FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TYCO REPORTS FIRST QUARTER 2016 EARNINGS FROM CONTINUING OPERATIONS
BEFORE SPECIAL ITEMS OF $0.42 PER SHARE AND GAAP EARNINGS OF $0.17 PER SHARE

Exceeds guidance for revenue and earnings per share before special items (EPS)

Announces strategic combination with Johnson Controls to create the leader in building products and technology, integrated solutions and energy storage

Enhances business portfolio with additional investment in Middle East business, acquisition of ShopperTrak to expand retail analytics solutions, and divestiture of Australian fire detection and protection business

Reaches tentative resolution of legacy tax litigation by filing Stipulations of Settled Issues with the U.S. Tax Court

Provides guidance for second quarter 2016 EPS before special items of $0.44 - $0.46

Reaffirms full-year EPS before special items guidance of $2.05 - $2.20

CORK, Ireland, Jan. 29, 2016 - Tyco (NYSE: TYC) today reported $0.17 in GAAP diluted earnings per share (EPS) from continuing operations for the fiscal first quarter of 2016. Diluted EPS from continuing operations before special items of $0.42 exceeded previous guidance of $0.40. Revenue of $2.4 billion in the quarter decreased 4% versus the prior year, primarily due to a 6% negative impact of the stronger U.S. dollar against foreign currencies. Organic revenue was flat in the quarter versus previous guidance of a decline of 1% to 3%. Acquisitions contributed 3 percentage points of growth, which was partially offset by the impact of a divestiture.

“We are off to a solid start to our fiscal year. Although we operated under challenging macro-economic conditions around the globe, we continued to execute well on what was within our control,” said Tyco Chief Executive Officer George R. Oliver. “Despite this environment, we remain focused on building our business for the long-term, and the announcement of our planned merger with Johnson Controls is a perfect example. I am thrilled with the prospect of bringing the unique strengths of two great companies together to deliver best-in-class building technologies and services to customers around the world.

"We believe this transaction will allow us to better capture opportunities created by increased connectivity in homes, buildings and cities. Joining forces with Johnson Controls pairs our leading established businesses with robust innovation pipelines and extensive global footprints to deliver greater value to customers, shareholders and employees of both companies," Mr. Oliver added.

(Income and EPS amounts are attributable to Tyco ordinary shareholders)

($ millions, except per-share amounts)

	Q1 2016	Q1 2015	% Change
Revenue	$2,376	$2,478	(4)%

Diluted EPS from Continuing Ops Before Special Items	$0.42	$0.38	11	%

Organic revenue, free cash flow, adjusted free cash flow, operating income, segment operating income, and diluted EPS from continuing operations before special items are non-GAAP financial measures and are described below. Special items in the quarter of $0.25 were primarily driven by a loss on early extinguishment of debt and a loss on divestiture, partially offset by a gain on the sale of an equity investment. For a reconciliation of these non-GAAP measures, see the attached tables. Additional schedules as well as first quarter review slides can be found in the Investor Relations section of Tyco's website at <http://investors.tyco.com>.

SEGMENT RESULTS

The financial results presented in the tables below are in accordance with GAAP unless otherwise indicated. All dollar amounts are pre-tax and stated in millions. All comparisons are to the fiscal first quarter of 2015 unless otherwise indicated.

North America Integrated Solutions & Services

	Q1 2016	Q1 2015	% Change
Revenue	$953	$951	—	%
Operating Income	$132	$129	2	%
Operating Margin	13.9	% 13.6	%
Special Items	$—	$(2))
Operating Income Before Special Items	$132	$131	1	%
Operating Margin Before Special Items	13.9	% 13.8	%

Revenue of $953 million was relatively flat compared to the prior year, as organic growth was offset by the weakening of the Canadian dollar. Organic revenue growth of 2% was driven by 1% growth in service and 2% growth in integrated solutions. Backlog of $2.51 billion increased 2% year over year and 1% on a quarter sequential basis, excluding the impact of foreign currency.

Operating income for the quarter was $132 million and the operating margin before special items improved 10 basis points to 13.9%. Normalized for a $6 million charge in the prior year, the operating margin contracted 50 basis points year over year, as the benefits of productivity were offset by incremental investments.

Rest of World Integrated Solutions & Services

	Q1 2016	Q1 2015	% Change
Revenue	$812	$916	(11)%
Operating Income	$133	$89	49	%
Operating Margin	16.4	% 9.7	%
Special Items	$56	$(2))
Operating Income Before Special Items	$77	$91	(15)%
Operating Margin Before Special Items	9.5	% 9.9	%

Revenue of $812 million decreased 11% compared to the prior year, driven by an 11% unfavorable impact from foreign currency exchange rates. Organic revenue declined 1%, as 1% growth in service was more than offset by a 4% decline in integrated solutions. Acquisition growth of 3% was partially offset by a 2% decline related to a divestiture. Backlog of $1.87 billion increased 9% both year over year and on a quarter sequential basis, excluding the impact of foreign currency and the divestiture, primarily driven by an acquisition in the quarter.

Operating income for the quarter was $133 million and the operating margin was 16.4%. Special items primarily consisted of a gain related to an equity investment partially offset by a loss on divestiture, for a net benefit of $56 million. Before special items, operating income was $77 million and the operating margin was 9.5%. The operating margin declined 40 basis points, fully driven by non-cash purchase accounting. Excluding purchase accounting, the operating margin was up slightly year over year, as productivity benefits offset the revenue decline and investment.

Global Products

	Q1 2016	Q1 2015	% Change
Revenue	$611	$611	—	%
Operating Income	$97	$105	(8)%
Operating Margin	15.9	% 17.2	%
Special Items	$—	$—
Operating Income Before Special Items	$97	$105	(8)%
Operating Margin Before Special Items	15.9	% 17.2	%

Revenue of $611 million was flat with the prior year. Organic revenue declined 1%, driven by Life Safety Products due to increased Air-Pak X3 shipments during the comparable quarter in the prior year. Acquisitions contributed 6 percentage points of growth, which was mostly offset by changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

Operating income for the quarter was $97 million and the operating margin was 15.9%. The 130 basis point decline in operating margin included a 70 basis point headwind related to non-cash purchase accounting. The underlying margin decline of 60 basis points was primarily driven by product mix.

OTHER ITEMS

Cash from operating activities was $189 million and free cash flow was $117 million, which included a cash outflow of $52 million from special items primarily related to prior year restructuring and repositioning activities. Adjusted free cash flow for the quarter was $169 million. The company completed the quarter with $301 million in cash and cash equivalents.

Corporate expense for the quarter was $52 million before special items and $51 million on a GAAP basis, compared to $55 million before special items for the prior year period.

Restructuring and repositioning charges were $22 million before special items, compared to $75 million for the prior year period.

The tax rate before special items was 17.2% for the quarter.

As previously disclosed, the company entered into Stipulations of Settled Issues with the IRS intended to resolve all outstanding disputes related to intercompany debt issues for the 1997-2000 audit cycle, which are currently before the U.S. Tax Court. The resolution is contingent upon the IRS Appeals Division applying the same settlement to all intercompany debt issues on appeal for subsequent audit cycles (2001-2007). If finalized, the tentative resolution would cover all aspects of the controversy before the U.S. Tax Court and the IRS Appeals Division, and would result in a total cash payment to the IRS in the range of $475 million to $525 million, which includes all interest and penalties. This payment would be shared among the company, Covidien plc and TE Connectivity Ltd., 27%, 42% and 31%, respectively. The company does not expect to recognize any additional charges related to the resolution, as the company had previously recorded sufficient reserves with respect to this matter and its obligations under the Tax Sharing Agreements. Payment is expected to be made to the IRS, and among the company, Covidien and TE Connectivity, within the next six months.

As previously announced, during the quarter the company made an additional investment in its Tyco UAE joint venture with local partner Suwaidi Engineering Group. Tyco now fully consolidates the financial results of this business into its Rest of World Integrated Solutions & Services segment, which is expected to add approximately $130 million in revenue on an annualized basis.

As previously announced, during the quarter the company reached an agreement to acquire ShopperTrak, a leading global provider of retail traffic insights and location-based analytics, for approximately $175 million in cash. This business currently generates approximately $75 million in annual revenue. This transaction closed in late January 2016.

As previously announced, during the quarter the company reached an agreement to divest its fire detection and protection business in Australia. In fiscal year 2015, this business had revenue of approximately $260 million. This transaction closed in late January 2016.

During the quarter, the company redeemed its 7.0% notes due in 2019 and 6.875% notes due in 2021, which resulted in a loss from retirement of debt of $168 million.

NON-GAAP MEASURES

Organic revenue, free cash flow (outflow) (FCF), and income from continuing operations, earnings per share (EPS) from continuing operations, operating income and segment operating income, in each case "before special items," are non-GAAP measures and should not be considered replacements for GAAP results.

Organic revenue is a useful measure used by the company to measure the underlying results and trends in the business. The difference between reported net revenue (the most comparable GAAP measure) and organic revenue (the non-GAAP measure) consists of the impact from foreign currency, acquisitions and divestitures, and other changes that either do not reflect the underlying results and trends of the Company's businesses or are not completely under management's control. There are limitations associated with organic revenue, such as the fact that, as presented herein, the metric may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. These limitations are best addressed by using organic revenue in combination with the GAAP numbers. Organic revenue may be used as a component in the company's incentive compensation plans.

FCF is a useful measure of the company's cash that permits management and investors to gain insight into the number that management employs to measure cash that is free from any significant existing obligation and is available to service debt and make investments. The difference between Cash Flows from Operating Activities (the most comparable GAAP measure) and FCF (the non-GAAP measure) consists mainly of significant cash flows that the company believes are useful to identify. It, or a measure that is based on it, may be used as a component in the company's incentive compensation plans. The difference reflects the impact from:

- net capital expenditures,
- dealer generated accounts and bulk accounts purchased,
- cash paid for purchase accounting and holdback liabilities, and
- voluntary pension contributions.

Capital expenditures and dealer generated and bulk accounts purchased are subtracted because they represent long-term investments that are required for normal business activities. Cash paid for purchase accounting and holdback liabilities is subtracted because these cash outflows are not available for general corporate uses. Voluntary pension contributions are added because this activity is driven by economic financing decisions rather than operating activity. In addition, the company presents adjusted free cash flow, which is free cash flow, adjusted to exclude the cash impact of the special items highlighted below. This number provides information to investors regarding the cash impact of certain items management believes are useful to identify, as described below.

The limitation associated with using these cash flow metrics is that they adjust for cash items that are ultimately within management's and the Board of Directors' discretion to direct and therefore may imply that there is less or more cash that is available for the company's programs than the most comparable GAAP measure. Furthermore, these non-GAAP metrics may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. These limitations are best addressed by using FCF in combination with the GAAP cash flow numbers.

The company has presented its income and EPS from continuing operations, operating income and segment operating income before special items. Special items include charges and gains related to divestitures, acquisitions, restructurings, impairments, certain changes to accounting methodologies, legacy legal and tax charges and other income or charges that may mask the underlying operating results and/or business trends of the company or business segment, as applicable. The company utilizes these measures to assess overall operating performance and segment level core operating performance, as well as to provide insight to management in evaluating overall and segment operating plan execution and underlying market conditions. The Company also presents its effective tax rate as adjusted for special items for consistency, and presents corporate expense excluding special items. One or more of these measures may be used as components in the company's incentive compensation plans. These measures are useful for investors because they may permit more meaningful comparisons of the company's underlying operating results and business trends between periods. The difference between income and EPS from continuing operations before special items and income and EPS from continuing operations (the most comparable GAAP measures) consists of the impact of the special items noted above on the applicable GAAP measure. The limitation of these measures is that they exclude the impact (which may be material) of items that increase or decrease the company's reported GAAP metrics, and these non-GAAP metrics may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. These limitations are best addressed by using the non-GAAP measures in combination with the most comparable GAAP measures in order to better understand the amounts, character and impact of any increase or decrease on reported results.

The company provides general corporate services to its segments and those costs are reported in the "Corporate and Other" segment. This segment's operating income (loss) is presented as "Corporate Expense." Segment Operating Income represents Tyco's operating income excluding the Corporate and Other segment, and reflects the results of Tyco's three operating segments. Segment Operating Income before special items reflects GAAP operating income adjusted for the special items noted in the paragraph above.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains a number of forward-looking statements. In many cases forward-looking statements are identified by words, and variations of words, such as "anticipate", "estimate", "believe", "commit", "confident", "continue", "could", "intend", "may", "plan", "potential", "predict", "positioned", "should", "will", "expect", "objective", "projection", "forecast", "goal", "guidance", "outlook", "effort", "target", and other similar words. However, the absence of these words does not mean the statements are not forward-looking. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, revenue, operating income, earnings per share and other financial projections, statements regarding the health and growth prospects of the industries and end markets in which Tyco operates, the leadership, resources, potential, priorities, and opportunities for Tyco in the future, Tyco's credit profile, capital allocation priorities and other capital market related activities, statements regarding Tyco's acquisition, divestiture, restructuring and other productivity initiatives, and statements regarding Tyco's proposed merger with Johnson Controls and related transactions.

The forward-looking statements in this press release are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside of our control, and could cause results to materially differ from expectations. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: economic, business, competitive, technological or regulatory factors that adversely impact Tyco or the markets and industries in which it competes; unanticipated expenses such as litigation or legal settlement expenses; tax law changes; industry specific events or conditions that may adversely impact revenue or other financial projections; risks relating to the completion of the proposed transaction with Johnson Controls on anticipated terms and timing, including obtaining shareholder and regulatory approvals, anticipated tax treatment, unforeseen liabilities, future capital expenditures, revenues, expenses, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, losses, future prospects, business and management strategies for the management, expansion and growth of the new combined company's operations, the ability of Tyco and Johnson Controls to integrate their businesses successfully and to achieve anticipated synergies, changes in tax laws or interpretations, access to available financing, potential litigation relating to the proposed transaction, and the risk that disruptions from the proposed transaction will harm Tyco's business. Actual results could differ materially from anticipated results. Tyco is under no obligation (and expressly disclaims any obligation) to update its forward-looking statements. More information on potential factors that could affect the Company's financial results is included from time to time in the "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" sections of the Company's public reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 25, 2015, and subsequent filings with the SEC.
