On June 13, 2016, the board of directors of Southside Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) approved a plan of succession in which Chief Executive Officer, Sam Dawson, will retire effective December 31, 2016 and President, Lee R. Gibson, will assume the additional position of Chief Executive Officer at that time.

Dawson will continue as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) and the Company’s subsidiary, Southside Bank. Following his retirement, Mr. Dawson will receive director compensation consistent with other non-employee directors. Mr. Dawson did not previously receive any separate compensation for serving on the Board during his tenure as an executive of the Company.

“The time is right to move forward with a transition at the executive level,” stated Dawson, who has worked at Southside almost 42 years. “Lee and I have worked closely together for many years and there is no one more qualified to lead Southside. I am proud of what our dedicated team of bankers has accomplished and look forward to great successes in the future.”

Mr. Gibson, age 59, has served as President and as a director of the Company since December 14, 2015. Mr. Gibson served as Chief Financial Officer of the Company from 2000 to April 2016 and as Senior Executive Vice President from 2009 to December 2015, having originally joined Southside Bank in 1984. A native of Dallas, Texas, Mr. Gibson earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration with an emphasis in accounting from Southern Methodist University.
