PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Five directors, constituting the entire Board of Directors, are to be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. All of the nominees are currently directors of the Company. Mr. John J. Brown served as a Director of the Company from July 1993 until his untimely passing in August 2002.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election of directors at the Annual Meeting. The Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation prohibit cumulative voting for the election of directors. All duly submitted and unrevoked Proxy Cards will be voted FOR the nominees selected by the Board of Directors except where authorization so to vote is withheld. Votes withheld and broker non-votes are not counted in the election of directors.

The Board of Directors recommends that all shareholders vote "FOR" the election of all such nominees. If any nominee should become unavailable for election for any presently unforeseen reason, the persons designated to serve as proxies will have full discretion to vote for another person nominated by the Board.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Company has adopted a policy for Corporate Governance which is broadly in line with the standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, and commensurate with its size and stage of development.

The Board consists of five directors, four of whom are independent within the meaning of the Nasdaq rules. The fifth is the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. The Board meets at least four times each year, and more frequently as required, and is responsible for supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Company, including the development of major policy and strategy. The Board has a standing Executive Committee, Audit Committee, and Compensation Committee, but does not have a standing nominating committee.

During the year ended December 31, 2002, the Board held nine meetings (including six combined meetings with the Audit Committee), the Executive Committee held one meeting, the Audit Committee held eleven meetings (including six combined meetings with the Board), and the Compensation Committee held one meeting. During the year ended December 31, 2002, each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of (a) the total number of meetings held by the Board and (b) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board on which he served.

Governance responsibilities are undertaken by the Board as a whole, with certain specific responsibilities delegated to the three Committees as described below:

- o The Executive Committee is composed of Messrs. Odishaw (Chairman), Doumet and Byrne. Within the policy and strategic direction provided by the Board, the Executive Committee may exercise all of the powers of the Board, except those required by law to be exercised by the full Board, and is required to report to the Board on all matters considered and actions taken since the last meeting of the full Board.
- o The Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors, Messrs. Cardin (Chairman), Irmischer and Odishaw, one of whom is an accounting professional. The Audit Committee reviews the results of independent audits and the accounting policies of management, and it recommends to the Board the appointment of the Company's independent auditors. A copy of the Audit Committee's Revised Charter, which was adopted by the Board effective February 27, 2003, is attached as Exhibit A to this Proxy statement. The Report of the Audit Committee is set forth below.
- o The Compensation Committee is composed of three independent directors, Messrs. Odishaw (Chairman), Irmischer and Doumet. The Compensation Committee is responsible for the evaluation, approval, and administration of salary, incentive compensation, bonuses, benefit plans, and other forms of compensation for the Company's officers and directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering the 1992 Plan and the 2001 Plan. The Report of the Compensation Committee follows the Report of the Audit Committee.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the following reports of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee and the Performance Graph set forth below shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference the Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference. This information shall not otherwise be deemed to be filed under such Acts.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee (the "Committee") is composed of three directors who are independent directors, as defined under the rules of Nasdaq. The Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors and oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including systems of internal controls. Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors, is responsible for expressing an opinion on the financial statements based on its audits. The principal duties and responsibilities of the Committee are to:

- o Review the financial information that will be provided to the shareholders and others;
- o Review the accounting policies that management has established;
- o Review the systems of internal controls that management and the Board have established;
- o Recommend to the Board a firm to be selected as the Company's independent auditors;
- o Review the audit scope and plan and the results of the independent audit;
- o Confirm the independence of the independent auditors, reviewing as necessary all relationships and services which might bear on the objectivity of the auditors;
- o Review the non-audit services provided by the independent auditors, and the fees for such services and conclude that the non-audit services provided were compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence;
- o Convey information among the Board and the independent auditors;
- o Involve the independent auditors in the Committee's review of the Company's financial statements and related reports with management;
- o Provide the independent auditors with full access to the Committee and the Board to report on any and all appropriate matters;
- o Discuss with the independent auditors all matters required to be reviewed by generally accepted auditing standards.
- o Investigate any matter brought to the attention of the Committee within the scope of its duties, with the power to retain outside counsel, or other advisors, if judged appropriate; and
- o Submit the minutes of all Committee meetings and report the results of the Committee activities to the Board.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Company's 2002 Annual Report with both management and the Company's independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP, which included a discussion of the quality as well as the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). In addition, the Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and has also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP its independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors,

Richard W. Cardin, Chairman

Wallace G. Irmischer

Edward A. Odishaw

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") have the responsibility for administering the executive compensation program of the Company. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the full Board of Directors regarding the base salaries and annual incentive compensation for executive officers, and administers the Company's 1992 Stock Option Plan, as Amended and Restated (the "1992 Plan") and the Company's 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "2001 Plan").

COMPENSATION POLICIES. The principal executive compensation policy of the Company, which is endorsed by the Committee, is to provide a compensation program that will attract, motivate, and retain persons of high quality and will support a long-standing internal culture of loyalty and dedication to the interests of the Company and its shareholders. In administering the executive compensation program, the Committee is mindful of the following principles and guidelines which are supported by the full Board:

Base salaries for executive officers should be competitive. A sufficient portion of annual compensation should be at risk in order to align the interests of executives with those of the shareholders of the Company. This variable part of annual compensation should reflect both individual and corporate performance. As a person's level of responsibility increases, a greater portion of total compensation should be at risk, and the mix of total compensation should be weighted more heavily in favor of stock-based compensation. Stock options, restricted shares of stock and other stock-based compensation provide executives long-term incentive and help align the interests of executives and shareholders in the enhancement of shareholder value.

Edgar Filing: UNITED STATES LIME & MINERALS INC - Form DEF 14A

As discussed elsewhere in this Proxy Statement, the Company has entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Bowers, Hughes and Byrne. These agreements provide for an annual base salary, bonuses, the use of a Company car, reimbursement of business expenses, participation in the 401(k) profit-sharing plan, severance arrangements and other benefits. The Committee has determined that such agreements are appropriate means to achieve the Company's overall compensation policies.

2002 COMPENSATION. The Company's executive compensation packages have three separate elements; consisting of base salary, annual incentive compensation, and long-term incentive compensation. The compensation packages of Mr. Byrne and the other executive officers are designed to be competitive within the industry and to provide incentives for both short- and long-term performance in line with the financial interests of the shareholders.

BASE SALARIES. The Committee determines levels of the executive officers' base salaries so as to be competitive with amounts paid to executives performing similar functions in comparable size non-durable manufacturing companies. The amount of each executive's annual increase in base salary, if any, will be based on a number of largely subjective factors, including the personal performance of such executive officer, the performance of the Company, cost-of-living increases, and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate, including the individual's overall mix between fixed and variable compensation and between cash and stock-based compensation. Executive officer raises in 2002 averaged approximately 2.5%. Mr. Byrne's base salary did not increase in 2002.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE COMPENSATION. Each of the Company's executive officers is eligible to receive annual cash bonus awards based on determinations made by the Committee. Except in the case of Mr. Byrne, the Company has not adopted a formal annual bonus plan. Rather, the determination to pay a cash bonus, if any, is based on the Committee's subjective judgment with respect to the past performance of the individual, or on the individual's attainment of objective performance goals. In either such case, the bonus may be based on the specific accomplishments of the individual, or on the overall success of the Company. The Committee awarded the following bonuses for 2002: Mr. Bowers, $2,000; Mr. Hughes, $7,500; Mr. Murray, $5,000; and Mr. Owens, $4,000 which were paid in 2003.

As described elsewhere in this Proxy Statement, Mr. Byrne's employment agreement provides for an objective annual cash bonus based on percentage increases in the Company's EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) using 2000 EBITDA as a base, as well as the possibility of a subjective cash bonus in the discretion of the Committee. For 2002, the increase in the Company's EBITDA resulted in Mr. Byrne's earning an objective bonus of approximately $90,000. In addition, the Committee awarded Mr. Byrne a discretionary bonus of $10,000, for a total bonus of $100,000 for 2002 which was paid in 2003.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE COMPENSATION. The Committee also administers the 1992 Plan and the 2001 Plan to provide long-term incentives to its key employees, including executive officers. Grants of options, restricted shares of stock and other stock-based compensation are based on each individual's position within the Company, level of responsibility, past performance and expectation of future performance. No options or other stock-based compensation were granted during 2002.

Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("Code") Section 162(m) generally limits the corporate income tax deduction for compensation paid to certain named executive officers to $1 million per year, except for certain qualified and performance-based compensation. The Committee has not seen any need to adopt a policy with regard to qualifying bonus awards for tax deductibility under Code Section 162(m), since Company cash compensation is well below the level at which this tax limitation would apply, and most of the Company's stock options granted previously were not subject to the limitation. Options that were granted in 1999 and thereafter under the 1992 Plan, as amended and restated in 1999, and that were or will be granted under the 2001 Plan are intended to constitute performance-based compensation not subject to the Code Section 162(m) limitation.

EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AND TERMINATION AGREEMENTS

The Company has employment agreements with Messrs. Bowers, Hughes and Byrne. Such employment agreements are designed to ensure that the Company will be able to attract, motivate, and retain highly qualified talent, which is critical to both the short- and long-term success of the Company.

The employment agreements provide for a base salary to be reviewed annually. Mr. Byrne and the Company entered into an employment agreement as of December 8, 2000, which provides him with an annual base salary of at least $240,000. In addition to the base salary, the agreements for Messrs. Byrne, Bowers and Hughes provide for a discretionary bonus to be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In addition to the possibility of a discretionary bonus, Mr. Byrne's agreement provides that Mr. Byrne is eligible to receive an objective bonus determined by percentage increases in the Company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization ("EBITDA"). In the event of a change of control of the Company, and Mr. Byrne's termination, Mr. Byrne is entitled to severance payments equal to his then-current annual base salary, benefits and bonuses for at least one year, depending on the reason for and date of his termination in relation to the change in control. The employment agreements also provide for use of a Company car, reimbursement of business expenses, and participation in the Company's 401(k) profit-sharing plan. Participation in the Company's ESOP ceased on July 31, 1999 when the ESOP was merged with the 401(k) profit-sharing plan. In the case of Mr. Bowers, his severance payment would be six months' compensation. Mr. Hughes does not have a severance arrangement, but is generally entitled to one-year's notice before termination. Mr. Byrne is entitled to severance payments equal to his then-current annual base salary, benefits and bonuses for one year if he is terminated without cause. Mr. Hughes' and Mr. Byrne's agreements contain certain post-termination covenants not to compete. Mr. Bower's and Mr. Hughes' agreements have no expiration dates. Mr. Byrne's agreement expires on December 31, 2003, and is thereafter renewable for successive one-year periods, unless the agreement is terminated earlier by him or the Company. Pursuant to Mr. Byrne's employment agreement, the Company agreed to use its best efforts to cause Mr. Byrne to remain on the Board and to be appointed a member of the Executive Committee of the Board.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors who are not employees of the Company, other than the Chairman of the Board of Directors, are paid an annual retainer of $11,000 plus $600 per day on Company business. The Chairman of the Board is paid an annual retainer of $40,000 plus $800 per day on Company business.

Such notices should be addressed to Timothy W. Byrne, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The costs of solicitation of Proxies for the Annual Meeting will be borne by the Company. Solicitation may be made by mail, personal interview, telephone, and/or telegraph by officers and regular employees of the Company who will receive no additional compensation therefor. The Company may specifically engage a firm to aid in the solicitation of Proxies, for which services the Company would anticipate paying a standard reasonable fee plus out-of-pocket expenses. The Company will bear the reasonable expenses incurred by banks, brokerage firms, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners.
