Section 2 — Financial Information

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On February 6, 2017, HNI Corporation (the "Corporation") approved the closure of its Colville, Washington hearth manufacturing facility. The Corporation will consolidate the Colville production into existing hearth manufacturing facilities and anticipates the closure and consolidation to be substantially completed by the end of Q3 2017. The Corporation is making this network realignment as part of continued efficiency and simplification activities to deliver consistent, flawless execution to customers and to reduce structural costs.

The Corporation estimates the realignment will save $2.8 million annually beginning in Q4 2017. The Corporation anticipates charges related to the closure and consolidation will impact pre-tax earnings an estimated $6.7 million. The Corporation estimates cash restructuring and other costs associated with these actions will be approximately $3.3 million, with $1.1 million related to workforce reductions and approximately $2.2 million related to costs associated with manufacturing consolidation and production moves. The following table lists the estimated composition and timing of these charges:

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements" regarding expectations about the Corporation's consolidation and realignment actions, including expected charges, estimated cash and non-cash savings, expected profit improvement, costs, and timing. Forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "intend," "believe," "should," "project," or variations thereof or other similar terminology. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, and actual results could differ materially from those predicted by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include current economic and other conditions in the global marketplace, changes in the market in which the Corporation operates, actions by retailers and consumers, competition, ability to successfully and timely implement closing, consolidation and logistical realignment initiatives, assumptions related to savings, profit improvements, charges and costs, and other factors described in the Corporation's annual and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Forms 10-K and 10-Q. Such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Current Report. The Corporation undertakes no obligation to update, amend, or clarify forward-looking statements.
