Vote "FOR" Nelson Peltz on the WHITE Proxy Card

ISS SAYS:

"[Trian] presents a compelling case that a limited degree of boardroom change would be beneficial. The addition of one well-qualified nominee, who holds a large economic stake, appears likely to have benefits that outweigh the potential risks. Support for dissident nominee Peltz is recommended."

"Given his extensive CPG experience, and his firm's analytical capability and significant portfolio exposure to P&G, Peltz appears far more like a vested shareholder who could help the board look around the next corner and avoid future missteps than simply a "what's the harm" addition."

GLASS LEWIS SAYS:

"[I]nvestors have an opportunity to encourage fresh discussion through the election of a qualified, well-established shareholder candidate backed by what we believe to be cogent, well-framed arguments and a set of strategic initiatives that should, at the very least, set the table for a more candid evaluation of P&G's risks and opportunities."

"[W]hile P&G is quick to point to the Company's existing restructuring effort, we consider there are relatively few decisively favorable metrics on which the board can hang its hat with confidence. In contrast, we find Trian more readily identifies a number of problematic trends – from TSR to operational growth metrics to market share – that suggest P&G's existing trajectory is less than attractive."

EGAN-JONES SAYS:

“The success of Mr. Peltz in Mondelez, Heinz, and Wendys, in our view, is a well-founded attestation of Trian’s ability to reposition P&G as the top global provider of consumer products.”

“We believe that the election of Mr. Peltz will encourage the very talented and competitive incumbent Board to step up its game and improve both the structure and performance of the firm in the long run.”
