Safe Harbor Statement

Except for the historical information contained herein, certain of the matters discussed in this Filing constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include statements regarding benefits of the proposed merger, integration plans, and expected synergies, anticipated future financial and operating performance and results, including estimates for growth. These statements are based on the current expectations of management of Exelon, Commonwealth Edison Company (ComEd), PECO Energy Company (PECO), and Exelon Generation Company, LLC (Exelon Generation and together with Exelon, ComEd and PECO, the Exelon Registrants), and the current expectations of management of Public Service Enterprise Group Incorporated (PSEG), Public Service Electric and Gas Company (PSE&G), PSEG Power LLC (PSEG Power), and PSEG Energy Holdings LLC (PSEG Holdings and together with PSEG, PSE&G and PSEG Power, the PSEG Registrants). There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this filing. For example, (1) the companies may be unable to obtain shareholder approvals required for the merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Exelon or PSEG could interfere with the merger; (5) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (6) the combined company may be unable to achieve cost-cutting synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (7) the merger may involve unexpected costs or unexpected liabilities, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies' expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger; (10) the companies may experience more difficulties than expected in achieving operating improvements at jointly owned nuclear generating facilities; (11) the companies may not realize the values expected to be obtained for properties expected or required to be divested; (12) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (13) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of the combined company. A discussion of some of these other important factors and assumptions is contained in the Exelon Registrants' and PSEG Registrants' respective filings with the SEC, including: (1) the Exelon Registrants' 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial condition and Results of Operations Business Outlook and the Challenges in Managing Our Business for Each of Exelon, ComEd, PECO and Exelon Generation; (2) the Exelon Registrants' 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data: Exelon Note 20, ComEd Note 15, PECO Note 14, and Exelon Generation Note 16; and (3) the PSEG Registrants' 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K Forward Looking Statements. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the merger, are more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that is contained in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that Exelon has filed with the SEC (Registration No. 333-122704) in connection with the proposed merger. In light of these risks, uncertainties, assumptions and factors, the forward-looking events discussed in this Filing may not occur. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this Filing. None of the Exelon Registrants or PSEG Registrants undertakes any obligation to publicly release any revision to its forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Filing.

NEWS FOR THE EMPLOYEES OF EXELON GENERATION, EXELON POWER AND EXELON POWER TEAM SPECIAL EDITION SPECIAL EDITION SPECIAL EDITION SPECIAL EDITION SPECIAL EDITION Generation Announces Merger Integration Teams

SPECIAL EDITION Exelon and PSEG recently announced the formation of a joint integration team to coordinate and oversee merger integration planning, and ultimately implementation of the merger plan. The joint integration team consists of 10 integration planning teams, four of which are business unit teams, (Generation & Trading, Delivery, Corporate/Shared Services and PSEG Energy Holdings) each with an executive sponsor and team leaders from Exelon and PSEG. The teams are led by Randy Mehrberg, executive vice president and general counsel for Exelon and Ralph Izzo, president and chief operating officer for PSEG, and will be responsible for developing integration plans to successfully merge the two companies once shareholders and various regulatory agencies approve the merger. The Generation Teams: An Overview Exelon Generation and PSEG Power have worked together to form the Generation & Trading Integration Planning Team. The Generation Steering Committee, which also oversees the Nuclear Operating Service Agreement led by Joel Dimmette from Exelon Nuclear, oversees the Generation & Trading Integration Planning Team. The Nuclear Operating Service Agreement was established in January and calls for Exelon personnel to work in the PSEG Nuclear organization to implement the Exelon Nuclear Management Model to improve operations at PSEG's Salem and Hope Creek nuclear power stations. Exelon and PSEG also have worked together to form the Market Concentration Mitigation Implementation Team. This team is responsible for implementing the designed mitigation measures as proposed in the regulatory filings and will report up to an Executive Steering Committee made up of Exelon and PSEG executives. On The Horizon The teams are just at the beginning of phase two, the analysis phase. Here's a rough timeline of activities over the next few weeks. Generation & Trading Integration Planning Team Led by Mark Schiavoni, president of Exelon Power, and Ed Sondey, vice president of Finance and Development for PSEG Power, the Generation & Trading Integration Planning Team is working to shape and design new organizations and will seek to identify and implement best practices that will make up the generation company within Exelon Electric & Gas. The teams are at the beginning of phase two, the analysis phase. Here's a timeline of activities for the next few weeks.
