VOTING SECURITIES

Record Date and Shares Entitled to Vote

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 13, 2006 are entitled to vote on the matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting. The number of shares of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"), outstanding on such date and entitled to vote was 64,116,757 shares.

Quorum Requirements

The presence in person or by proxy of holders of record of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is required for a quorum to transact business at the Annual Meeting with respect to those matters requiring approval by the holders of Common Stock, but if a quorum should not be present, the Annual Meeting may be adjourned from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

Votes Necessary to Approve the Proposals

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares of the Common Stock present or represented at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present or represented at the Annual Meeting is required for the ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accountants (the "independent auditors") for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote with respect to those matters upon which such share is to be voted. No cumulative voting rights are authorized and dissenters' rights are not applicable to these matters.

Voting Procedures

A proxy card is being mailed to each holder of shares of the Company's Common Stock for voting with respect to each stockholder's shares of Common Stock. Stockholders holding shares of Common Stock should complete, sign and return the proxy card to the Company.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (shares held by a broker or nominee which are represented at the Annual Meeting, but with respect to which such broker or nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular proposal) will be counted as present at the Annual Meeting for the purpose of determining whether or not a quorum exists. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of any nominee for director, so long as such nominee receives any affirmative votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes will generally have the same effect as negative votes with respect to matters other than the election of directors.

Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the accompanying proxy, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.

Certain Terms of Jacobs Acquisition

Jacobs (collectively, the "Jacobs Persons"), as a group, beneficially own fewer than 13.55 million special common units in the Operating Partnership ("SCUs") and shares of Common Stock (adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split), following which JRI will be entitled to nominate only one Board member. JRI will no longer be entitled to nominate any Board members if the Jacobs Persons, as a group, beneficially own fewer than 6.67 million SCUs and shares of Common Stock (adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split). Pursuant to the Voting/Standstill Agreement, CBL's Predecessor and certain of the Company's executive officers have agreed to vote their shares in favor of JRI's designees until the twelfth anniversary of the Jacobs Acquisition. The Jacobs Persons have agreed to a 12-year standstill period during which they will not seek to acquire control of the Company and will not participate in a group which seeks to acquire such control. The Jacobs Persons also agreed until the twelfth anniversary of the Jacobs Acquisition to vote their shares in favor of the election of the Board's nominees to the Board of Directors who are running unopposed and uncontested. Effective as of January 1, 2006, the Voting/Standstill Agreement was amended to remove Martin J. Cleary as a party to that agreement. Neither Martin J. Cleary nor Gary L. Bryenton are parties to the Voting/Standstill Agreement, nor is either of them a party to any agreement which obligates them to vote with management of the Company on any matter.

Corporate Governance Matters

Overview. The Board of Directors has adopted guidelines on corporate governance (including director independence criteria), committee charters, and a code of business conduct and ethics setting forth the Company's corporate governance principles and practices and, effective as of January 1, 2006, the

Company adopted amended and restated guidelines on corporate governance incorporating all previous guidelines on corporate governance and including additional policy statements (collectively, as amended and restated, referred to herein as the "Corporate Governance Guidelines"). See "Corporate Governance Matters - Additional Policy Statements". These documents can be accessed in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com or by directing a written request for copies to the Company at CBL & Associates Properties, Inc., CBL Center, Suite 500, 2030 Hamilton Place Boulevard, Chattanooga, Tennessee 37421-6000, Attention: Director of Investor Relations.

Director Independence. The Board has adopted a set of director independence standards ("Director Independence Standards") for evaluating the independence of each of the Directors in accordance with the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and of the NYSE corporate governance standards. In March 2006, the Board undertook its annual review of Director independence pursuant to NYSE Rule 303A.02(a) and the provisions of the Company's Director Independence Standards (as set forth below). During this process, the Board reviewed whether any Director has any relationship with the Company's independent auditors that would preclude independence under SEC and NYSE rules, or any material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, member, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) which could (directly or indirectly) materially impact the ability of such director or nominee to exert his independent judgment and analysis as a member of the Board. As a result of this review, the Board affirmatively determined that six of the Company's nine Directors were independent under the standards of the SEC and NYSE and as set forth in the Company's Director Independence Standards. Messrs. Charles B. Lebovitz, Stephen D. Lebovitz and John N. Foy, who are executive officers of the Company and employees of the Management Company, were not deemed independent. In making the independence determinations with respect to the other six directors, the Board considered the following matters and determined that they did not interfere with the independence of the following three directors: (i) with respect to Mr. Cleary and Mr. Bryenton, the Company's contractual commitments in connection with the terms of the Jacobs Acquisition as described above (see above "Certain Terms of Jacobs Acquisition") and (ii) with respect to Mr. Fields, the fact that he is Co-Chairman of Weisberg & Fields, Inc., an investment advisory firm that provides certain advisory services, from time to time, to Charles B. Lebovitz, members of his family and to the Lebovitz Family Charitable Trust, a charitable foundation. In 2005, fees paid to Weisberg & Fields, Inc. by Charles B. Lebovitz, members of his family and the Lebovitz Family Charitable Trust totaled approximately $130,000. The full text of the Director Independence Standards is as follows:

A. GENERAL INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS

In determining whether or not any director or nominee for director may be considered "independent", the Board shall apply the following criteria:

- (1) No director or nominee shall be deemed "independent" unless the Board affirmatively determines that the director or nominee satisfies the requirements stated herein and has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, member, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). For purposes of this test, a relationship with the Company shall be deemed to be a "material"

relationship which precludes a determination that a director or nominee is independent if, in the opinion of the Board and in light of all the relevant facts and circumstances, such relationship (directly or indirectly) could materially impact the ability of such director or nominee to exert his or her independent judgment and analysis as a member of the Board. For purposes hereof, ownership of the Company's stock (even in a significant amount) or ownership of securities convertible to the Company's stock shall not be viewed, in and of themselves, as a bar to a finding of independence. To assist in this determination, the Company shall periodically (at least annually and prior to any nominee becoming a director for his or her initial term as a director) deliver to the directors and/or nominees for directorships a Directors and Officers Questionnaire designed to elicit information from such director or nominee as to material relationships and other information relative to these Independence Standards; and

- (2) In addition, to be considered "independent," a director or nominee must satisfy all other independence criteria for directors of a publicly traded company which are now, or may be hereafter, set forth in applicable federal statutes and rules promulgated by the SEC, and in the related listing standards promulgated by the NYSE and any other exchange upon which the Company's stock may be listed, as such statutes and/or rules and listing standards may be revised or amended from time to time.

B. ADDITIONAL AUDIT COMMITTEE INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS

In determining whether or not any director or nominee satisfies the "independence" requirement for Audit Committee membership, in addition to satisfying all of the requirements set forth in Paragraph A hereof, such director also must satisfy the following:

Such director or nominee must satisfy all additional requirements for the independence of audit committee members of publicly traded companies which are now, or may be hereafter, set forth in applicable federal statutes and rules promulgated by the SEC, and in the related listing standards promulgated by the NYSE and any other exchange upon which the Company's stock may be listed, as such statutes and/or rules and listing standards may be revised or amended from time to time.

The Director Independence Standards also are included as an exhibit to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, which can be found in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. A copy may also be obtained upon request from the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above.

Additional Policy Statements. Effective as of January 1, 2006, the Company has included additional policy statements as part of the Corporate Governance Guidelines. A summary of these new policy statements is as follows:

Limits on Other Board Participation - a policy statement that limits to four (4) the number of other public company boards (not counting the Company's Board) upon which a director may serve at any given time.

Minimum Stock Ownership for Non-Employee Directors - a policy statement that provides that by the later of five (5) years from the adoption of the policy or becoming a member of the Company's Board, a Non-Employee Director (a director that is not an employee of the Company, currently, the Independent Directors) must own at least the lesser of 3,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock or $150,000 worth of the Company's Common Stock.

Minimum Stock Ownership for Executive Officers - a policy statement that provides that by the later of five (5) years from the adoption of the policy or becoming an executive officer, such executive officer must own an amount of the Company's Common Stock, determined as set forth in the policy statement, having a value at least equal to the following formula amounts:

Executive Officer	Level of Stock Ownership
Chief Executive Officer	3x prior calendar year's annual base salary
President	2x prior calendar year's annual base salary
Chief Financial Officer	2x prior calendar year's annual base salary
Executive Vice President	2x prior calendar year's annual base salary
Senior Vice Presidents	1x prior calendar year's annual base salary

Changes in Director's Principal Occupation or Business Association - a policy statement that provides that when the principal occupation or business association of a member of the Board of Directors changes substantially from the position he or she held when originally invited to join the Board of Directors, such director shall promptly tender his or her resignation as a director to the Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee shall then review whether it is appropriate and in the best interests of the Company to allow the continued participation of such director as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company. If the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee recommends that such director should no longer serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company as a result of such change, and the full Board of Directors (excluding the director at issue) ratifies such recommendation, then the tender of resignation by the affected director shall be accepted by the Board of Directors.

Initial Term of Director Appointed to Fill a Board Vacancy - a policy statement that provides that any director appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company to fill a vacancy created by the departure of another director shall serve only until the next regularly scheduled annual meeting of the Company's stockholders. In order for such director to continue to serve thereafter, he or she must be nominated and duly elected to fill the remainder of the term to which the director was originally appointed (or for another full term, as appropriate).

Executive Sessions for Independent Directors. In accordance with the NYSE Rule 303A.03, the Independent Directors of the Company meet from time to time in scheduled executive sessions without management participation. The Board of Directors has designated Winston W. Walker as lead Independent Director, solely for the purpose of chairing these executive sessions. The Independent Directors met in four executive sessions during 2005.

Communicating with the Board of Directors. The Company provides a process for stockholders to send communications to the Board or any of the Directors. Stockholders may send written communications to the Board or any of the Directors c/o the Corporate Secretary, CBL & Associates Properties, Inc., 2030 Hamilton Place Blvd., Suite 500, CBL Center, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 37421-6000. All communications will be compiled by the Company's Corporate Secretary and submitted to the Board or the individual Director(s) to whom such communication is addressed. It is the Company's policy that all Directors attend the Annual Meeting unless they are prevented from attending due to scheduling conflicts or important personal or business reasons; provided, however, it is the Company's policy that a majority of the Directors (including a majority of the Company's Independent Directors) attend each Annual Meeting. All of the Company's then-incumbent Directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The Board has adopted an Amended and Restated Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, as amended (the "Code of Business Conduct") that applies to all Directors, officers and employees, including the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer. The Code of Business Conduct is available in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com, or at no charge by written request to the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above. The purpose of the Code of Business Conduct is to provide a codification of standards that is reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote accountability for and adherence to the standards of the Code, including honest and ethical conduct; the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships; full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in the Company's filings with the SEC and in other public communications by the Company; and compliance with all applicable rules and regulations that apply to the Company and to its Directors, officers and employees.

Board of Directors' Meetings and Committees

The Board of Directors has established standing Executive, Audit, Compensation and Nominating/ Corporate Governance Committees. The Board of Directors met nine times and took action by unanimous written consent four times during 2005. Each Director attended more than 75% of the aggregate of (i) the total number of Board meetings and (ii) the total number of meetings of Board committees on which the Director served at the time during 2005.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is comprised of Charles B. Lebovitz (Chairman), John N. Foy and Leo Fields. The Executive Committee may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors of the Company in the management of the business and affairs of the Company as permitted by law; provided, however, unless specifically authorized by the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee may not exercise the power and authority of the Board of Directors with respect to (i) the declaration of dividends, (ii) issuance of stock, (iii) amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, (iv) filling vacancies on the Board of Directors, (v) approval of borrowings in excess of $40 million per transaction or series of related transactions, (vi) hiring executive officers, (vii) approval of acquisitions or dispositions of property or assets in excess of $40 million per transaction and (viii) certain transactions between the Company and its Directors and officers and certain sales of real estate and reductions of debt that produce disproportionate tax allocations to CBL's Predecessor pursuant to the Company's Bylaws. The Executive Committee met four times and took action by unanimous written consent one time during 2005.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is comprised of Winston W. Walker (Chairman), Claude M. Ballard, Gary L. Bryenton and Matthew S. Dominski, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are Independent Directors pursuant to the independence requirements of Sections 303A.02 and 303A.07(b) of the listing standards of the NYSE as currently applicable. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written amended and restated charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the amended and restated charter is available and can be accessed in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. The Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of the independent auditors and the plans and results of the audit engagement. The Audit Committee approves audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditors and the fees for such services and reviews the adequacy of the Company's internal accounting controls as well as the Company's accounting policies and results. The Audit Committee met six times during 2005.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee is comprised of Claude M. Ballard (Chairman), Martin J. Cleary, Matthew S. Dominski and Winston W. Walker, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are Independent Directors. The Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the charter is available and can be accessed in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. The Compensation Committee generally reviews and approves compensation programs and, specifically, reviews and approves salaries, bonuses, stock awards and stock options for officers of the Company of the level of vice president or higher. The Compensation Committee administers the Amended and Restated CBL & Associates Properties, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (the "Stock Incentive Plan"). The Compensation Committee met two times and took action by unanimous written consent one time during 2005.

Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of Gary L. Bryenton (Chairman), Claude M. Ballard, Matthew S. Dominski and Winston W. Walker, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are Independent Directors. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the charter is available and can be accessed in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding various aspects of the Board of Directors' and the Company's governance processes and procedures. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee also evaluates and recommends candidates for election to fill vacancies on the Board, including consideration of the renominations of members whose terms are due to expire. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee requires a majority of the Company's directors to be "independent" in accordance with applicable requirements of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws as well as rules of the SEC and NYSE (including certain additional independence requirements for Audit Committee members). A set of uniform Director Independence Standards, which was used in making all such Independent Director determinations, is set forth above and is included in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, a copy of which is available in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. In addition and as part of the evaluation of potential candidates, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee considers the breadth of a candidate's business and professional skills and experiences, diversity of background, reputation for personal integrity, and ability to devote sufficient time to Board service, as well as the Company's needs for particular skills, insight and/or talents on the Board of Directors. For incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee reviews such directors' overall service during their term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation and quality of performance. With respect to the Board seats presently held by Mr. Cleary and Mr. Bryenton, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee also considers the Company's contractual commitments in connection with the terms of the Jacobs Acquisition, as discussed above.

Following the retirement of William J. Poorvu from the Board in 2004, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, at its meeting on July 28-29, 2004, received recommendations from all of the members of the Board of Directors concerning potential independent director candidates to fill the remainder of Mr. Poorvu's unexpired term. Following careful consideration and evaluation of several recommended candidates, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee recommended to the Board that Matthew S. Dominski be appointed to fill the remainder of Mr. Poorvu's term, and the Board of Directors accepted such recommendation and appointed Mr. Dominski to the Board effective February 2, 2005. Mr. Dominski's appointment was initially recommended to the Committee by Charles B. Lebovitz and Stephen D. Lebovitz, based on Mr. Dominski's extensive experience in the real estate industry, including the retail shopping center sector, and his experience as CEO of another large, publicly traded REIT.

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will consider candidates for Board of Directors' seats proposed by stockholders. Any such proposals should be made in writing to CBL & Associates Properties, Inc., 2030 Hamilton Place Blvd., Suite 500, CBL Center, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 37421-6000, Attention: Corporate Secretary, and must be received no later than December 1, 2006, in order to be considered for the Company's 2007 Annual Meeting. In order to be considered by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, any candidate proposed by stockholders will be required to submit appropriate biographical and other information equivalent to that required of all other director candidates, including consent to an initial background check. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee does not intend to alter the manner in which it evaluates candidates on the criteria set forth above based on whether or not the candidate was recommended by a stockholder. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee met two times in 2005.

Compensation of Directors

During 2005, each Director not employed by the Company (a "Non-Employee Director") received from the Company an annual fee of $27,500. In addition to the annual fee, each Non-Employee Director received a meeting fee of $1,500 for each Board, Compensation Committee and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee meeting attended and $750 for each telephonic Board meeting attended and reimbursement of expenses incurred in attending meetings. In addition, but with the exception of the Non-Employee Director who was Chairman of the Audit Committee, each Non-Employee Director received from the Company a fee of $1,500 for each Audit Committee meeting attended. Each Non-Employee Director serving as a member of the Executive Committee received from the Company a monthly fee of $750 in lieu of meeting fees for participation on the Executive Committee in 2005. The Non-Employee Director serving as Chairman of the Audit Committee received a monthly fee of $2,000, in lieu of meeting fees for participation on the Audit Committee in 2005.

For each fiscal year of the Company, the Company's Stock Incentive Plan provides that each Non-Employee Director is entitled to receive either (i) an annual grant of options to purchase up to a maximum of 1,000 shares of Common Stock having an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value of the shares of Common Stock on December 31 of such fiscal year or (ii) an annual grant of up to a maximum of 1,000 shares of restricted Common Stock of the Company. For 2005, each Non-Employee Director received 500 shares of restricted Common Stock of the Company with a value (on the date of grant, January 3, 2006) of $40.13 per share, the average of the high and low trading prices of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the NYSE on January 3, 2006. The restrictions on shares of Common Stock received by the Non-Employee Directors are set forth in the Stock Incentive Plan and provide that such shares may not be transferred during the Non-Employee Director's term and for one year thereafter. Each holder of a Non-Employee Director option granted pursuant to the above-stated arrangement has the same rights as other holders of options in the event of a change in control. Options granted to the Non-Employee Directors (A) shall have a term of 10 years from date of grant, (B) are 100% vested upon grant, (C) are non-forfeitable prior to the expiration of the term except upon the Non-Employee Director's conviction for any criminal activity involving the Company or, if non-exercised, within one year following the date the Non-Employee Director ceases to be a Director of the Company, and (D) are non-transferable. In addition, any person who becomes a Non-Employee Director will receive an initial grant of 1,000 shares of restricted Common Stock upon joining the Board of Directors. The amounts of restricted stock and stock options referenced above have been adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split.

Philosophy. It is the philosophy of the Company to ensure that executive compensation be directly linked to financial objectives that the Company believes are primary determinates of stockholder value over time. The Compensation Committee's objectives in administering the Company's executive compensation are to ensure that pay levels and incentive compensation are (i) competitive in attracting and retaining the best personnel, (ii) properly linked to the Company's performance, and (iii) simple in design. To fulfill these objectives, the compensation approach for executives includes base salary, discretionary bonuses and periodic grants of stock awards and stock options pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plan. Non-executive employees are also eligible to participate in the Stock Incentive Plan.

The Company believes that the ability to use the Stock Incentive Plan to attract and retain key personnel has substantial value and has been and will continue to be essential to the growth of the Company. As demonstrated by the minimum stock ownership guidelines for non-employee directors and executive officers which were recently added to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Board of Directors, as well as the Compensation Committee, believe that it is in the best interests of the Company's stockholders for those who manage and oversee the Company's operations to have a stake in the creation of long-term stockholder value. The stock option and stock award elements of compensation are designed to encourage and create ownership and retention of the Company's stock by key employees, in order to align their long-range interests with those of stockholders and to allow the opportunity for key employees to build, through the achievement of corporate goals, a meaningful ownership stake in the Company.

Financial Criteria and Elements of Compensation. The Compensation Committee, based on recommendations made by the Company, utilized an executive compensation approach pursuant to which the compensation of officers of the level of vice president and higher during fiscal year 2005 consisted of three primary elements: a base salary, the opportunity to earn discretionary bonus compensation and restricted stock awards under the Stock Incentive Plan, in addition to the opportunity to participate in the Company's 401(k) Plan and life insurance and other benefit plans available generally to employees.

Base Salaries - The Compensation Committee establishes base salaries for the Company's officers, including the named executive officers, at levels which are intended to be reasonable and competitive in relation to the base salaries for executives at a group of seven comparable publicly traded mall REITs whose compensation structures the Committee reviewed in making base salary decisions for 2005. The Compensation Committee annually evaluates and approves adjustments to officers' base salaries. Such adjustments reflect the Compensation Committee's consideration of a variety of factors, including competitive pay levels, each officer's level of responsibility, experience and tenure with the Company, and the Committee's evaluation of both the Company's and each officer's overall performance.

Bonus Opportunities - For 2005, the Compensation Committee also provided each of the Company's officers and certain other designated management-level employees with the opportunity to earn bonuses designed to reward such persons for the achievement of objectives believed by the Compensation Committee to contribute significantly to the Company's overall performance and the creation of stockholder value. For all but three senior executives of the Company, the potential bonus that each officer could earn, as well as the amount ultimately paid, was based upon the successful continuation and/or completion of development, financing, leasing and re-leasing, temporary leasing, sponsorships, management, accounting, marketing, remodelings, expansions, peripheral property sales, acquisitions and joint ventures with respect to the Company and its properties identified by the Compensation Committee as being within such executive's areas of responsibility. Such bonus criteria are specific to each executive. For three of the Company's senior executives (the Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Vice President - Management and the Senior Vice President - Accounting and Controller), the Compensation Committee allocated up to $1,075,000 of funds to be available as bonuses that could be earned by such officers for 2005, and determined the amount of the actual bonuses to be paid during the fourth quarter, based on the Compensation Committee's evaluation of such officers' performance during the year. As an additional means of encouraging equity ownership in the Company, the Compensation Committee allows each officer who receives a bonus the choice of whether to have the bonus paid in cash or in shares of the Company's Common Stock issued under the Stock Incentive Plan. The number of shares issued for any bonus that an officer elects to receive in Common Stock is determined based on the market value of the Common Stock on the date when such bonus becomes payable.

Restricted Stock Awards - The third principal element of officer compensation for 2005 was awards of shares of restricted stock under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan. Restricted stock awards to both officer and non-officer employees are made annually in May, and generally vest in five equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the grant. The Compensation Committee's objective in making restricted stock awards to the Company's officers is to increase the alignment of their economic interests with the interests of the Company's stockholders, thereby supplementing the incentives provided by annual bonuses with additional incentives for the officers to manage the Company with a view towards maximizing long-term stockholder value. The number of shares granted annually to officers, including the named executive officers, is based on the Compensation Committee's consideration of each officer's level of responsibility, experience and tenure with the Company and the Committee's evaluation of each officer's performance during the preceding year. In determining the total amount of restricted stock to be granted annually, including awards to Company officers, the Compensation Committee also considers such factors as the number of shares available for issuance under the Stock Incentive Plan, potential dilution and the Company's overall performance during the preceding year. Restricted stock awards to all employees during 2005 totaled 208,200 shares (as adjusted for the 6/15/05 Stock Split) amounting to substantially less than 1% of the Company's total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the date of grant.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. During fiscal year 2005, Charles B. Lebovitz was paid compensation by the Management Company having an aggregate value of $1,217,526 consisting of: (i) a base salary of $542,526 (which sum included 2,921 shares of Common Stock paid to Mr. Lebovitz as part of his salary pursuant to a quarterly deferral arrangement under the Stock Incentive Plan); (ii) a cash bonus of $675,000; and (iii) an award of 20,000 restricted shares of Common Stock (adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split). Mr. Lebovitz receives annual reviews for salary increases on the same basis as other executive officers of the Company, and also is eligible for discretionary annual bonuses determined as described above. Additionally, Mr. Lebovitz participates in the Company's incentive plans, including the Stock Incentive Plan. During fiscal year 2005, the 20,000 shares of restricted Common Stock (valued at $39.525 per share, based on the closing price of the Common Stock on the NYSE as of the date of grant (May 9, 2005)) awarded to Mr. Lebovitz represented 9.6% of the total of 208,200 shares of restricted stock granted to all employees. The number of shares awarded to Mr. Lebovitz was determined as described above, based on the same criteria applied by the Compensation Committee to awards made to other executive officers of the Company.

Section 162(m) Issues. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") imposes a $1,000,000 ceiling on a publicly traded company's federal income tax deduction for compensation paid in a taxable year to an individual who, on the last day of the taxable year, was (i) the chief executive officer or (ii) among the four other most highly compensated executive officers whose compensation is reported in the Summary Compensation Table in such company's proxy statement. The limitation does not apply to any compensation that satisfies the certain specific and detailed requirements to be treated as "qualified performance-based compensation" under Section 162(m) and its associated regulations.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed the potential impacts of Section 162(m) on the anticipated tax treatment to the Company and its officers in its review and establishment of compensation programs and payments. While the Compensation Committee generally seeks to preserve the Company's ability to claim any applicable tax deductions for compensation paid to executives to the greatest extent practicable, the Compensation Committee also believes that stockholder interests are best served by having the Committee retain the discretion and flexibility to structure certain elements of the Company's incentive compensation programs based on considerations other than the full deductibility of compensation.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the SEC, nor shall such information or report be deemed incorporated by reference into any future filing by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates it by reference in such filing.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is composed of four Independent Directors (Winston W. Walker, Chairman, Claude M. Ballard, Gary L. Bryenton and Matthew S. Dominski) and operates under an amended and restated written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the amended and restated charter is available and can be accessed in the "Investing - Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. The Company's Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is "independent" pursuant to the listing standards of the NYSE as currently applicable.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and for issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with Management and the Company's independent auditors. Management reported to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements for the Company's 2005 fiscal year were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed these consolidated financial statements with Management and the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended.

The Company's independent auditors also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors their firm's independence. The Audit Committee considered whether the provision of services by the independent auditors (other than audit services) is compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence.

Pursuant to the mandates of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Company's Board of Directors has determined that Winston W. Walker, an Independent Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee, qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" as such term is defined by the SEC.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the Company's audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, filed with the SEC and provide in such Annual Report on Form 10-K the disclosure of Winston W. Walker as an "audit committee financial expert".

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Management Company and Management Agreement

The Company is party to a management agreement with the Management Company pursuant to which the Management Company renders management and administrative services with respect to the Company's properties. The Management Company also provides management services for certain properties owned by CBL's Predecessor and certain other third parties for which the Management Company is paid a management fee. See "Retained Property Interests." The Operating Partnership owns 100% of both of the Management Company's preferred stock and its common stock.

Operating Partnership Agreement; CBL Rights

The Company, through subsidiaries, serves as the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership and owned, as of March 13, 2006, 64,116,757 common partnership units, representing a 1.625% interest as the sole general partner and a 53.867% interest as a limited partner for an aggregate 55.492% interest in the Operating Partnership. As of March 13, 2006, CBL's Predecessor owned 14,678,230 common partnership units, representing a 12.704% limited partner interest in the Operating Partnership and CBL's Predecessor also owned 2,985,678 shares of the Company's Common Stock, for a combined total interest of 15.288% in the Operating Partnership. Certain executive and senior officers also own common partnership units.

Pursuant to the Operating Partnership Agreement, the limited partners possess CBL Rights, consisting of the rights to exchange all or a portion of their common units or special common units (as applicable) in the Operating Partnership for shares of Common Stock or their cash equivalent, at the Company's election. The CBL Rights may be exercised at any time and from time to time to the extent that, upon exercise of the CBL Rights, the exercising party shall not beneficially or constructively own shares of Common Stock in excess of the applicable share ownership limits set forth in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation. The Company, however, may not pay in shares of Common Stock to the extent that this would result in a limited partner beneficially or constructively owning in the aggregate more than its applicable ownership limit or otherwise jeopardize, in the opinion of counsel to the Company, the Company's qualification as a REIT for tax purposes.

The number of shares of Common Stock received by the limited partners of the Operating Partnership upon exercise of CBL Rights will be based upon the equivalent number of partnership units owned by the limited partners on a one-for-one basis and the amount of cash received by the limited partners upon such exercise, if the Company elects to pay cash, will be based upon the trading price of the shares of Common Stock at the time of exercise.

CBL Rights will expire in November 2043 if not exercised prior to that date.

Retained Property Interests

CBL's Predecessor owns interests in outparcels at certain of the Company's malls and a minority interest in one mall, the majority interest of which is owned by third parties. Certain members of Charles B. Lebovitz's family continue to own four community and neighborhood centers. The properties retained by CBL's Predecessor and the properties owned by the Lebovitz family are managed and leased by the Management Company which receives a fee for its services. During fiscal year 2005, CBL's Predecessor and the Lebovitz family paid the Management Company approximately $336,000 under such arrangement.

Affiliated Entities

Certain executive officers of the Company collectively have a significant but non-controlling interest in a major national construction company that built substantially all of the properties developed by the Company and is currently building the Company's projects under construction, including renovations and expansions. Charles B. Lebovitz is also a director of the construction company. The majority interest in the construction company is held by the members of its senior management, none of whom are affiliated with CBL's Predecessor or the Company. As of December 31, 2005, the Company had 19 active contracts (including contracts with respect to each of the construction properties) with such construction company having an aggregate value of approximately $122.1 million ($111.2 million of which is the Company's obligation and the balance of which is the obligation of third party partners). During fiscal year 2005, the Company and its third party partners paid an aggregate of approximately $118.8 million to this construction company ($108.8 million of which was paid by the Company and the balance of which was paid by third party partners). The Company's Audit Committee reviews the relationship between the Company and the referenced construction company pursuant to procedures established in November 1994. These procedures include an ongoing review by the Company's independent auditors of a cross section of the Company's contracts with the referenced construction company for, among other things, the provisions for allocation of cost savings between owner and contractor.

The construction company and CBL's Predecessor own all of the interests of a partnership that owns two aircraft and a fractional interest in another aircraft used by the personnel of the Company and the construction company. Each partner contributes equally to fixed costs and shares variable costs through an hourly charge based on usage. The Company reimburses the partnership for costs on an hourly basis associated with use of the aircraft relating to the business of the Company. During fiscal year 2005, the Company paid approximately $2.6 million as reimbursement for operating expenses pursuant to such arrangement, with the amount of such reimbursement being previously approved by the Company's Independent Directors.

The Bylaws provide that any contract or transaction (i) between the Company or the Operating Partnership and one or more directors or officers of the Company or (ii) between the Company or the Operating Partnership and any other entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, must be approved by disinterested directors or stockholders after the material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to them. During 2005, all of such contracts and transactions were reviewed and approved by disinterested directors, including all of the Independent Directors.

Certain Leases

Certain officers and certain Company employees are partners in partnerships that lease 32 spaces representing approximately 30,000 square feet in 24 of the Company's malls as tenants. Such spaces are operated as food service and entertainment establishments. Management believes that, at the time these leases were entered into, they provided for rental payments at market rates and terms.

Shumacker Witt Gaither & Whitaker, P.C., local counsel to the Company and CBL's Predecessor, leases 6,357 square feet of office space at the Company's office building in Chattanooga, Tennessee. The construction company also leases 20,637 square feet of office space at the Company's office building in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Management believes that, at the time these leases were entered into, they provided for rental payments at market rates and terms.

Other

Michael I. Lebovitz and Alan L. Lebovitz, sons of Charles B. Lebovitz, are employed by the Company as Senior Vice President - Mall Projects and Vice President - Asset Management, respectively, and Daniel M. Backer, the son-in-law of Charles B. Lebovitz, also is employed by the Company. Each receives compensation from the Company commensurate with his level of experience and other Company employees having similar responsibilities. During 2005, the aggregate cash compensation paid by the Company to these individuals was as follows: Michael I. Lebovitz - $579,309, Alan L. Lebovitz - $397,291 and Daniel M. Backer - $83,750. Each also is eligible for equity awards under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan on the same basis as other, similarly situated employees.

Charles B. Lebovitz is currently an advisory director of First Tennessee Bank, N.A., Chattanooga, Tennessee ("First Tennessee"). The Company is currently maintaining a $100 million line of credit from First Tennessee that matures in

2007. There was approximately $52.1 million outstanding on this line of credit as of December 31, 2005. First Tennessee also provides certain cash management services to the Company. In the future, the Company or the Operating Partnership may, in the ordinary course of business, engage in other transactions with First Tennessee on competitive terms.

John N. Foy is currently an advisory director of AmSouth Bank of Tennessee ("AmSouth"). The Company is currently maintaining a $10 million line of credit from AmSouth that matures in 2007. There was approximately $5.3 million of letters of credit drawn on this line of credit as of December 31, 2005. In addition, AmSouth is the lender on a $9.5 million construction loan for one of the Company's projects and approximately $8.6 million was outstanding on such construction loan as of December 31, 2005. AmSouth is a 25% participant in the First Tennessee line of credit referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph and provides certain cash management services to the Company. AmSouth currently serves as the administrator of the Management Company's 401(k) Plan but such services will be terminated as of July 1, 2006. In the future, the Company or the Operating Partnership may, in the ordinary course of business, engage in other transactions with AmSouth on competitive terms.

RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF
INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The firm of Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte & Touche") has served as the independent auditors for the Company since May 7, 2002, and the Audit Committee has recommended, subject to ratification by the stockholders, that Deloitte & Touche serve as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Independent Registered Public Accountants' Fees and Services

The Company was billed for professional services provided during fiscal years 2004 and 2005 by Deloitte & Touche in the amounts set out in the following table.

	2004	2005
Audit Fees (1).....	$ 730,880	$ 730,880
Audit-Related Fees (2).....	537,700	2,000,000
Tax Fees - Compliance (3).....	198,525	1,000,000
Tax Fees - Consulting (4).....	392,255	3,000,000
All Other Fees (5).....	48,043	-
Total.....	$1,907,403	$1,600,000

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has considered the services rendered by Deloitte & Touche for services other than the audit of the Company's financial statements and has determined that the provision of these services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Deloitte & Touche.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy that it is required to approve all services (audit and/or non-audit) to be performed by the independent auditor to assure that the provision of such services does not impair such auditor's independence. All services, engagement terms, conditions and fees, as well as changes in such terms, conditions and fees, must be approved by the Audit Committee in advance. The Audit Committee will annually review and approve services that may be provided by the independent auditor during the next year and will revise the list of approved services from time to time based on subsequent determinations. The Audit Committee believes that the independent auditor can provide tax services to the Company such as tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice without impairing such auditor's independence and that such tax services do not constitute prohibited services pursuant to SEC and/or NYSE rules. The authority to approve services may be delegated by the Audit Committee to one or more of its members including the Chairman of the Audit Committee, but may not be delegated to management. If authority to approve services has been delegated to an Audit Committee member, any such approval of services must be reported to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Recommendation and Vote Necessary to Approve the Proposal

The Board of Directors, in concurrence with the Audit Committee, proposes and recommends that the stockholders ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche to serve as the independent auditors for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. Unless otherwise directed by the stockholders, proxies will be voted for approval of the selection of Deloitte & Touche to serve as the Company's independent auditors for the 2006 fiscal year. A representative of Deloitte & Touche will attend the Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement and to respond to appropriate questions.

The ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent auditors for the 2006 fiscal year must be approved by a majority of the shares of Common Stock present or represented at the Annual Meeting.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

If you and other residents at your mailing address own common stock in street name, your broker or bank may have sent you a notice that your household will receive only one annual report and proxy statement for each company in which you hold shares through that broker or bank. This practice of sending only one copy of proxy materials is known as "householding." If you did not respond that you did not want to participate in householding, you were deemed to have consented to the process. If the foregoing procedures apply to you, your broker has sent one copy of our annual report and proxy to your address. However, even if your broker has sent only one copy of these proxy materials, you should receive a proxy card for each stockholder in your household.

You may revoke your consent to householding at any time by sending your name, the name of your brokerage firm and your account number to Householding Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, NY 11717 (telephone number: 1-800-542-1061). The revocation of your consent to householding will be effective 30 days following its receipt. If you are receiving multiple copies of our annual report and proxy statement, you can request householding by contacting us in the same manner. In any event, if you did not receive an individual copy of this proxy statement or our annual report, you can obtain a copy by contacting our Director of Investor Relations, either by mail at our corporate office or by e-mail to Katie_Reinsmidt@cblproperties.com.

OTHER BUSINESS OF THE MEETING

Management is not aware of any matters to come before the Annual Meeting other than those stated in this Proxy Statement. However, if any matters of which management is not now aware should come before the meeting or any adjournment, the proxies confer discretionary authority with respect to acting thereon, and the persons named in such proxies intend to vote, act and consent in accordance with their best judgment with respect thereto. Upon receipt of such proxies (in the form enclosed and properly signed) in time for voting, the shares represented thereby will be voted as indicated thereon and in this Proxy Statement.
