 2016. On August 30, 2016, Plaintiffs entered into a settlement agreement with Amneal, who is believed to be a first applicant with respect to certain dosage strengths (memantine hydrochloride extended-release and donepezil hydrochloride, 14 mg/10 mg and 28 mg/10 mg) of Namzatic®. Under the terms of the agreement, and subject to review of the settlement terms by the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, Plaintiffs will provide a license to Amneal that will permit it to launch its generic version of Namzatic® as of January 1, 2025, or earlier in certain circumstances. Alternatively, under certain circumstances, Amneal has an option to launch an authorized generic version of Namzatic beginning on January 1, 2026. On October 21, 2016, Plaintiffs entered into a settlement agreement with Amerigen, and the case was dismissed.

(collectively, “Macleods”). On March 9, 2018, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with Macleods with respect to Macleods’ proposed generic versions of Namzatic® and the case was dismissed.

Rapaflo®. On June 17, 2013, Actavis, Inc., now known as Allergan Finance, LLC., Watson Laboratories, Inc., (collectively, “Actavis”) and Kissei Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (“Kissei”) sued Hetero USA Inc., Hetero Labs Limited, and Hetero Labs Limited, Unit 3 (collectively, “Hetero”) in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, alleging that sales of silodosin tablets, a generic version of Actavis’ Rapaflo® tablets, would infringe U.S. Patent No. 5,387,603 (the “‘603 patent”). On June 17, 2013 Actavis and Kissei sued Sandoz Inc. (“Sandoz”) in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, alleging that sales of Sandoz’s generic version of Rapaflo® would infringe the ‘603 patent. On December 22, 2014, the Parties completed a settlement agreement with Hetero. On April 13, 2017, the Sandoz action was dismissed pursuant to a settlement agreement.

On August 18, 2017, Allergan Finance, LLC, Allergan Sales, LLC and Kissei Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), brought an action for infringement of the ‘603 Patent in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Aurobindo Pharma Ltd., Aurobindo Pharma U.S.A., Inc., and Aurobindo Pharma USA LLC (collectively, “Aurobindo”). This lawsuit triggered an automatic stay of approval of the applicable ANDA through to patent expiration (unless there is a final court decision adverse to Plaintiffs sooner). On April 20, 2018, this matter was dismissed without prejudice.

Restasis®. Between August 2015 and July 2016, Allergan brought actions for infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 8,629,111 (the “‘111 patent”), 8,633,162 (the “‘162 patent”), 8,642,556 (the “‘556 patent”), 8,648,048 (the “‘048 patent”), 8,685,930 (the “‘930 patent”) and 9,248,191 (the “‘191 patent”) in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas against Akorn, Inc., Apotex, Inc., Mylan Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., InnoPharma, Inc., Famy Care Limited (“Famy Care”), TWi Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“TWi”) and related subsidiaries and affiliates thereof.

Allergan entered into settlement agreements with Apotex, TWi, Famy Care and InnoPharma. As a result of certain of these settlements, Allergan will provide a license to certain parties to launch their generic versions of Restasis® beginning on February 27, 2024, or earlier in certain circumstances. Additionally, under certain circumstances, Allergan will supply and authorize certain parties to launch an authorized generic version of Restasis® on August 28, 2024.

On September 8, 2017, Allergan assigned all Orange Book-listed patents for Restasis® to the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe (“the Tribe”), a recognized sovereign tribal government, and concurrently was granted an exclusive field-of-use license to practice the patents in the United States for all FDA-approved uses of the products under the Restasis® NDAs. On October 13, 2017, Allergan filed an opposed motion to join the Tribe as a co-plaintiff in the pending action against Teva, Mylan and Akorn.

On October 16, 2017, the District Court issued a decision and final judgment finding that the asserted claims of the ‘111 patent, the ‘048 patent, the ‘930 patent and the ‘191 patent were infringed, but invalid on the ground of obviousness. The District Court also held that the asserted claims were not invalid as anticipated, for lack of enablement, or for improper inventorship. In a separate Order, the District Court joined the Tribe as a co-plaintiff under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 25(c) and declined to rule on the validity of the patent assignment to the Tribe. On October 27, 2017, Plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. No oral argument date has been set.

On December 22, 2016, Allergan filed a complaint for infringement of the ‘111 patent, ‘162 patent, ‘556 patent, ‘048 patent, ‘930 patent, and the ‘191 patent in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas against Deva Holding A.S. (“Deva”). On March 6, 2018, the district court granted in part and denied in part the parties’ joint motion for entry of a stipulated order, and stayed the case until such time as the Federal Circuit in the lead appeal case with Teva, Mylan and Akorn issues a mandate. The parties’ stipulation provides that Deva will be bound by the outcome of that appeal.

Restasis® IPR. On June 6, 2016, Allergan, Inc. received notification letters that Inter Partes Review of the USPTO (“IPR”) petitions were filed by Mylan Pharmaceuticals Inc. (“Mylan”) regarding U.S. Patent Nos. 8,629,111 (the “‘111 patent”), 8,633,162 (the “‘162 patent”), 8,642,556 (the “‘556 patent”), 8,648,048 (the “‘048 patent”), 8,685,930 (the “‘930 patent”) and 9,248,191 (the “‘191 patent”), which patents expire on August 27, 2024. Mylan filed the IPR petition on June 3, 2016. On June 23, 2016, Allergan received a notification letter that a IPR petition and motion for joinder was filed by Argentum Pharmaceuticals LLC (“Argentum”) regarding the ‘111 patent. On December 7, 2016, Allergan entered into a settlement agreement with Argentum and Argentum’s petition was withdrawn. On December 8, 2016, the USPTO granted Mylan’s petitions to institute IPRs with respect to these patents. On January 6, 2017, each of Akorn, Famy Care and Teva filed, and on January 9, 2017 the USPTO received, IPR petitions with respect to these patents and motions for joinder with the Mylan IPR. The USPTO granted Teva’s and Akorn’s joinder motions on March 31, 2017. On April 27, 2017, the USPTO decided not to join Famy Care as a petitioner to the earlier-filed IPR petitions. On July 10, 2017, the USPTO denied Famy Care’s motion for joinder with the IPRs instituted in December 2016, and on July 10 and 12, 2017, granted Famy Care’s petitions to institute IPRs with respect to these same patents. On July 28, 2017, the USPTO rescheduled the hearing for September 13, 2017.

On September 8, 2017, Allergan assigned all Orange Book-listed patents for Restasis® to the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe (“the Tribe”), a recognized sovereign tribal government, and concurrently was granted an exclusive field-of-use license to practice the patents in the United States for all FDA-approved uses of the products under the Restasis® NDAs. That same day, the Tribe filed an updated Mandatory Notice with the USPTO to reflect that the Tribe is the patent owner, and sought permission to file a motion to dismiss based on tribal sovereign immunity. During a September 11, 2017 teleconference, the USPTO postponed the September 13, 2017 hearing and set a briefing schedule on the Tribe’s motion to dismiss. The Tribe filed its opening brief on September 22, 2017, Petitioners filed their opposition brief on October 13, 2017, and the Tribe filed its reply brief on October 20, 2017. On October 4, 2017, the USPTO denied Mylan’s request for authorization to file a motion for additional discovery, and denied without prejudice Allergan’s counsel’s request to withdraw from the IPR proceedings. On November 3, 2017, the USPTO issued an order that (a) granted a motion by High Tech Inventors Alliance requesting authorization to file a brief as amicus curiae on the issues presented in the Tribe’s motion to terminate, (b) permitted any other amicus curiae wishing to file a brief related to the Tribe’s motion to terminate to do so, (c) permitted the parties to file a single response to any amicus briefs, (d) denied without prejudice Allergan’s counsel’s renewed request for authorization to file a motion to withdraw as counsel, and (e) adjusted the time to enter a final written decision in these proceedings to April 6, 2018. On November 29, 2017, the USPTO granted Patent Owner’s motions to seal certain portions of certain exhibits. Between December 1 and December 4, 2017, amicus briefs were submitted on behalf of Petitioners and Patent Owner, which both filed responses on December 15, 2017.

On December 21, 2017, Allergan's counsel renewed its request to file a motion to withdraw on the ground that, as of September 8, 2017, Allergan ceased to be an owner of the six patents involved in the IPR proceedings. On January 2, 2018, the USPTO authorized Allergan to file a motion to withdraw. Allergan filed its motion on January 9, 2018, and Petitioners filed its opposition on January 17, 2018. On December 22, 2017, the USPTO granted Petitioners' request to file supplemental briefing limited to addressing the issue of litigation waiver discussed in the USPTO's recent LSI and Ericsson decisions. Petitioners and Patent Owner filed their supplemental briefs on January 5, and January 12, 2018, respectively.

On January 2, 2018, the Tribe filed a Request for Oral Hearing pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.70(a) seeking certain discovery concerning the identity and impartiality of the merits panel assigned to this IPR. On January 4, 2018, the USPTO issued an order (a) denying the Tribe's request for oral hearing, (b) denying the Tribe's request for authorization to file a motion for additional discovery, (c) ordering the Tribe not to make any further requests for additional discovery directed to the Board in the IPR proceedings, and (d) ordering the Tribe not to file any further papers in the IPR proceedings without prior authorization from the Board. On January 9, 2018, Allergan filed a motion to withdraw from the IPRs on the ground that Allergan ceased to be the patent owner.

On February 23, 2018, the USPTO issued orders denying the Tribe's motion to dismiss (or terminate), denying Allergan's motion to withdraw, setting a rescheduled hearing date for April 3, 2018, and setting a deadline to issue final written decisions by June 8, 2018. On February 28, 2018, the Tribe and Allergan filed a combined notice of appeal.

On March 8, 2018, the Tribe and Allergan filed a motion concerning the PTAB's divested jurisdiction or, in the alternative, for a stay pending the appeal. On March 22, 2018, the USPTO issued an order denying the motion.

On March 16, 2018, the Tribe and Allergan filed with the Federal Circuit a motion to stay the IPR proceedings pending review of their February 28, 2018 appeal.

On March 26, 2018, the Federal Circuit issued an order sua sponte expediting the briefing and argument schedule on the merits of the appeal. On March 28, 2018, the Federal Circuit granted the Tribe and Allergan's motion to stay the IPR proceedings. The stay remains in effect until the day after oral argument in the appeals in June 2018, at which time the Federal Circuit will address whether the stay shall remain in effect or whether it will be lifted. The parties' appeal briefing was completed on May 18, 2018. Oral argument was held on June 4, 2018. On July 20, 2018, the Federal Circuit affirmed the USPTO's denial of the Tribe's motion to dismiss and Allergan's motion to withdraw.

Saphris®. Between September 2014 and May 2015, Forest Laboratories, LLC (which later merged with and into Allergan Sales, LLC, with Allergan Sales, LLC as the surviving entity), and Forest Laboratories Holdings Ltd. (collectively, "Forest") brought actions for infringement of some or all of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,763,476 (the "'476 patent'"), 7,741,358 (the "'358 patent'") and 8,022,228 (the "'228 patent'") in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against Sigmapharm Laboratories, LLC, Hikma Pharmaceuticals, LLC, Breckenridge Pharmaceutical, Inc., Alembic Pharmaceuticals, Ltd. and Amneal Pharmaceuticals, LLC, and related subsidiaries and affiliates thereof. Including a 6-month pediatric extension of regulatory exclusivity, the '476 patent expires in December 2020, and the '358 and '228 patents expire in October 2026. On September 30, 2015, the District Court consolidated all pending actions. On March 28, 2016, the court entered Forest and Hikma's proposed joint stipulation and order of adverse judgment and dismissal of claims related to the '358 and '228 patents. In April 2016, the court granted the proposed consent judgment of non-infringement and order of dismissal of counterclaims related to the '358 and '228 patents, as well as a stipulation and order with respect to infringement of Claims 1, 2, and 6 of the '476 patent, between Plaintiffs and Breckenridge. The Court also granted the proposed stipulation of entry and proposed order of adverse judgment and dismissal of counterclaims related to the '358 and '228 patents between Plaintiffs and Sigmapharm. In April, May and July 2016, the court granted the proposed stipulations and orders of infringement of certain claims of the '476 patent as to Hikma, Breckenridge and Alembic. On October 13, 2016, the court stayed trial as to Sigmapharm and extended the 30-month stay as to Sigmapharm. Trial with respect to the '476 patent, the only remaining patent-in-suit, concluded on November 3, 2016. On June 30, 2017, the district court issued an opinion and order finding all asserted claims of the '476 patent valid, and that claims 4, 9 and 10 were not infringed by Alembic and Breckenridge. On July 11, 2017, the district court entered a final judgment that ordered, among other things, that Alembic's, Amneal's, Breckenridge's and Hikma's respective ANDAs not be granted final approval by FDA earlier than the date of expiration of the '476 patent inclusive of any applicable adjustments, extensions or exclusivities. On July 28, 2017, Alembic, Amneal, Breckenridge and Hikma (the "Appeal Defendants") filed notices of appeal. On August 9, 2017, Plaintiffs filed a notice of cross appeal. Briefing was completed on April 4, 2018. A date for oral argument has not been set.

On July 25, 2017, the District Court actions were reassigned to Judge Mitchel S. Goldberg of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. On February 9, 2018, the district court lifted the stay on the issue of infringement as to Sigmapharm. On March 14, 2018, the district court issued a scheduling order setting trial to begin on June 18, 2018 with respect to Sigmapharm's infringement of claim 1 of the '476 patent. The district court also acknowledged that (a) the 30 month stay as to Sigmapharm is set to expire June 21, 2018, (b) Sigmapharm agreed not to launch its proposed generic product until FDA approval and after the district court issues its decision, and (c) Plaintiffs and Sigmapharm agreed to be bound by the outcome of the pending appeal with the Appeal

Defendants and any proceedings on remand, if necessary, with respect to infringement of claims 4, 9 and 10 of the '476 patent. A bench trial concluded on June 20, 2018. The parties filed their opening post-trial briefs on July 19, 2018.

Savella®. On October 5 and 6, 2017, Forest Laboratories Holdings, Ltd., Allergan Sales, LLC and Allergan USA, Inc. (collectively, "Allergan and Forest") brought actions for infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,602,911 (the "'911 patent"), 7,888,342 (the "'342 patent"), and 7,994,220 (the "'220 patent") in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware and the District of New Jersey, respectively, against Strides Pharma Global Pte Limited and Strides Pharma Inc. (collectively, Strides"). On April 20, 2018, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with Strides and the case was dismissed.

Viibryd® IPR. On January 5, 2018, Argentum Pharmaceuticals LLC submitted to the USPTO a petition for Inter Partes Review ("IPR") seeking cancellation of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. 8,673,921 (the "'921 patent"). The '921 patent is listed in the Orange Book for Viibryd® and expires in June 2022. On July 23, 2018, the USPTO denied institution of the IPR.

Trademark Enforcement Matters

Juvéderm®. On April 5, 2017, Allergan, Inc. ("Allergan") brought an action for unfair competition, false advertising, dilution, conspiracy and infringement of Allergan's JUVÉDERM trademarks in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California against Dermavita Limited Partnership ("Dermavita"), Dima Corp. S.A. ("Dima Corp.") and KBC Media Relations LLC ("KBC"). Dima Corp. had previously announced its acquisition of a license from Dermavita to develop and market in the U.S. cosmetic products under the Juvederm trademark. During June 2017, Allergan entered into a settlement agreement with KBC. During July 2017, the Court preliminarily enjoined Dima Corp. from, inter alia, promoting or selling within the United States any product bearing the trademark JUVÉDERM or any other trademark confusingly similar to it. During January 2018, the Court granted Dermavita's renewed motion to dismiss Allergan's complaint based on purported lack of personal jurisdiction.

Allergan Holdings France SAS and Allergan France SAS requested a preliminary injunction against Dermavita, Dima Corp, Aesthetic Services, Jacqueline Sillam and Dimitri Sillam in the High Court of Paris, France. During June 2017, the Paris Court preliminarily enjoined the defendants from, inter alia, promoting or selling in France its Juvederm products, requiring the transfer of various domain names and payment of provisional damages to Allergan, on the basis that such use would infringe Allergan's EU and French JUVÉDERM trademarks and would amount to unfair competition. This injunction has been appealed. Allergan France has also filed against Dermavita, Dima Corp. and others a full action of trademark infringement in the Paris court. Dermavita has requested that the full action be stayed pending the outcome of the Nanterre action and the EUIPO trademark proceedings, both mentioned below. On March 13, 2018, the Paris court will hear arguments on Dermavita's stay request. Dermavita has filed an action against Allergan in the Nanterre, France court alleging that Allergan has not used its JUVÉDERM trademark and requesting the court to revoke Allergan's trademark based on its purported lack of use.

Furthermore, more than 150 trademark opposition and cancellation actions between Allergan and Dermavita have been filed in front of the USPTO, EUIPO and various other national and regional trademark offices around the world.

Product Liability Litigation

Actonel® Litigation. Warner Chilcott is a defendant in approximately 168 cases and a potential defendant with respect to approximately 383 unfiled claims involving a total of approximately 553 claimants relating to Warner Chilcott's bisphosphonate prescription drug Actonel®. The claimants allege, among other things, that Actonel® caused them to suffer osteonecrosis of the jaw ("ONJ"), a rare but serious condition that involves severe loss or destruction of the jawbone, and/or atypical fractures of the femur ("AFF"). Warner Chilcott is in the initial stages of discovery in these litigations. All of the filed cases are in either federal or state courts in the United States, with the exception of three cases filed in provincial courts in Canada. Two Canadian cases involve a single plaintiff, and the other is a purported product liability class action involving two named plaintiffs. The Canadian action alleges, among other things, that Actonel® caused the plaintiffs and the proposed class members who ingested Actonel® to suffer ONJ or other side effects. It is expected that the plaintiffs in the purported class action will seek class certification. Plaintiffs have typically asked for unspecified monetary and injunctive relief, as well as attorneys' fees. Warner Chilcott is indemnified by Sanofi for certain Actonel claims pursuant to a collaboration agreement relating to the two parties' co-promotion of the product in the United States and other countries. In addition, Warner Chilcott is also partially indemnified by the Procter & Gamble Company ("P&G") for ONJ claims that were pending at the time Warner Chilcott acquired P&G's global pharmaceutical business in October 2009. In May and September 2013, Warner Chilcott entered into two settlement agreements that resolved a majority of the then-existing ONJ-related claims.

AlloDerm Litigation. LifeCell Corporation is named as a defendant in approximately 370 lawsuits alleging that its biologic mesh product AlloDerm did not perform as intended and caused various injuries. Plaintiffs allege the product was defectively designed or manufactured and/or did not have proper warnings. These cases are consolidated in Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex County. Prior to the close of its sale to Allergan, LifeCell mediated the New Jersey cases in December 2016 and negotiated a settlement of its pending New Jersey cases, which was paid by LifeCell on April 19, 2017. Approximately 369 of the cases have been dismissed, with the balance anticipated to be dismissed pending estate filings. LifeCell's insurers participated in the settlement. One other case is pending in Oklahoma but the Company has not yet been served.

Benicar® Litigation. Forest is named in approximately 1,759 actions involving allegations that Benicar®, a treatment for hypertension that Forest co-promoted with Daiichi Sankyo between 2002 and 2008, caused certain gastrointestinal injuries. Under Forest's Co-Promotion Agreement, Daiichi Sankyo is defending Forest in these lawsuits. On August 1, 2017, Daiichi announced that it has agreed to enter into a program to settle all of the pending cases on behalf of all defendants, including Forest.

Celexa®/Lexapro® Litigation. Certain Forest entities are defendants in approximately 166 actions alleging that Celexa® or Lexapro® caused various birth defects. Several of the cases involve multiple minor-plaintiffs. The majority of these actions have been consolidated in state court in Missouri; none of the actions are set for trial.

RepliForm Litigation. LifeCell Corporation has been named as a defendant in approximately 325 cases alleging that its biologic mesh product RepliForm did not perform as intended and caused various injuries. In all of those cases Boston Scientific Corporation, LifeCell's distributor, has been named as a co-defendant. In addition, a significant portion of those cases also name another manufacturer as a defendant whose product was implanted at the same time. All but a few of the cases have been consolidated for centralized management in the Superior Court of Massachusetts, Middlesex County. The other cases are venued in federal court in West Virginia, and state courts in Delaware and Minnesota. Approximately 200 of these cases have been settled or dismissed.

Testosterone Litigation. Beginning in 2014, a number of product liability suits were filed against Actavis, Inc., now known as Allergan Finance, LLC, and one or more of its former subsidiaries as well as other manufacturers and distributors of testosterone products, for personal injuries including but not limited to cardiovascular events allegedly arising out of the use of Androderm®. There are approximately 525 currently pending actions which have been consolidated in an MDL in federal court in Illinois. The defendants have responded to the plaintiffs' master complaint in the MDL and discovery is ongoing. The parties have reached an agreement in principle to settle the remaining cases.

Government Investigations, Government Litigation and Qui Tam Litigation

The Company and its affiliates are involved in various disputes, governmental and/or regulatory inspections, inquiries, investigations and proceedings that could result in litigation, and other litigation matters that arise from time to time.

Forest. Forest received a subpoena, dated April 29, 2015, from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General ("OIG"). The subpoena requests documents relating to Average Manufacturer ("AMP") and Best Price calculations for several of its products. Subsequently, Forest received a Civil Investigative Demand ("CID") from the OIG, dated August 16, 2016, primarily related to the calculation of Best Price. The Company is cooperating fully with the OIG's requests.

Forest and certain of its affiliates are defendants in three state court actions pending in Illinois, Utah and Wisconsin involving qui tam actions alleging generally that the plaintiffs (all government agencies) were overcharged for their share of Medicaid drug reimbursement costs. Forest and the other defendants filed a motion to dismiss Utah's amended complaint. This motion to dismiss was denied in part. On October 30, 2017, the Company reached an agreement to settle the Utah action. On February 17, 2014, the Wisconsin state court granted defendants' motion to dismiss plaintiff's second amended complaint. However, the relator filed a separate action making the same basic allegations as in its amended complaint in the original action. On May 17, 2017, the Wisconsin state court granted defendants' motion to dismiss the amended complaint.

On December 28, 2015, a putative class action complaint was filed in state court in Pennsylvania on behalf of a putative class of private payers. Defendants removed the complaint to the federal court in Pennsylvania. The complaint alleges that manufacturers of generic drugs, including a subsidiary of Forest Laboratories, Inc. that in the past had marketed generic products, caused plaintiffs to overpay for prescription drug products through the use of inflated AWP's. The complaint alleges violations of the Pennsylvania Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law, negligent misrepresentation/fraud, unjust enrichment, civil conspiracy and aiding and abetting. On July 24, 2017, the state court issued a decision on the Company's individual motion to dismiss, granting it in part and denying it in part.

Allergan. On April 18, 2017, the Company received a CID, dated April 12, 2017, from the Department of Justice. The CID seeks information relating to the Company's sales and marketing practices of Botox to urology practices. The Company is cooperating fully with DOJ requests.

On October 3, 2017, the Company received a letter from the House of Representatives Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. The letter seeks information relating to the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe's acquisition of six Restasis® patents and the granting of exclusive licenses to the Restasis® product to the Company. The Company has received other information requests from regulatory agencies concerning the transaction and is cooperating fully with these requests.

In June 2018, the Company received CID from the Department of Justice and a subpoena from the California Department of Insurance, Office of Insurance Commissioner, requesting information related to the Company's promotion and sale of two gastroenterology products. The Company is cooperating fully with these requests.

Actavis/Watson. On October 16, 2017, the Company received a CID from the State of North Carolina Department of Justice. The CID seeks information relating to the legacy Watson company's reporting of AMP calculations. The Company is cooperating fully with the state's requests. On January 26, 2018, a qui tam complaint that was filed in federal district court in Illinois was unsealed which includes claims against Actavis LLC, a former subsidiary of the Company. The State of North Carolina reserved its right to intervene in this proceeding pending an ongoing investigation. The complaint asserts claims that Actavis LLC violated the federal and state false claims acts based on its reporting of AMP prices.

The Company has received subpoenas from multiple states relating to the legacy Actavis and Watson companies' promotional efforts relating to opioid products, none of which are currently promoted and many of which the Company no longer sells. The Company is cooperating fully with the states' requests.

Matters Relating to the Company's Divested Generics Business

The following matters relate to the former generics business of the Company or the transaction pursuant to which that business was sold to Teva, effective August 2, 2016. Teva has agreed to indemnify and defend the Company against all matters asserted in litigation against the Company arising out of the former generics business, including litigations and investigations relating to generic opioid products including, without limitation, the actions described below.

Lidoderm® Litigation. On March 30, 2016, the U.S. Federal Trade Commission filed a lawsuit in federal district court in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania against the Company and one of its global generics business subsidiaries, Watson Laboratories, Inc., Endo Pharmaceuticals Inc. and others arising out of patent settlements relating to Lidoderm. The Lidoderm settlement was reached by Endo Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Watson Laboratories, Inc. in May 2012, prior to Watson's being affiliated with the Company. On October 25, 2016, the FTC voluntarily withdrew its complaint in federal court in Pennsylvania and then in January 2017 filed a similar complaint in the federal district court in California where similar lawsuits filed by private plaintiffs were already pending and where the State of California filed a similar complaint against the same defendants. On January 27, 2017, Allergan Finance LLC filed a declaratory judgment action against the FTC in the same federal district court in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania where the FTC's original action had been pending. In April 2017, the FTC and State of California's actions were stayed pending the declaratory judgment action in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. On May 9, 2017, plaintiffs filed a motion for summary judgment in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Hydrocortisone Investigation. On November 10, 2016, the Company received notice from the UK Competition and Markets Authority ("CMA") that it would be included within the scope of the CMA's formal investigation under Section 25 of the Competition Act of 1998 ("CA98") into suspected abuse of dominance by a former generics business subsidiary of the Company in relation to the supply of 10mg and 20mg hydrocortisone tablets. The CMA is investigating alleged excessive and unfair prices with respect to hydrocortisone tablets and whether the former generics business subsidiary entered into anti-competitive agreements with a potential competitor relating to the hydrocortisone product. The CMA is investigating whether the conduct infringes the Chapter II prohibition of the CA98 and/or Article 102 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. The CMA issued a statement of objection with respect to the alleged excessive and unfair pricing in December 2016 and a separate statement of objection with respect to the alleged anti-competitive agreements in March 2017. The CMA may pursue additional similar investigations relating to this former generic subsidiary of the Company in relation to the hydrocortisone tablet products. The Company intends to cooperate fully with the investigation.

Teva Shareholder Derivative Litigation. On or about February 26, 2017, Allergan plc was named as defendant in a proposed Teva shareholder derivative litigation filed in the Economic Division of the Tel Aviv District Court in Israel. In order to proceed with the lawsuit, plaintiffs have to secure court approval and have filed a motion seeking such approval. The lawsuit contains allegations directed at Teva's board of directors and the approval process needed by Teva to approve the Master Purchase Agreement and also includes claims regarding the amount and form of consideration Teva paid in connection with the Master Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to the court's order, plaintiffs have filed a consolidated motion seeking approval from the court to commence the shareholder derivative suit. The Company submitted a written response to plaintiffs' motion on December 5, 2017.

Florida Subpoena Related to Oxymorphone Products. In January 2018, the Company received a grand jury subpoena from the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida seeking information related to oxymorphone products which were sold by the divested generics business. This subpoena appears to be related to a similar inquiry disclosed by Endo International plc on January 11, 2018. The subpoena was directed to the Company as a source of information, not as a target, along with others.

The Zeltiq® Aesthetics, Inc. (“Zeltiq”) acquisition (the “Zeltiq Acquisition”) contributed the following to the segment in the three months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017 ($ in millions):

	Three Months Ended June 30,
	2018	2017
Net revenues	$108.3	$78.9
Operating expenses:
Cost of sales	27.5	22.2
Selling and marketing	45.4	26.1
General and administrative	1.7	2.3

Net Revenues

The increase in net revenues was impacted by the Zeltiq Acquisition which contributed three months of revenue in the current quarter compared to two months of revenue in the prior year period and growth in Botox® Therapeutics, Botox® Cosmetics and Alloderm® partially offset by decreases in Restasis® and Aczone®.

Botox® Therapeutics, Botox® Cosmetics and Alloderm® increased $57.8 million, or 16.7%, $26.2 million, or 12.5%, and $22.5 million, or 26.6%, respectively, versus the prior year period primarily driven by demand growth.

The decline in Aczone® revenues of $19.9 million, or 48.5%, was due to genericization of the branded acne market, increased discounts to maintain formulary access and a generic launch of Aczone 5%.

The decline in Restasis® revenues of $18.2 million, or 5.4%, was primarily due to price declines. As a result of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas issuing an adverse trial decision finding that the four asserted patents covering Restasis® (Cyclosporine Ophthalmic Emulsion) 0.05% are invalid, there is a potential for future declines in Restasis® revenues due to generic competition.

Cost of Sales

The increase in cost of sales was due in part to the Zeltiq Acquisition and an increase in net revenues. Excluding the Zeltiq Acquisition in both periods, segment gross margin decreased to 92.9% in the three months ended June 30, 2018 versus 93.5% in the prior year period primarily due to product mix.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

The decrease in selling and marketing expenses was primarily due to lower headcount in the Eye Care and Medical Dermatology field forces due to the Company’s restructuring initiatives, lower promotional costs and a decrease in the charge for the non-tax deductible Branded Prescription Drug Fee offset in part by the impact of the Zeltiq Acquisition.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses are consistent period-over-period.

Net Revenues

The decrease in net revenues was primarily due to a decline in products that lost exclusivity including Namenda XR[®] ($115.3 million) and Estrace[®] Cream ($77.0 million), offset, in part, by growth in Vraylar[™], Linzess[®], and Lo Loestrin[®].

CNS revenues declined $76.7 million, or 22.1%, primarily due to the decline in Namenda XR[®] as a result of loss of exclusivity offset, in part, by strong demand growth for Vraylar[™].

Women's Health revenues declined $51.5 million, or 20.8%, primarily due to the loss of exclusivity on Estrace[®] Cream and Minastrin[®] 24 offset, in part, by growth for Lo Loestrin[®] driven by higher average selling prices and increased demand.

GI revenues increased $21.1 million, or 5.1%, primarily due to growth for Linzess[®] resulting from increased demand, offset, in part, by the continued generic erosion of the market for Asacol[®].

Cost of Sales

The decrease in cost of sales was primarily due to lower product sales and product mix, including loss of exclusivity on higher margin products. Segment gross margin was 84.7% in the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared to 85.8% in the prior year period.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

The decrease in selling and marketing expenses related to headcount reductions from the Company's restructuring initiatives, lower promotional costs, and a decrease in the charge for the non-tax deductible Branded Prescription Drug Fee.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses decreased period-over-period due to cost savings initiatives.

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Change
	2018	2017	Dollars	%
(Benefit) for income taxes	$(5.2)	$(581.2)	$576.0	(99.1)%
Effective tax rate	1.1 %	44.8 %

The Company’s effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2018 was 1.1% compared to 44.8% for the three months ended June 30, 2017. The effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2018 was favorably impacted by income earned in jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the Irish statutory rate and U.S. losses tax benefited at rates greater than the Irish statutory rate. This was offset by the additional U.S. tax on the earnings of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries which are considered Global Intangible Low Taxed Income (“GILTI”) and the tax impact of amortization of intangible assets at rates less than the Irish statutory rate. Additionally, the tax benefit for the three months ended June 30, 2018 included tax benefits due to the impairment of certain intangible assets offset by tax detriments related to the integration of acquired assets and investments sold and held for sale.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was favorably impacted by income earned in jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the Irish statutory rate and U.S. losses tax benefited at rates greater than the Irish statutory rate. Additionally, the tax benefit for the three months ended June 30, 2017 included tax benefits related to the impairment of certain intangible assets and an excess tax over book basis in a U.S. subsidiary expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2018 was lower compared to the three months ended June 30, 2017 primarily due to the unfavorable tax impacts of U.S. Tax Reform, gains on the sale of certain assets and the absence of a one-time tax benefit for the tax over book basis in a U.S. subsidiary recorded in the period ended June 30, 2017.

Net Revenues

The increase in net revenues was primarily driven by the Zeltiq and LifeCell acquisitions and growth in Botox® Therapeutics and Botox® Cosmetics, partially offset by decreases in Restasis® and Aczone®.

Botox® Therapeutics and Botox® Cosmetics increased $107.5 million, or 16.4% and $39.1 million, or 9.9%, respectively, versus the prior year period primarily driven by demand growth.

The decline in Aczone® revenues of $44.5 million, or 54.5%, was due to genericization of the branded acne market, increased discounts to maintain formulary access and a generic launch of Aczone 5%.

The decline in Restasis® revenues of $71.2 million, or 11.0% was due to both price declines and volume declines due to trade buying patterns.

Cost of Sales

The increase in cost of sales was primarily due to the LifeCell and Zeltiq acquisitions. Excluding the LifeCell and Zeltiq acquisitions in both periods, segment gross margin decreased to 94.0% in the six months ended June 30, 2018 versus 94.9% in the prior year period primarily due to product mix.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

The decrease in selling and marketing expenses primarily relates to lower headcount in the Eye Care and Medical Dermatology field forces due to the Company's restructuring initiatives, lower promotional costs and a decrease in the charge for the non-tax deductible Branded Prescription Drug Fee, offset in part by the impact of the Zeltiq and LifeCell acquisitions.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses are consistent period-over-period.

Net Revenues

The decrease in net revenues was primarily due to a decline in products that lost exclusivity including Namenda XR[®] ($196.8 million), Estrace[®] Cream ($144.0 million), and Minastrin[®] 24 ($46.5 million), offset, in part, by growth in Vraylar[™], Linzess[®], and Lo Loestrin[®].

CNS revenues declined $123.0 million, or 18.8%, primarily due to the decline in Namenda XR[®] as a result of loss of exclusivity, offset, in part, by strong demand growth for Vraylar[™].

Women's Health revenues declined $132.9 million, or 27.0%, primarily due to the loss of exclusivity on Estrace[®] Cream and Minastrin[®] 24, offset, in part, by growth for Lo Loestrin[®] driven by higher average selling prices and increased demand.

GI revenues increased $22.3 million, or 2.8%, primarily due to growth for Linzess[®] resulting from increased demand, offset, in part, by the loss of exclusivity of Asacol[®].

Cost of Sales

The decrease in cost of sales was primarily due to lower product sales and product mix, including loss of exclusivity on higher margin products. Segment gross margin was 84.9% in the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared to 85.7% in the prior year period.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

The decrease in selling and marketing expenses related to headcount reductions from the Company's restructuring initiatives, lower promotional costs, and a decrease in the charge for the non-tax deductible Branded Prescription Drug Fee.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses decreased period-over-period due to cost savings initiatives.

(Benefit) for Income Taxes

(Benefit) for income taxes in the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017 was as follows: ($ in millions):

	Six Months Ended		Change
	June 30,		Dollars	%
	2018	2017
(Benefit) for income taxes	$(687.4)	$(1,113.3)	$425.9	(38.3)%
Effective tax rate	47.7 %	25.4 %

The Company's effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2018 was 47.7% compared to 25.4% for the six months ended June 30, 2017. The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2018 was favorably impacted by income earned in jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the Irish statutory rate and U.S. losses tax benefited at rates greater than the Irish statutory rate. This was offset by the additional U.S. tax on the earnings of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries which are considered GILTI and the tax impact of amortization of intangible assets at rates less than the Irish statutory rate. Additionally, the tax benefit for the six months ended June 30, 2018 included tax benefits of $421.9 million related to the restructuring of an acquired business, $231.0 million related to the impairment of certain intangible assets and $79.8 million related to excess tax over book basis in a U.S. subsidiary expected to reverse in the foreseeable future. This was partially offset by tax detriments of $21.2 million for the gain on sale of investments and $25.9 million related to a change in the applicable tax rate on certain temporary differences.

The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was favorably impacted by income earned in jurisdictions with tax rates lower than the Irish statutory rate and U.S. losses tax benefited at rates greater than the Irish statutory rate. This was offset by a pre-tax charge for the impairment of the Company's investment in Teva Shares of $1,978.0 million and the tax impact of amortization of intangible assets, both at rates less than the Irish statutory rate. Additionally, the tax benefit for the six months ended June 30, 2017 included tax benefits of $288.1 million related to the impairment of certain intangible assets and $69.4 million related to the integration of an acquired business and debt restructuring. During the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company determined that a temporary difference related to excess tax over book basis in a U.S. subsidiary will reverse in the foreseeable future and recorded a corresponding tax benefit of $179.6 million.

The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2018 was higher compared to the six months ended June 30, 2017 primarily due to the impairment of the Company's investment in Teva Shares in the prior year for which no tax benefit was recorded.

Cash Flows

Our cash flows are summarized as follows ($ in millions):

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	2018	2017
Net cash provided by operating activities	$2,698.5	$2,523.1
Net cash provided by investing activities	$3,634.4	$400.0
Net cash (used in) financing activities	$(6,490.4)	$(3,771.7)

Cash flows from operations represent net income adjusted for certain non-cash items and changes in assets and liabilities. Cash provided by operating activities increased $175.4 million in the six months ended June 30, 2018 versus the prior year period, due to an increase in net income adjusted for non-cash activities, a reduction in interest payments ($106.0 million), and lower cash payments for asset acquisitions and milestones ($180.0 million), offset in part by the timing of tax payments versus the tax provision.

Management expects that available cash balances and the remaining 2018 cash flows from operating activities will provide sufficient resources to fund our operating liquidity needs and expected capital expenditure funding requirements for at least the next twelve months.

Investing cash flows consist primarily of cash used in acquisitions of businesses and intangible assets (primarily product rights), capital expenditures and purchases of investments and marketable securities partially offset by proceeds from the sale of a business, investments and marketable securities. Included in the six months ended June 30, 2018 is the net cash provided by the net sale of investments of $4,140.4 million, offset, in part, by payments to settle Teva related matters of $466.0 million.

Included in the six months ended June 30, 2017 is the net cash provided by the sale of marketable securities of $6,387.1 million, offset, in part, by the cash purchases of LifeCell for $2,874.4 million and Zeltiq of $2,346.7 million, net of cash acquired, and the purchase of intangible assets of $586.3 million.

Financing cash flows consist primarily of borrowings and repayments of debt, repurchases of ordinary shares, dividend payments and proceeds from the exercise of stock options. Cash used in financing activities in the six months ended June 30, 2018 primarily related to the repayment of indebtedness of $5,366.8 million, the repurchase of ordinary shares of $1,572.1 million, the payment of dividends of $563.7 million, and payments to settle Teva-related matters of $234.0 million, which was outstanding greater than one year, offset, in part, by borrowings under the revolving credit facility and other borrowings of $709.0 million and proceeds from the forward sale of Teva Shares of $465.5 million.

Cash used in financing activities in the six months ended June 30, 2017 primarily related to the repayment of indebtedness of $5,579.2 million, which included debt repurchased under the tender offer completed on May 30, 2017 and the early redemption of certain debt securities, the payment of dividends of $611.9 million and payments relating to contingent consideration and other financing of $505.1 million, offset, in part by the long-term borrowings of $3,023.0 million.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any material off-balance sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, net revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The following discussion provides forward-looking quantitative and qualitative information about our potential exposure to market risk. Market risk represents the potential loss arising from adverse changes in the value of financial instruments. The risk of loss is assessed based on the likelihood of adverse changes in fair values, cash flows or future earnings. We are exposed to market risk for changes in the market values of our investments (Investment Risk), the impact of interest rate changes (Interest Rate Risk) and the impact of foreign currency exchange changes (Foreign Currency Exchange Risk).

We maintain our portfolio of cash equivalents and short-term investments in a variety of securities, including both government and government agency obligations with ratings of A or better and money market funds. Our investments in marketable securities are governed by our investment policy which seeks to preserve the value of our principal, provide liquidity and maximize return on the Company's investment against minimal interest rate risk. Consequently, our interest rate and principal risk are minimal on our non-equity investment portfolio. The quantitative and qualitative disclosures about market risk are set forth below.

Investment Risk

As of June 30, 2018 our total investments in marketable and equity securities of other companies, including equity method investments, but excluding securities considered cash and cash equivalents, were $94.8 million (included in marketable securities and investments and other assets). The fair values of these investments are subject to significant fluctuations due to volatility of the stock market and changes in general economic conditions.

We regularly review the carrying value of our investments and identify and recognize losses for income statement purposes.

Interest Rate Risk

Our exposure to interest rate risk relates primarily to our non-equity investment portfolio. Our cash is invested in money market securities.

Our portfolio of marketable securities includes highly liquid money market securities classified as available-for-sale securities, with no security having a maturity in excess of one year. These include floating rate securities that are exposed to interest rate fluctuations. Because of the short-term nature of these investments, we are subject to minimal interest rate risk and do not believe that an increase in market rates would have a significant negative impact on the realized value of our portfolio.

Floating Rate Debt

At June 30, 2018, borrowings outstanding under the floating rate notes were $1,317.9 million. Assuming a one percent increase in the applicable interest rate on the Company's floating rates notes, annual interest expense would increase by approximately $13.2 million over the next twelve months.

Fixed Rate Debt

The Company has outstanding borrowings under its fixed rate notes. Changes in market interest rates generally affect the fair value of fixed-rate debt, but do not impact earnings or cash flows.

Foreign Currency Exchange Risk

Overall, we are a net recipient of currencies other than the U.S. dollar and, as such, benefit from a weaker dollar and are adversely affected by a stronger dollar relative to major currencies worldwide. Accordingly, changes in exchange rates, and in particular a strengthening of the U.S. dollar, may negatively affect our consolidated revenues or operating costs and expenses as expressed in U.S. dollars.

From time to time, we enter into foreign currency option and forward contracts. Accordingly, we have entered into various contracts which change in value as foreign exchange rates change to allow the Company at its option to economically offset the effect of changes in the value of foreign currency assets and liabilities, commitments and anticipated foreign currency denominated sales and operating expenses. We have entered into foreign currency option and forward contracts in amounts between minimum and maximum anticipated foreign exchange exposures.

From time to time, we use foreign currency option contracts, which provide for the sale or purchase of foreign currencies, if exercised, to economically hedge the currency exchange risks associated with probable but not firmly committed transactions that arise in the normal course of our business. Probable but not firmly committed transactions are comprised primarily of sales of products and purchases of raw material in currencies other than the U.S. dollar. While these instruments were subject to fluctuations in value, such fluctuations were anticipated to offset changes in the value of the underlying exposures.

While the Company does not believe it has significant exposure to foreign exchange, we are subject to transactional items which may impact the results of operations. Net foreign currency losses on the results of operations were $16.1 million and $77.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk in its international operations from foreign currency purchases, net investments in foreign subsidiaries, and foreign currency assets and liabilities created in the normal course of business, including the Euro Denominated Notes. In the six months ended June 30, 2018, we used effective net investment hedges to partially offset the effects of foreign currency on our investments in certain of our foreign subsidiaries. The total notional amount of our instruments designated as net investment hedges was $3.6 billion as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017. During the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, the impact of the net investment hedges on other comprehensive income was a gain of $102.0 million and a loss of $57.2 million, respectively.

Other

We do not believe that inflation has had a significant impact on our revenues or operations, nor do we have any material commodity price risks.
