The Board has a policy encouraging each director to attend the Company's annual meeting of shareholders, and all of the Company's directors attended the 2003 annual meeting. The Board also has a policy that, in conjunction with each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, the Board's independent directors will meet in executive session.

Governance responsibilities are undertaken by the Board as a whole, with certain specific responsibilities delegated to the four Committees as described below:

The Executive Committee is composed of Messrs. Odishaw (Chairman), Doumet and Byrne. Within the policy and strategic direction provided by the Board, the Executive Committee may exercise all of the powers of the Board, except those required by law, regulation or Nasdaq listing standards to be exercised by the full Board, or another Committee of the Board, and is required to report to the Board on all matters considered and actions taken since the last meeting of the full Board.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the Nominating Committee) is composed of Messrs. Odishaw (Chairman), Cardin, Doumet and Irscher, each of whom is an independent director. The primary purposes of the Nominating Committee are to identify and recommend individuals to serve as members of the Board, to recommend to the Board the duties and responsibilities and members of each Committee, and to assist the Board with other matters to ensure effective corporate governance. The Nominating Committee is responsible for establishing the Board's procedures for consideration of director nominees from shareholders and the Board's process for shareholder communications with the Board. The Nominating Committee will consider qualified candidates for nomination for election to the Board recommended by the Company's directors, officers and shareholders. In considering all such candidates, the Nominating Committee will take into account the candidate's qualifications and the size, composition and needs of the Board, in the following areas of experience, judgment, expertise, and skills: the Company's industry; accounting and finance; business judgment; management; leadership; business strategy; risk management; and corporate governance. All candidates should have a reputation for integrity, have experience in positions with a high degree of responsibility, be leaders in the companies, institutions, or professions with which they have been affiliated, and be capable of making a contribution to the Company. Shareholders wishing to recommend a director candidate for consideration by the Nominating Committee should send all relevant information with respect to the individual to the Chairman of the Committee, at the address of the Company's executive offices. A copy of the Nominating Committee's Charter, which was adopted by the Board effective March 25, 2004, and the Board's process for shareholders to send communications to the Board are available on the Company's website located at www.uslm.com.

The Audit Committee is composed of Messrs. Cardin (Chairman), Irmischer and Odishaw. The Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is independent and meets the other qualification standards set by law, regulation and applicable Nasdaq listing standards. Based on his past education, employment experience and professional certification in public accounting, the Board has determined that Mr. Cardin qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee is also responsible for overseeing the administration of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is available on the Company's website located at www.uslm.com; reviewing and approving all related-party transactions; and administering the Company's procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters and for the confidential anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. A copy of the Audit Committee's Amended and Restated Charter, which was adopted by the Board effective March 24, 2004, is attached as Exhibit A to this Proxy Statement. The Report of the Audit Committee is set forth below.

The Compensation Committee is composed of three independent directors, Messrs. Odishaw (Chairman), Irmischer, and Doumet. The Compensation Committee is responsible for the evaluation, approval, and administration of salary, incentive compensation, bonuses, benefit plans, and other forms of compensation for the Company's officers and directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering the 1992 Plan and the 2001 Plan. The Report of the Compensation Committee follows the Report of the Audit Committee.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the following reports of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee and the Performance Graph set forth below shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference the Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference. This information shall not otherwise be deemed to be filed under such Acts.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee is composed of three independent directors as defined under the applicable rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors, is responsible for expressing an opinion, based on its audit, on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. In light of certain new Nasdaq Stock Market listing requirements, the Audit Committee reviewed its Charter and determined that it was appropriate to amend the Charter. A copy of the Amended and Restated Charter is attached as Exhibit A to the Proxy Statement.

Table of Contents

In the performance of its oversight function, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90 (Audit Committee Communications). In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures required by the pronouncements on the Independence Standards Board and discussed with them their independence from the Company and its management. The Audit Committee has considered whether the independent auditors' provision of non-audit services to the Company is compatible with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended and the Board of Directors has approved the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, for filing with the SEC.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors,

Richard W. Cardin, Chairman
Wallace G. Irmscher
Edward A. Odishaw

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") has the responsibility for administering the executive compensation program of the Company. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the full Board of Directors regarding the base salaries and annual incentive compensation for executive officers, and administers the Company's 1992 Stock Option Plan, as Amended and Restated (the "1992 Plan"), and the Company's 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "2001 Plan").

Compensation Policies. The principal executive compensation policy of the Company, which is endorsed by the Committee, is to provide a compensation program that will attract, motivate, and retain persons of high quality and will support a long-standing internal culture of loyalty and dedication to the interests of the Company and its shareholders. In administering the executive compensation program, the Committee is mindful of the following principles and guidelines which are supported by the full Board:

Base salaries for executive officers should be competitive. A sufficient portion of annual compensation should be at risk in order to align the interests of executives with those of the shareholders of the Company. This variable part of annual compensation should reflect both individual and corporate performance. As a person's level of responsibility increases, a greater portion of total compensation should be at risk, and the mix of total compensation should be weighted more heavily in favor of stock-based compensation. Stock options, restricted stock, and other stock-based compensation provide executives long-term incentive and help align the interests of executives and shareholders in the enhancement of shareholder value.

As discussed elsewhere in the Proxy Statement, the Company has entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Bowers, Hughes, and Byrne. These agreements provide for an annual base salary, bonuses, the use of a Company car, reimbursement of business expenses, participation in the 401(k) profit-sharing plan, severance arrangements, and other benefits. The Committee has determined that such agreements are appropriate means to achieve the Company's overall compensation policies.

Table of Contents

2003 Compensation. The Company's executive compensation packages have three separate elements consisting of base salary, annual incentive compensation, and long-term incentive compensation. The compensation packages of Mr. Byrne and the other executive officers are designed to be competitive within the industry and to provide incentives for both short- and long-term performance in line with the financial interests of the shareholders.

Base Salaries. The Committee determines levels of the executive officers' base salaries so as to be competitive with amounts paid to executives performing similar functions in comparable size non-durable manufacturing companies. The amount of each executive's annual increase in base salary, if any, will be based on a number of largely subjective factors, including the personal performance of such executive officer, the performance of the Company, cost-of-living increases, and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate, including the individual's overall mix between fixed and variable compensation and between cash and stock-based compensation. Executive officer raises in 2003 averaged approximately 2.5%. Mr. Byrne's base salary, which had not been adjusted since he rejoined the Company in December 2000, was increased approximately 4.2% to $250,000 in 2003.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Each of the Company's executive officers is eligible to receive annual cash bonus awards based on determinations made by the Committee. Except in the case of Mr. Byrne, the Company has not adopted a formal annual bonus plan. Rather, the determination to pay a cash bonus, if any, is based on the Committee's subjective judgment with respect to the past performance of the individual, or on the individual's attainment of objective performance goals. In either such case, the bonus may be based on the specific accomplishments of the individual, or on the overall success of the Company. The Committee awarded the following bonuses for 2003 which were paid in 2004: Mr. Bowers, $3,000; Mr. Hughes, $30,000; Mr. Murray, $30,000; and Mr. Owens, $15,000.

As described elsewhere in the Proxy Statement, Mr. Byrne's employment agreement provides for an objective annual cash bonus based on the Company's EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization) compared to certain EBITDA levels set forth in Mr. Byrne's employment agreement, as well as the possibility of a subjective cash bonus in the discretion of the Committee. For 2003, the increase in the Company's EBITDA resulted in Mr. Byrne's earning an objective bonus of $250,000, which was paid in 2004. No subjective bonus was awarded for 2003.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The Committee also administers the 1992 Plan and the 2001 Plan to provide long-term incentives to its key employees, including executive officers. Grants of stock options, restricted shares of stock, and other stock-based compensation are based on each individual's position within the Company, level of responsibility, past performance, and expectation of future performance. Stock options granted during 2003 were: Mr. Byrne, 30,000; Mr. Hughes, 10,000; Mr. Murray, 6,000; and Mr. Owens, 12,000.

Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Code) Section 162(m) generally limits the corporate income tax deduction for compensation paid to certain named executive officers to $1 million per year, except for certain qualified and performance-based compensation. The Committee has not seen any need to adopt a policy with regard to qualifying bonus awards for tax deductibility under Code Section 162(m), since Company cash compensation is well below the level at which this tax limitation would apply, and options that were granted in 1999 and thereafter under the 1992 Plan, as amended and restated in 1999, and that were or will be granted under the 2001 Plan are intended to constitute performance-based compensation not subject to the Code Section 162(m) limitation.

Executive Employment and Termination Agreements

The Company has employment agreements with Messrs. Bowers, Hughes, and Byrne. Such employment agreements are designed to ensure that the Company will be able to attract, motivate, and retain highly qualified talent, which is critical to both the short- and long-term success of the Company.

The employment agreements provide for a base salary to be reviewed annually. Mr. Byrne and the Company entered into an amended and restated employment agreement as of May 2, 2003, which provides him with an annual base salary of at least $250,000. In addition to the base salary, the agreements for Messrs. Byrne, Bowers, and Hughes provide for a discretionary bonus to be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In addition to the possibility of a discretionary bonus, Mr. Byrne is eligible to receive an objective bonus based on the Company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA) compared to certain levels set forth in Mr. Byrne's employment agreement. Mr. Byrne is also entitled to an annual $30,000 contribution to fund a life insurance or retirement arrangement and a country club membership. In the event of a change of control of the Company, and Mr. Byrne's termination, Mr. Byrne is entitled to severance payments equal to his then-current annual base salary, benefits, and bonuses for at least one and a half years, depending on the reason for and date of his termination in relation to the change in control. Mr. Byrne is entitled to severance payments equal to his then-current annual base salary, benefits, and bonuses for one and a half years if he is terminated without cause. In the case of Mr. Bowers, his severance payment would be six months' compensation. Mr. Hughes does not have a severance arrangement, but is generally entitled to one-year's notice before termination. Mr. Hughes' and Mr. Byrne's agreements contain certain post-termination covenants not to compete. The employment agreements also provide for use of a Company car, reimbursement of business expenses, participation in the Company's 401(k) profit-sharing plan and other benefit programs on the same basis as other salaried employees. Mr. Bower's and Mr. Hughes' agreements have no expiration dates. Mr. Byrne's agreement expires on December 31, 2008, and is thereafter renewable for successive one-year periods, unless the agreement is terminated earlier by him or the Company. Pursuant to Mr. Byrne's employment agreement, the Company agreed to use its best efforts to cause Mr. Byrne to remain on the Board and to be appointed a member of the Executive Committee of the Board.

Fees for professional services provided by our independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP, for the last two fiscal years, in each of the following categories, are:

	2003	2002
Audit	$ 142,444	$ 84,500
Audit-Related	8,000	80,000
Tax	15,225	35,324
Total	$ 165,669	$ 199,824

Audit Fees. Fees for audit services include fees associated with the annual audit and the reviews of the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q.

Audit-Related Fees. Audit-related fees principally include fees relating to an employee benefit plan audit and accounting consultations. The 2002 audit-related fees included fees related to the Company's embezzlement investigation and associated restatements and reclassifications.

Tax Fees. Tax fees include fees relating to reviews and preparation of tax returns and tax consultations.

The Audit Committee has adopted a pre-approval policy relating to the providing of services by the Company's independent auditors. Under the Committee's pre-approval procedures, all services to be provided by the auditors must be approved in advance by the Committee. The Committee has delegated to the Chairman of the Committee the authority to approve such services up to $25,000 each in the case of either a change in the scope or cost of previously approved services, or an additional type of services that was not covered by a prior Committee approval. The Audit Committee does not delegate any of its approval authority to management.

Representatives of the firm of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board does not intend to present any other matters at the Annual Meeting and knows of no other matters that will be presented. However, if any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons designated as proxies on the enclosed Proxy Card intend to vote thereon in accordance with their best judgment.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

On August 5, 2003, the Company sold $14,000,000 of unsecured Subordinated Notes along with detachable warrants, in a private placement under Section (2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, to three accredited investors, one of which is an affiliate of Inberdon, the Company's majority shareholder, and another of which is an affiliate of Robert S. Beall, who at the time beneficially owned approximately 11% of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock. The terms of the transaction were reviewed and approved by the Company's Audit Committee. The Company believes that the terms of the private placement were more favorable to the Company than the proposals previously received. The Company's financial advisor provided an opinion to the Company's Board of Directors that, from a financial point of view, the private placement was fair to the unaffiliated holders of the Company's Common Stock in relation to other potential subordinated debt transactions then available to the Company.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Shareholder proposals submitted to the Company under SEC Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for its 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received by the Company at its office in Dallas, Texas, addressed to Timothy W. Byrne, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, not later than December 6, 2004. Such Rule 14a-8 shareholder proposals must comply with SEC rules.

The Company must receive notice of other matters, including non-Rule 14a-8 proposals, that shareholders may wish to raise at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders by February 19, 2005. If the Company does not receive timely notice of such other matters, the persons designated as proxies for such meeting will retain general discretionary authority to vote on such matters under SEC rules. Such notices should be addressed to Timothy W. Byrne, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The costs of solicitation of Proxies for the Annual Meeting will be borne by the Company. Solicitation may be made by mail, personal interview, telephone, and/or facsimile by officers and regular employees of the Company who will receive no additional compensation therefor. The Company may specifically engage a firm to aid in the solicitation of Proxies, for which services the Company would anticipate paying a standard reasonable fee plus out-of-pocket expenses. The Company will bear the reasonable expenses incurred by banks, brokerage firms, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners.

United States Lime & Minerals, Inc.
Amended and Restated
Audit Committee Charter

I. Organization

This Charter governs the organization of the Audit Committee and the scope of its duties and responsibilities. The Audit Committee shall, at least annually, review and assess the Charter, report to the Board of Directors the results of that review and assessment, and recommend any changes for the approval of the Board.

The Audit Committee shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and shall be composed of at least three members of the Board who, as determined by the Board, are independent and meet the other qualification standards set by federal and state legislation and regulation, applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and this Charter. Each member of the Audit Committee shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. At least one member of the Audit Committee shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication. The Audit Committee shall determine whether one of its members qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Unless the Board of Directors has previously designated the Audit Committee Chairman, the members of the Audit Committee shall elect a Chairman by majority vote. The duties and responsibilities of the Chairman of the Audit Committee shall be to call meetings of the Audit Committee and to preside at such meetings and to perform such other functions of the Audit Committee as may be delegated to him.

II. Statement of Policy

The Audit Committee shall assist the Board of Directors in overseeing the integrity of the Company's financial statements and financial reporting and accounting processes, the Company's compliance with financial regulatory requirements, the performance of the Company's internal audit function, if any, the outside auditors' qualifications and independence, the performance of the outside auditors, and the audits of the Company's financial statements and of the Company's internal accounting controls for financial reporting when required. The Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention, evaluation, and oversight of the work of the outside auditors (including the resolution of any disagreements between management and the outside auditors regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review, or attest services for the Company, and the outside auditors shall report directly to the Audit Committee. In so doing, it is the duty and responsibility of the Audit Committee to maintain free and open communication between and among the Committee, the outside auditors, and the management of the Company. In discharging its duties and responsibilities, the Audit Committee is empowered to investigate any matter with full access to all books, data, records, facilities and personnel of the Company. The Audit Committee shall have the power to retain independent counsel and other advisors (including the Company's regular counsel or other advisors) at the Company's expense and to pay ordinary administrative expenses of the Audit Committee that it determines are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties and responsibilities.

III. Oversight Duties and Responsibilities

The Audit Committee's oversight function recognizes that the Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and that the outside auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. Additionally, the Audit Committee recognizes that the Company's financial management, as well as its outside auditors, has more knowledge and more detailed information regarding the Company and its financial reports than do Audit Committee members. Consequently, the Audit Committee is not providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements or any professional certification as to the outside auditors' independence or the performance of their work; similarly, the Audit Committee is not independently verifying management representations, conducting an audit or investigation of the financial statements, or determining that the financial statements are true and complete, have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP), or fairly present the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flow of the Company in accordance with GAAP.

The directors serving on the Audit Committee shall have no greater standard of liability in the performance of their duties and responsibilities than the standard of liability applicable to all directors. Audit Committee members who were previously employed by the Company or who have special training or experience in financial, accounting, or auditing matters shall have no greater duty or responsibility as a result of such prior training, services or experience. Members of the Audit Committee shall have the full protection against personal liability for breach of fiduciary duties as set forth in the NINTH Article of the Articles of Incorporation, adopted by the shareholders in the meeting of January 25, 1994. In addition, members of the Audit Committee shall be entitled to be indemnified against liability by the Company as provided in the NINTH Article of the Articles of Incorporation and Article Nine of the Bylaws.

IV. Functions

The following functions shall be the principal recurring activities of the Audit Committee in carrying out its oversight duties and responsibilities. The functions are set forth as minimum duties and responsibilities with the understanding that the Audit Committee may undertake such additional duties and responsibilities as the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee may deem necessary or appropriate given the circumstances. The duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee shall include all of the duties and responsibilities set forth in Rules 10A-3(b)(2), (3), (4) and (5) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Audit Committee shall have a clear understanding with management and the outside auditors that the outside auditors are directly accountable to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall discuss with the outside auditors the overall scope and plans for their audits, including the adequacy of staffing, rotation requirements, independence and compensation. Also, the Audit Committee shall discuss with management and the outside auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Further, the Audit Committee shall meet separately with the outside auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations.

Table of Contents

The Audit Committee shall review and discuss with management and the outside auditors the Company's annual audited and quarterly unaudited financial statements, the Company's disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation and any other financial disclosures, and the selection, application, and disclosure of critical accounting policies and practices, including any changes to those policies and practices and alternatives considered, used in such financial statements, and shall review and discuss with the principal executive and financial officers their certifications in and/or accompanying the related report. The Audit Committee shall also review and discuss with the outside auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statements of Auditing Standards No. 61 and No. 90, as may be modified or supplemented. The discussion of the financial statements and related critical accounting policies and practices shall occur prior to the public release of such financial statements, and the discussion of the related financial disclosures, including the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation, shall occur prior to the filing of the Form 10-Q or Form 10-K. Additionally, based on such review and discussion, the Audit Committee shall consider whether to recommend to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Audit Committee shall oversee the administration of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and shall review and approve all related-party transactions as required by the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market or other applicable legal or regulatory requirements.

The Audit Committee shall discuss with management and the outside auditors policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management and the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and processes that could materially affect the Company's financial statements and financial reporting. The Audit Committee shall review with the outside auditors any audit problems or difficulties and management's response thereto.

The Audit Committee shall:

Establish hiring policies for employees or former employees of the outside auditors;

restrictions on the outside auditors' access to information or personnel, and management's response to same; any material communications from the outside auditors to management, such as any management letter, report of possible fraud or illegality, or schedule of significant unadjusted differences; and such other information as may be required by legal and regulatory provisions;

Receive from the outside auditors annually a formal statement regarding the outside auditors' internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review or peer review of the firm, and any steps taken by the firm to address the issues raised; and all relationships between the outside auditors and the Company consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as may be modified or supplemented by such other standards as may be set by law or regulation, the Nasdaq Stock Market rules or the rules of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board;

Discuss with the outside auditors in an active dialogue any such disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the auditors and take, or recommend that the full Board of Directors take, appropriate action to oversee the independence of the outside auditors; and

Evaluate, at least annually, the outside auditors' independence and performance, including a review of the audit engagement team, the lead audit partner, and the rest of the firm, and report to the Board of Directors the Committee's determinations with respect thereto.

The Audit Committee and its members shall have complete access to the management of Company and the Company's financial and accounting personnel, recognizing that it is expected that members of the Audit Committee will use judgment to ensure that such access is not distracting to the business operations of the Company.

The Committee shall receive reports from the principal executive and financial officers of the Company regarding: their evaluation of the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures and the Company's internal control over financial reporting; any significant deficiencies and internal weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial information and whether they have identified for the outside auditors any material weaknesses in internal controls; any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting; and any change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Audit Committee shall establish procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and for the confidential anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

V. Meetings and Reports

The Audit Committee shall meet at least four times annually and more frequently as necessary or appropriate, including teleconferences when appropriate. Special meetings of the Audit Committee may be called on one day's notice by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, or a majority of the members of the Audit Committee.
